

WEDNESDAY, MARCH 7, 1866

DIVINE SERVICES.—Sacrament of the Lord's Supper will be administered in the Presbyterian church, on Sabbath morning, March 11th. Services commencing at 10 o'clock, a. m.

Special attention of Merchants and others is invited to Card, in this issue, of Howell & Bourke, Manufacturers of Wall Papers, etc., etc.

NOMINATED.—We have just learned that Hon. Heister Clymer, Senator from Berks county, was nominated on Monday, as the Democratic candidate for Governor on the fourth ballot by a vote of 72 to 61, for all others.

TOTAL ECLIPSE OF THE MOON.—There will be a total eclipse of the moon on the evening of March 30th. It begins at five minutes past nine o'clock, and begins to disappear at fifty-one minutes past eleven. It is visible throughout the United States.

EVERYBODY INTERESTED.—A fact worth noting—that Wright & Flanigan are selling goods about ten per cent cheaper than any other establishment in the county. Persons in want of goods, will therefore save something by giving them a call, as they keep all kinds of goods, including Ruff Rope, Rafting Axes, Tinware, etc., suitable for Shanty outfits.

PORKISH.—The Cincinnati and Chicago people, are trying to prove which of the two cities is the most hoggy, each claiming the honor. Our little borough seems to incline a little in that line too. From a census just completed, it appears that 144 hogs were slaughtered during the past season, yielding in the aggregate thirty thousand six hundred and forty pounds, being nearly 213 lbs. to each hog. This is pretty well for Checkicamoose.

DISASTROUS FIRE.—Shortly after 6 o'clock, on the evening of the 26th ult., a fire was discovered in the five story brown stone building, No. 235 North 3d Street, Philadelphia, which soon extended to other buildings, causing a loss of over $700,000. Chief among the losers is that eminent firm, of James, Kent, Santee & Co., dry goods jobbers, whose loss will amount over $500,000, principally covered by insurance, but the clear loss on the building alone will exceed $40,000. The Eagle Hotel was also seriously damaged. Five or six persons were killed by the falling walls.

The County Superintendency. CURWENVILLE, Feb. 27, 1866. Mr. Editor:—I am informed, by different persons, that it is currently reported that I am a political candidate for the office of County Superintendent of Common Schools, in Clearfield county. And one individual has said, that if I am not I will publicly decline the office. I wish through the medium of the public press, by your permission, to disabuse the public mind, and set myself right on this subject.

As to my declining the office, I think it will be time to do so, when the position is tendered—a trouble I do not anticipate; and moreover, a something I most likely would not do if brought to the test. Be that as it may; I wish it distinctly understood throughout the county, that I am not a candidate at all, much less a political candidate for the office of County Superintendent of Common Schools—an office which, in my humble opinion, ought never to be connected with partisan politics. I have never offered myself in this county for this position, and although several times earnestly solicited, have steadily refused to be a candidate.

To my friends who have urged me to ask for the office, I may, while I thank them for the kindness shown me, give a few reasons for my refusal. And first: If the office is to be made a political one, I desire to have nothing to do with it. I have my strong political preferences, but as a teacher in the public Schools of our Commonwealth for almost fourteen years, and in connection an humble minister of the gospel for half that time, I have striven not to let my political preferences interfere with my duties; and as these political opinions are my own, I do not intend to give them into the hands of any party to be used as public property. Neither do I intend to prostitute an office so important, to political purposes. In the second place: I have not the presumption to ask such a favor from a people among whom I have lived so short a time. And lastly: (as we preachers say,) I will only fill the office when it seeks me, and not when I seek it—such, at least, is my present feeling.

Hoping that it will now be fully understood that I am no candidate, I subscribe myself a friend to popular education.

MARRIED. On the 22d ult., by the Rev. W. M. Burchfield, Mr. John McCullough, of Knox tp., to Miss Lizzie McCracken, of Jordan township.
