A man who lived not far from kere, But had a household to support,

That squandered all he made, I met him once, says he, "my friend, I look threadbare and rough; I've tried to get toyself a suit, But can't save up enough."

Says I, my friend, how much have you? I'll tell you where to go,
To get a suit that's sound and cheap—
At REIZENSTEIN S and Co.

He took what little he had saved. And want to Reizenstein & Brothers And there he got a handsome suit, For half he paid to others.
