HOW TO SAVE MONEY

The times are hard; you'd like to know How you may save your Dollars; The way to do it I will show, If you will read what follows,

A man who lived not far from hore, Who worked hard at his trade; But had a household to import, That squandered all he made,

I met him once, suys he, "my friend, I look threadbare and rough ; I've tried to get myself a suit, But can't save up enough."

Says I, my friend, how much have you? I'll tell you where to go, To get a suit that's sound and cheap-AL RESZENSTERN Sand Co.

He took what little he had saved, And went to Reigenstein & Brothers Age there he got a handsome suit, For half he paid to others. Now he is home, he looks so well;

And their effect is zuch, That when they take their daily meals, Firey don't eat half so much. And now he finds on Saturday night

With all their wants supplied; That he has money left to spend, And some to lay aside. His good success, with cheerful smile, He gladly tells to all;
