WEDNESDAY MORNING, FEB. 21, 1866.

Democratic State Convention.

The Democratic State Convention for the nomination of a candidate for Governor of Pennsylvania, will meet in the hall of the House of Representatives, at Harrisburg, on Monday, the fifth (5th) day of March, 1866, at 3 o'clock P. M.

The headquarters of this Committee in the Democratic Club Rooms in Harrisburg, which are open day and evening. Democrats visiting this city are invited to call.

By order of the Dem State Com. WILLIAM A. WALLACE, Chairman. BENJAMIN L. FOSTER, Sec'y.

War—Past and Present.

The wounds made upon individuals and society by the late Abolition war, are not healing very fast. The purse of the charitable, can easily find a subject, and the glib tongue of the boasting "loyalist," has daily opportunities to practice something substantial, even at his own door; and thereby assist those he seduced to help put in practice, what he failed to do himself, and are now seeking food from door to door.

We are lead to these remarks by reading the appeal of the Trustees of the "Five Points House of Industry," New York. They have issued an appeal in behalf of hundreds of unemployed soldiers, recently discharged from the army, who have congregated about that establishment, and who are destitute and dependent, without work, and in the language of the appeal, without shelter at night, save what the Police station-houses afford, and without food other than the cold victuals obtained by begging. For the most part these men are able-bodied and willing to work, if employment could only be found for them, and it is in the hope that farmers, manufacturers, mechanics and business men generally throughout the country, who now enjoy in their persons, properties and professions the great boons of peace and security which these men aided so nobly in attaining for them, will not be forgetful of the duty they owe to these war-worn veterans, in this the hour of their greatest need, but will endeavor to give them employment and sustenance. These poor men are ready and willing to accept any employment for which they are fitted, and which promises them a respectable livelihood, and hence we hope that no one placed in a position to aid them, by giving them employment, will turn a deaf ear to the appeal made on behalf of deserving but destitute soldiers.

By enclosing the necessary funds to pay for transportation, and describing the kind of laborers wanted, to S. B. HALLIDAY, Esq. Superintendent Five Points House of Industry, New York, a fitly selected man or men will be sent forward without delay. This is a cause that appeals to the charity and patriotism of every man in the land who is placed in position to render the asked for aid, and it should be responded to with alacrity and in the full spirit of justice and humanity.

The portrait given by the Trustees, is to be seen in every large town, and frequently in the rural districts. The general demoralization of society, caused by the war, is felt throughout the land, and every community is more or less afflicted, and our charity may be expended near home. But this case above all others, should attract the attention of the cheerful giver. It is the very hell, made by the war, and should be abolished. And this can only be done by the general charity of the country, as the wants are too gigantic, for any community to bear.

It is thought by some, that the blood-hounds of Zion, will yet prevail with the "loyal" Legislatures of the several States, and their several conferences, enjoining upon the people of this country to worship the "saint" Lincoln. We know we are a queer people. But if a "loyal" negro, or a white man or woman, sees fit to worship this new made saint, let them do so. If the polite and refined French, at one time worshipped a female prostitute, what is there to prevent the Pharisee—American "loyalist" from rendering adoration to a smutty joker

To Correspondents.

We have a number of Communications on hand, which shall appear as soon as the crowded state of our columns will permit. Our friend "White Man," will have his matter attended to. * * * has withdrawn the proposition he made some time ago, agreeing to furnish us a history of the rebellion in Karthaus. He is carefully compiling the document, and will issue it in pamphlet form highly embellished with engravings, of dilapidated "veterans," mules, "loyalty," surrounded with rose-buds, honey-suckles, and other necessary embellishments. Patriotism, and a battle-field will be seen in the distance, while that highly finished, and necessary piece of furniture—the Negro bureau, will occupy the foreground, in front of which, will stand a Black and a White Republican, both trying to get into it, with other embellishments too numerous to mention.

We have been written to by several friends, in different sections of the county, asking us why we do not publish the thanksgiving sermon, delivered by the Rev. John Chambers, of Philadelphia? Our answer is, because the "blood hounds of Zion," have already done harm enough to the country, by delivering their pulpit stump speeches, to gaping congregations, without being assisted in disseminating their bellish doctrines through the newspaper press. We are no agent for the infamous work of publishing the knavish eant of a political priest, sometimes called a sermon. We care not whether he be a Democrat or an Abolitionist, that thus betrays his God, Church and Country. A horse thief has more respect for sacred things than a political priest has. The superintendent of the regions of the damned, has a number of agents in this country, chief among them, is the New York Independent, a paper that publishes every political speech delivered from a pulpit, which it dubs a "sermon," to suit the moral market.

BALTIMORE CONFERENCE.—This religious body at its late session at Alexandria, Va., elected Rev. Messrs. Register, Martin, Norval Wilson, Veitch, Rossell and Eggleston, delegates, and Poisal, Rogers, Gardiner and Welty as alternates, to the General conference of the Church South, which is to assemble at New Orleans on the 4th of April next. The roll of the conference at its adjournment had 102 names on it, and report 11,189 white, and 627 colored members, and 57 local preachers. Dr. Bond and Dr. Doggett, of Richmond, are authorized to publish a paper in Baltimore, to be called the "Episcopal Methodist."

The missionary meeting took place on Monday evening. Addresses were delivered by Rev. Dr. Schon, Rev. John Poisal of Baltimore, Dr. Doggett and other ministers. The amount of money contributed exceeded $500. Life members were constituted as follows:—Andrew Johnson, President of the United States; Rev. Messrs. Sahon, Doggett Langhorne and wife; Bishop Early, John Poisal, G. G. Brooks, F. Ware, Norval Wilson, W. G. Eggleston, Samuel Kepler, J. Bull Nelson Head, James Gregg, Mrs. Robert Jamieson, Rev. W. S. Baird, Dr. Bond, Gen. R. E. Lee and Gen. M. D. Corse.

Neither Slavery, Treason, Loyalty, War, Politics nor the everlasting Negro, were discussed during the whole session. This is certainly more than any of our northern bodies could undergo.

REFUSED.—The President refuses to communicate, as requested by Congress, the testimony in possession of the government, against Jefferson Davis, C. C. Clay and others, now held in confinement. He states that the proofs are exparte, taken without notice to the accused, and while in close confinement—and if given to the public, may be very injurious to the prisoners, or the government, or both, and their publication at this time is incompatible with the public good. We fear that the future, will yet, reveal numerous acts done by the late administration, that have been incompatible with the public good.

The Dis-Union leaders are trying to abrogate the 22d of February, (Washington's birth day,) as a holiday, and substitute therefor the 12th, the birth day of "honest old Abe," "America's greatest and noblest man," as a dis-union clergyman terms the old jester, killed in a Theatre on good Friday. What an incomprehensible bundle of inconsistencies these new-light divines have got to be

A LOYAL BREAK.—Gen. Howard, the head of the Negro Bureau, is stumping the New England States, trying to raise funds to build a Negro Church in Washington, by which he intends to improve his loyal pets. We would suggest that he had better hire them out to work, or get something for them to eat, or the half of them will starve before he gets his church ready for them. He and the "divine" Stanton may have them devouring government rations, however, by which they may sustain themselves until he gets his church ready. We wonder how much interest these demagogues, would take in a white man. We have no doubt that if four or five thousand, poor white people, would go to Washington and ask these holy men for government rations, they would be put in Prison, or arrested for treason. How unfortunate to be both poor and white, while the Nation is governed by a party controlled by "grand moral ideas."

DETECTIVE BAKER.—If any of our readers—all should—desire to learn the full particulars of this creature, whom Stanton has kept at the head of his spies and sneaks, and who have imprisoned hundreds of citizens, and then robbed them of thousands of dollars. Their doings are fully set forth in three numbers of the Police Gazette, dated respectively February 3d 10th and 17th. By enclosing 20 cents for these numbers, to George W. Mattell & Co., New York, the reader will get the life and times of General Lafayette C. Baker, and his band of national robbers. The doings of this band of government pests, astonish the world. No wonder President Johnson has notified the sneak, not to intrude himself into his presence in the future.

The Negroes and their white dis-Union allies, had a high time at Washington on the 12th inst. Bancroft, the historian, was hired to pronounce a eulogy on the "noble dead"—Lincoln. The eulogy was delivered, but the "noble dead" was not pointed out. He may be "noble" when dead, but when alive, he was nothing but a jester, used by political demagogues, like mechanics use a grindstone, to sharpen their own tools, with which the Sumners' and Stevens' intended to break up this Union, but Wilkes Booth having broken their grindstone, their tools have become dull, and the plebeian who so fortunately for the country, occupies the place of the "noble dead," refuses to have the tools of the dis-Unionists ground on him for any such work.

A NICK TRIO.—The Washington correspondent of the Associated Press, states that on the 13th inst., Chief Justice Chase, introduced the negro Fred Douglass, in flattering and complimentary terms, to a large and dense auditory, in Dr. Sanderland's church. The negro delivered himself of a two hour's speech, on "the assassination and its lessons." Judge Kelly, M. C. from Philadelphia, made a speech after the nigger was done, declaring himself unconditionally for amalgamation. We would advise those negroes, who have their ladies with them, to keep a sharp look out, while associating with such men as Kelly and Chase, because their better half's might be gobbled up by these miscegenationists, something not alluded to in the "assassination and its lessons."

FORNEY IN "THE LAST DITCH.—Col. Forney who before the war, was willing to die in "the last ditch," has not found it until now. Washington contains several martial bands, made up entirely of Black Republicans, who spend their time—when not in the bureau—in serenading White Republicans. Two of these bands made their appearance in front of the residence of the valorous Col. on Friday night last, and after playing "Hail to the Chief," "Hail Columbia," &c., he invited the Negroes into his parlor and gave them a sumptuous feast, and a two hour's speech, declaring himself in favor of all the demands of the black race. Forney and the nigger! Hail Columbia!! Can degradation fall lower?

Many persons complain that they cannot find words for their thoughts, when the real trouble is that they cannot find thoughts for their words.

A pretty girl and a wild horse are liable to do much mischief, for the one runs away with a fellow's body, and the other runs away with his heart.

Address of the Democratic State Central Committee.

DEMOCRATIC STATE COMMITTEE ROOMS, HARRISBURG, Feb. 9, 1866. To the Democracy of Pennsylvania:

The events of the last political canvass are yet fresh in your minds. You announced your unequivocal endorsement of the restoration policy of President Johnson, and denounced the doctrine of negro suffrage. Your opponents affirmed their support of the President, and evaded the issue upon the question of suffrage. A powerful organization, large official patronage and an unscrupulous use of money, secured to them the victory. The record of the past month strips the mask from the face of the victors. They treat with derision the declared policy of the President. They have placed the Government of the Constitution in abeyance, and its legislative and executive functions are usurped by a cabal of men, who, in obedience to caucus, govern the nation through the forms of a directory.

The right of each State to regulate the qualification of its electors is denied; the will of the people of the District of Columbia is overridden, and by an almost unanimous vote. The Republican party in Congress and the State Legislature accord to the negro equal political rights with the white man. The initial step toward a war of races has been taken, and a consolidated government looms up in the distance. The tenets of the President upon these points are our cardinal doctrines. In sustaining him we vindicate them. Organize in every nook and corner of the Commonwealth.

Organize to sustain the President, to maintain your principles, to restore the Union, to vindicate the supremacy of your race, and to bring in political oblivion the men who have been false to the Union, false to their pledges, false to the instincts of their blood, and true alone to the madness that rules the hour.

By order of the Democratic State Central Committee. WM. A. WALLACE, Chairman.

"Loyal" and "Divine." We clip the following from the congressional debate of Tuesday the 6th inst. Mr. Rousseau is a loyal Maj. General from Kentucky, of large ideas. Mr. Grinnell, is a clergyman from Iowa, who has found that politics pay better than divinity, and has therefore sold out to Sumner, Satan Stevens & Co., for a small advance on his former salary as a clergyman. Hear them:

Mr. Rousseau, of Kentucky, rising to a privileged question, read from the remarks of Mr. Grinnell, made yesterday, as follows: "History repeats itself. I care not whether the gentleman (Mr. Rousseau) was four years in the war on the Union side or four years on the other side, but I say that he degraded his State and uttered a sentiment I thought unworthy of an American officer when he said that he would do such an act on the complaint of a negro against him."

Only this much was read, but the preceding remark to which this referred was as follows: "The honorable gentleman from Kentucky declared, on Saturday, as I caught his language, that if he were arrested on the complaint of a negro and brought before one of the agents of the bureau when he became free he would shoot him."

Mr. Rousseau said: I pronounce the assertion that I have degraded myself, as false; a foul slander, and unworthy to be uttered by any gentleman on this floor.

Mr. Grinnell—I referred to the gentleman's remarks as I understood them, the gentleman having withheld his speech from the Globe. I had no desire to do injustice. I criticized the gentleman's language and I stand by that criticism. If I did not correctly represent what he said, I beg pardon.

Mr. Rousseau—My object was not to get an apology, but to say what I have said.

Mr. Grinnell—The gentleman's language is no offense. I stand on my rights as a member of this House, and discharge my duties as I understand they should be discharged. When I criticized the language of the gentleman from Kentucky, I did so from a sense of duty, and I thought that language unworthy of an American officer and of his own State.

NEWS ITEMS.

It is reported that Governor Curtin is to be appointed Minister Resident to Rome. This position is now held by Rufus King, of Wisconsin.

Brigadier General Dan Ullmann, formerly of Phillipsburg, has been brevetted Maj. General for meritorious conduct. We wonder on what field the merit was committed. It must have been during the palmy days of "Sam."

A member belonging to the Society of Friends, was disowned, at the late monthly meeting in New York, for having a Piano in his house.

Col. John S. Mosely, has received a general pass from Gen. Grant, to travel freely any where within the State of Virginia.

The military authorities allowed thirty negro criminals, to escape from Libby Prison, Richmond, on the 15th inst. White men would have been kept in.

Right Rev. John B. Fitzpatrick, Catholic Bishop of Boston, died in that city on the 13th inst., after a lingering illness, in the 53d year of his age. Bishop Fitzpatrick was one of the finest scholars of the age.

Fred Douglass, the black pet, says it is a piece of impertinence, and his race are not going to be insulted, by those who are ordering the colored gentlemen to go to work.

"The Government"—Johnson says he "cannot be forced" into the position that any State is out of the Union that was ever in it. We'll see which whips before long—the "government" or Thad.

Notwithstanding they have a negro bureau at Macon, Ga., 500 negroes died in one week out of a population of 8,000. Abolitionists and freedmen, are doing their war fast and in an extinguishing manner.

The Confederate General Mercer, who has been tried by court martial on a charge of murdering Union prisoners, has been acquitted, and released from arrest.

The Vicksburg Herald states that Gen. Wade Hampton and his son, Capt. Wade Hampton, jr., are stopping in that city.

Among those who are engaging rooms at the watering places for next summer, there is some anxiety as to which establishment the hospital sheets at the recent sale at Fortress Monroe are used.

Senator Douglas' property in Chicago increased so much in value during the war as to pay his debts and leave a large surplus.

A real estate sale by order of executors in New York, on Wednesday, brought $308,400. A nice sum.

The West Virginia House of Delegates have selected Buckhannon, in Upshur county, as the permanent capital of West Virginia.

It is understood in Washington that the State Department is informed as to the exact period of the French withdrawal from Mexico.

Chicago is using gas made from petroleum. The light is said to be four times stronger than that made by coal gas.

Gen. Robert E. Lee to the surprise and chagrin of loyaldom, appeared on Pennsylvania Avenue in Washington, on Thursday last. He has been summoned to appear before the reconstruction club.

The war debt of the several counties of this State, according to a report of the congressional committee on that subject, amounts to over fifty-three millions of dollars. This sum would have purchased, and freed, one fifth of the slaves, and nobody would have been hurt.

The true English spelling of "salooni" is said to be—hess, hay, hell, double hoe, hen.

The Secretary of the Treasury informs the public that nearly all the three cent shipplasters are redeemed. A "three cent business," used to be considered a small affair, but now it is all that the "great government" is able to redeem.

Colonel Basil Duke, formerly of St. Louis, is said to be preparing a life of General John Morgan.

The wife of the Italian Minister at Washington has been paid $50,000 for property destroyed by U. S. troops near Natchez, Miss., during the war.

Bishop Simpson, of the Methodist Episcopal Church, is in Washington, and it is stated he will give the President his views on reconstruction. He had better follow his legitimate business, and quit cheating his employer.

A lot of English Abolitionists have sent the "divine" Stanton, $5,000 for the destitute negroes, in this country. How happy the English people must be, if they have no poor among them, as this foreign charity would seem to indicate.

If the resolutions making General Grant a full General is passed, another will be proposed making Sherman and Sheridan Lieutenant Generals. The rank of Admiral will probably be also created in the navy.

A strong influence is being brought to bear upon the President in favor of the restoration of the Arlington estate to Mrs. Robert E. Lee, and some think the effort will be successful.
