

GEORGE B. GOODLANDER, Editor.

WEDNESDAY MORNING, MARCH 28, 1866

FOR GOVERNOR

HIESTER CLYMER, OF BERKS COUNTY.

George's Answer.

"The Clearfield Republican denounces Gen. Geary as a political renegade. How about Hiester Clymer, your candidate for Governor, who deserted the Whig party a few years since? Is he a political renegade too? Let your readers know, George."—Journal.

The editor of the Journal should not reproach Mr. Clymer, for doing what he done himself—desert the Whig party a few years since. There is however this difference between the two gentlemen. Mr. Clymer in joining the Democratic party, joined a patriotic party—the old "Union savers"—and in advocating its doctrines, obeyed the injunctions of George Washington, Thos. Jefferson, and the other founders of the Republic, thereby laboring to save us from civil war, debt and dis-union, and has lead the life of a patriot, while our neighbor after "deserting the Whig party," joined in with a set of political harlots—a mere cabal, who have no more respect for Constitutions, or the prescribed rights of an American citizen, than a swine has for pearls. And in their wild crusade against liberty and law, during the past five years, the editor and his new allies, have disobeyed every injunction of the fathers, and in the language of inspiration, are led to exclaim, "when the wicked rule, the land mourneth." Every battle-field and fortress, are so many, mile-stones and guide-boards, along the political highway of our distracted land, bearing witness to this fact. The difference therefore between Mr. Clymer and the editor of the Journal, is, that when the Whig party committed suicide, the former joined hands with those who advocated the Constitutional rights of all, and exclusive privileges of none, nor of any section, and is now put into the field as the standard bearer of the friends of the Union and of the white race. The latter has seen fit to identify himself with the dis-Union party, a party which has been waging a gigantic war, against the Constitution, and for a dissolution of the Union, for the past five years, which has now, however, been transferred from the field, to the forum, by way of variety; and a war of races has been substituted for the fields of Bull Run, Fredericksburg and Gettysburg. Mr. Clymer, is, with all his influence, in favor of the Union of these States, and the supremacy of the white race; while our neighbor, in connection with that "life long Democrat," Gen. Geary, Stevens & Co., is laboring to destroy both.

They Want More Blood.

—The New York Methodist Protestant Conference, now in session in that city, is very much dissatisfied with the "government." They passed a series of resolutions of a political character, one of which declares, that, "expediency, constitutional law, justice and the Bible, all demand that at least some of the principal leaders of the rebellion be punished with death." We presume if He whom they profess to follow, were upon earth, would again exclaim; Father-forgive them, they know not what they do. Why they put "expediency law and justice," before the Bible; we cannot conceive unless they are more carnal than righteous. We think that the Bible, justice, constitution, law and a proper respect for their calling demand, that they should mind their own business, and quit meddling with that of their neighbors. These first class hypocrites only one year ago, proved by the forgoing catalogue of ethics, that it was a crime to oppose the government, now; they turn around and prove from the same documents, that it is right. We wonder how long those self-righteous "bummers," will succeed in deceiving the people of this country.

It is reported that C. C. Clay, confined at Fortress Monroe, with Davis, has been granted, on his parole of honor, the freedom of the grounds inside the walls during the day time.

Rather Unexpected.

We did not suppose that the Deacon, who presides over the destinies of a Church, Sunday School, and the columns of the Journal, would knowingly publish anything devoid of truth; but his issue of last week, if there were no outcroppings of a similar state of things heretofore, entirely dispel this idea. In the number of his paper alluded to, he publishes some of the proceedings of the State Senate in 1864, to show that the "Copperhead candidate for Governor," Hiester Clymer, voted against increasing the Soldier's wages, and that he opposed a vote of thanks to Gen. Grant, and the officers and soldiers under him, giving the yeas and nays, which stood 16 to 16. The reader will please recollect, that this was during the time the Senate was un-organized, when the seeds of dis-union, which had been sown years before, were just beginning to peep through the ground, but are now so fully developed that the "government" calls the leaders of the then conspiracy, "traitors." Thus while Mr. Clymer, and his fifteen Democratic co-workers were trying to defeat these "traitors" in 1864, by endeavoring to make them elect a Speaker, as the law required, and in which the dis-unionists have since acquiesced, because they have not attempted to incorporate any act they did, during this time, into the code of laws, thus openly confessing, that what they did was illegal and wrong, and that Mr. Clymer, was right, and for this he is now arraigned by his Christian neighbor, and his votes and acts tortured to suit quite another purpose, from that for which they were given. Such things might be overlooked in a private, but when committed by a Major General, of the inner sanctuary, we must be allowed to dissent from the inculcation of such morals.

BLACK & WHITE.—The Rump Congress had a high time, over the Regular Army bill. It was always expected that when that body would designate the number of men that should compose the regular army, in the future; that those soldiers who had been wounded, and desired to join the army, could do so; but this is not the fact. That whole body of soldiers, known as the Reserve Corps, has been rejected. Senator Fessenden of Maine a very "loyal" man, denounced the request of the Reserves, as selfish and impudent. The reader would no doubt like to know, why this body of soldiers have been thus treated, by their special friends. It was just because those "loyal" senators and members, wanted to have a lot of buck negroes incorporated into the regular army. The regular army is really large enough now, composed of white men, but in order to billet a lot of the "gentlemen from Africa" on the government; Congress has added thirteen regiments of negroes, to the regular army; and for this; the wounded, but otherwise competent white soldier, has been excluded from the army. It was a misfortune for the soldiers composing the reserve corps, that they were white, had they been black, thick liped, and their heads covered with "loyal" wool; they could have got into the army.

"LOYAL" CHARITY.—The United States Senate, on Tuesday last, inserted a clause in the appropriation bill, allowing the officers of the negro bureau, to draw out of the United States Treasury, the sum of $25,000, for the support of the indigent colored people in Washington." Mr. Saulsbury, Dem., moved to amend by also appropriating a like sum for the poor whites; but this was defeated, and the bill passed allowing the worthless, lazy negroes in the national capital to be fed out of the Treasury, during the next summer. We are surprised that those philanthropic souls in the New England states, should allow their "colored brethren," who are so intelligent, industrious and energetic, to be fed and clothed out of the Treasury of the country. We are surprised that Boston has not had a million of them shipped to that loyal depot, to feed, clothe and make them religious men, and women like themselves.

A great effort is being made at Washington, by the dis-unionists to turn Senator Stockton of New Jersey, out of the Senate; though the Judiciary committee, had some time before the President's late speech, unanimously decided that he was clearly entitled to his seat. But a two third vote is badly needed in the Senate, and the Radicals will try and make it, if possible by turning democrats out.

MORE RESULTS.—The Democratic revival seems to extend throughout the State. The township, borough and city, elections had throughout the state during the month, show great gains for the old "Union Savers." In addition to those we give last week, we have the following: In Easton the Abolition majority 13; fall was 45 the Democratic majority now is 110; gain 155. The Abolition majority, in Danville, was 65; now the Democratic majority is 49. In Mechanicsville the Abolition majority, was 159; the Democratic majority is 2. This borough is within six miles of the home of Gen. Geary, the dis-union candidate for governor. In Bedford the home of the late and present Chairman, of the dis-union state Committee; the Democrats doubled their majority. If the government does not go back on the "Union Savers," all will be well yet.

THEN AND NOW.—The Abolition leaders for the past five years have slandered and abused Ex-President Buchanan, without stint, because he took no steps as they illege during the fall of 1860, and the spring of 1861, to prevent the Southern States from seceding. Coerce them was the cry. All power was with the Executive &c. Mr. Buchanan claimed he had no authority, and Congress being in session at the time, failed to grant a remedy. Then according to the theory of the dis-unionists; the Executive possessed regal powers, and congress was but a cipher in the trinity of the state; now however; without any change in the principles, or the written forms of our system of government, these same men, claim that President Johnson, because congress is in session; has but limited powers, and that everything belongs to congress. The conduct of Stevens & Co., today, when compared with that of 1861, proves that they are either knaves or fools.

A GREAT CHANGE.—It is now said, that a large number of our "loyal" neighbors, who used to swear, that the President was the "government," and denounced all who did not subscribe to this faith as traitors; are "going back" on the present "government," and term it no more, than Andy Johnson. Our opposition friends seem to have as much trouble about principles, as their party name. They are compelled to change both every year, and still against the Union every time. While Clay and Webster, ran the machine, the latter was preserved for a long time; but under the lead of Stevens and Sumner, nothing remains stationary, not even the color of the nigger.

FAILED.—A great effort was made in the Rump Senate, on Friday last, to turn Stockton, Dem., of New Jersey, out of his seat, in order to reduce the number of Senators, who now support the Presidents policy, it however failed. But Mr. Stockton was compelled to vote for himself. The vote stood 21 to 21, his making 22 years, and this he did only, because Senator Morrill, who had paired off, voted before him, violating every principle of honor.

It appears that some time during last August, a Democrat named McGuire, addressed a letter to Gen. Geary, asking him to become a candidate for Governor. The General declined being a candidate "AT PRES. ENT," as he did not possess the WEALTH, which it seemed necessary for a candidate to possess. We wonder where he found the "greenbacks" to make him wealthy since August last.

VOTERS of Clearfield co., remember that Gen. John W. Geary, the opposition nominee for Governor, is the especial stool pigeon, of Thad Stevens, & Co., and endorses every word and act, that that disunion cabal suggests or does. The "Government," having denounced them as "traitors," it behooves every friend of the Union, to rally to the standard of Hiester Clymer, and the "Union savers."

Some of the dis-union blow-horns, are trumpeting the fact that General Geary, captured 350 soldiers, 114 Cannons, and 38,500 bales of cotton, when Savannah surrendered to Gen. Sherman. The soldiers and guns have been accounted for, but the cotton is still buried. Those 350 rebels must have had a good time manning the rifle pits and 114 cannon. No wonder it took 100,000 Yankees to capture that city.

The Legislature has passed an act, authorizing the Managers of the Phillipsburg & Curwensville turnpike road, to collect tolls on the bridge over Clearfield creek.

J. W. Forney, D. D., speaks of ex-President Pierce reproachfully, as "hidden away from human sight and memory." When we remember the eagerness with which Forney traveled from Pennsylvania to New Hampshire, as soon as he was certain of General Pierce's election, to obsequiously offer his service to the President elect—the persistence with which he followed him—fawning and begging him recognition as a confidant—his anxiety to be chosen Clerk of the House of Representatives and the repugnance of members to voting for him—how that repugnance was overcome through the exertions of the President's nearest friends, friends by whose efforts he was at last chosen clerk with its large emoluments and patronage at his command—when we recollect too, how assiduously he labored to gain the personal regard of Gen. Pierce, his full confidence in all respects, by assuming to be his most devoted advocate—how he was favored by Gen. Pierce's administration—how sycophantic he was to every member of it, and how eager he was for self—how he teased for "more" until Judge Nickolson was persuaded to allow him a percentage of the profits from the public printing, which yielded him fifty or sixty thousand dollars—and finally, how, after he had obtained all that was to be had through the influence of the President, he deserted him for one whom he whinnily said had been a father to him, and then, in turn, deserted that "father"—we say, when we remember all this, and more of the same character, we can feel only contempt for an ingrate who would bruise the bosom that sheltered and warmed him.—Boston Post.

A & G. W. Rail Road.

The report of the Committee appointed to procure information relative to the different proposed routes for the Atlantic and Great Western Railroad through Pennsylvania, which was submitted at a meeting in Williamsport, January 26, has been published. It is principally occupied by a letter from J. M. McMinn, Civil Engineer, in which he sketches the several routes proposed since 1827, and argues in favor of a road from Lewisburg to Bellefonte, and says that Enegh's Gap is the most practically of all between the Susquehanna and Juniata. The Cold Stream route to the Muhannon, up Beaver and Laurel Run to Wilson's and Roaring Runs, and thence to Clearfield, to Curwensville, and up Anderson's Creek to Sandy Ridge and Shaffer's, is recommended. He says that a road will be built from Driftwood to Franklin, which should be a link in the great chain between San Francisco and Philadelphia. The light grades by Bennett's Branch and the Susquehanna are cheaper and nearer than any other. The road would be extended from Bennett's Branch to Franklin, and the latter would be a central point, distant 516 miles from New York, via Salamanca; 448 via Quakake and Easton; 483 from Philadelphia, via Meadville and Corry, and 413 via Sunbury, or 35 miles nearer to Philadelphia than by the shortest route to New York. The report very strongly favors the construction of the Atlantic and Great Western Railroad through the West Branch Valley. It is a valuable document on the whole subject.

A GOOD CHANCE.—We often hear the remark, "I wish I had a good darky." This want seems to be supplied now, by Gen. Deacon Howard, of the Negro Bureau. He has opened an agency at Philadelphia, Harrisburg, Pittsburg, and other northern cities, for the purpose of retailing negro servants, to good responsible, and christian men and women. Go in loyalists, and supply yourselves with a "free nigger," and thereby, you may entertain an angel.

THE ASSASSINATION.—Sterling King, an old Kentucky "bummer," was arrested at Louisville, on the 21st, for a burglary he had committed in Ohio, after his arrest he confessed that he was the man that attempted to assassinate Secretary Seward, last April, and that Payne knew nothing about it. He attempted to commit suicide in prison the same night by severing a blood vessel in his arm. His recovery is doubtful.

APPOINTED.—The loyal union Republican etc., party, has at length, after great tribulation secured a chairman for their State Committee Hon. Frank Jordan, of Bedford, had this honor conferred upon him. Mr. Jordan, has been one of the military-state-agents at Washington. He is the undisputed enemy of the late Chairman, John Cessna.

NOMINATED.—General Burnside, the hero of Fredericksburg, and the military "Moses" of the gentleman from Africa, has been nominated by the dis-unionists of Rhode Island for Governor—the right man in the right place, and may have brains enough to govern that potato patch.

We were pleased, last week, to see that our neighbor had copied so largely from the Republican, of the week previous; but are sorry that we cannot reciprocate.
