A man who fived not far from here, Who worked hard at his trade; But had a household to support, That squandered all he made.

I met him once, says he, 'my friend,

I look threadbare and rough ; I've tried to get myself a suit, But can't save up enough," Says I, my friend, how much have you?

I'll tell you where to go.
o get a suit that's sound and cheap—
At REIZENSTEIN'S and Co.

He took what little he had saved,
And went to Reizensteln & Brothers
And there he got a handsome suit,
For half he paid to others.

Now he is home, he looks so well; And their effect is such,
That when they take their daily meals,
They don't eat half so much.

And now he finds on Saturday night With all their wants supplied; That he has money left to spend, And some to lay aside.

His good success, with cheerful smile, He gladly tells to all;
