A man who lived not far from kere, Who worked hard at his trade; But had a household to support, That squandered all he made,

I met him once, says he, "my friend, I look threadbare and rough; I've tried to get myself a suit, But can't save up enough."

Says I, my friend, how much have you? I'll tell you where to go,
To get a suit that's sound and cheap—
At REIZENSTEIN'S and Co. He took what little he had saved.

And went to Reizenstein & Brothers And there he got a handsome suit, For half be paid to others.

Now he is home, be looks so well;
And their effect is such,
That when they take their daily meals,
They don't eat helf so much. And now be finds on Saturday night
