

New Books.

THE PRISON LIFE OF JEFFERSON DAVIS. By Dr. John J. Craven, physician to the Confederate chief, and late Post Surgeon at Fortress Monroe. Published by George W. Carleton, 413 Broadway, New York. There are two editions of this work. Price $2 and $3.

This is a remarkable book. It details the incidents connected with the capture of Mr. Davis, interesting particulars in reference to his imprisonment, health and habits, with conversations of deep public importance. The extraordinary narrative of this book has created a demand unparalleled in the annals of book making. Dr. Craven has performed a work for which he will receive the congratulations of a grateful people. The devilry of the War Department is again laid bare, and for which the Doctor justly receives the praise of a grateful public, which is far better than all the power and patronage that could be conferred by that wretched creature, who still reigns supreme in that Department. We only wish that every mother in the land could read the letter of Mrs. Davis to Dr. Craven, detailing the treatment of herself, children and friends, on their passage from Fortress Monroe to Savannah, and while penned up there and watched by Stanton's Massachusetts bloodhounds. None but heathens ever acted so before. Everybody should buy this book.

STONEWALL JACKSON; a military biography, with fine portrait and maps. By Col. John E. Cooke, formerly of Gen. Stuart's staff. Published by D. Appleton & Co., 443-45 Broadway, New York. Price $2.50.

This is undoubtedly the best biography yet published of this remarkable military leader. The book is accepted by his friends as in the main correct, and is not assailed by his enemies. It is produced in a very attractive style, ably written, well printed, and must be accepted as a standard, in a military point of view; and is arranged in three parts, viz: from his childhood to battle of Bull Run No. 1; the campaigns of the Valley; from Port Republic to Chancellorsville—where he was killed. This must prove a very fascinating book to those soldiers who, for two or three years, tramped up and down the valley after this military chieftain. With all the hardships of the camp and the field fully set forth by the author, who often removes the veil and fully displays the rallying points in a true soldier's life. There are several other publications purporting to be biographies of "Stonewall," but we deem Mr. Cooke's the best for the general reader. The book is bereft of everything partisan or sectarian, and deals only with the soldier and statesman.

MORGAN AND HIS MEN. By Sallie R. Ford, author of "Grace Truman," "May Bunyan," etc. Reprinted from the Mobile edition, with a fine steel portrait of Morgan. Published by Charles B. Richardson, 540 Broadway, New York. 12 mo., pp. 420. Price $2.

This book has been accepted as a truthful statement of the raids and expeditions made by this southern partizan, during the war. Morgan attempted to imitate Marion, of Revolutionary fame. But the odds were against him because of the improvements in the art of war, and the disapproval of many of the Confederate Generals of this system of warfare. This is a good book for boys, and shows to what pinnacles of pride and glory men may rise, when possessed of energy and bravery. If men can be educated to embrace fatigue and danger with a smile, while engaged in deeds of doubtful propriety, what is to prohibit them from becoming brave and noble in the direct line of their duty? These things can all be taught in the first lessons of youth.

ATTENTION, VETERANS.—We call the attention of the discharged soldiers to a notice published in this issue, by the County Commissioners, which may prove of interest to those who have not been exempted from their bounty tax for 1866.

We call the attention of the public to the card of Dr. J. P. Cornett, who has opened an office in Curwensville, where he offers his services in the dental line, to all in need of such aid.

School Exhibition.

It was our pleasure to be present at the really grand exhibition given in the Court House, on Friday evening last, by the School under the superintendency of Prof. Harrison, and his assistants. The building was filled to overflowing and the heat excessive; but everything passed off harmoniously, and all seemed satisfied. The programme was entirely too long—four hours, in a paroled room like this, adds to the health of no one, and to the pleasure of but few. On this point there can be no improvement.

Upon the whole, this exhibition was a decided success. Not a single "failure" occurred during the time to cause a blush from child, teacher or friend. Some of the scholars, however, excelled the most ardent expectations, for which they won universal applause, while none failed to fulfill the whole duty assigned them. In this there was illustrated again, the fact, that the infantile mind can be cultivated to perform every function, with nearly equal precision of that of mature years. Hence the wrong, and danger, of perpetrating in the presence of the youthful, that which is evil. In awarding full praise to all, we must not overlook and fail to condemn that which we believe to be wrong. We allude to the dialogue entitled, "Genius of Liberty," purporting to be an argument between a northern and a southern statesman many years ago, probably during the days of nullification. It was out of time, out of place and—to use the mildest term—untruthful. If the dialogue is contained in any school book, it should be discarded; or if original, history was terribly perverted, and the young statesman will no doubt do better next time, and the principal will presume see that neither time nor talent is again wasted in this manner.

Mr. Scofield, our M. C., professes to have an intense admiration for the doctrines of the Declaration. Will he have the goodness to inform us how he reconciles his proposed policy towards the south with that clause of the instrument which declares that all government derives its legality from the consent of the governed? He thinks with suffrage the negroes may in course of time become elevated to a level with—himself. We sincerely trust that whatever may befall the black race, they will never suffer such a calamity as that.—Observer.

Mr. Forrest's receipts for his first ten nights at Maguire's Opera House, San Francisco, are said to be $22,000 in gold.

Connecticut and New Hampshire have ratified the constitutional amendment.

John Morrissey, the pugilist, is said to be a candidate for Congress from the fifth district in N. Y. city.

Primary Election.

In obedience to the requirements of Rule 4th for conducting the Primary Elections of the Democratic party of Clearfield county, the Democrats of the several boroughs and townships are required to meet at the election house in each district on the second Saturday of July next, (being the 14th day of the month) at such hour as shall be named by the Vigilance Committee for each separate district, and to close at such hour as said Committee shall name—for the purpose of expressing by ballot, their choice of candidates for the respective offices, viz: one person for Assembly, two persons for Associate Judges, one person for Commissioner, and one person for Auditor, to be voted for and elected in October.

The following rules, 5th and 6th, are given for the information of those concerned.

RULE 5TH.—No person shall be permitted to vote at such Primary Election, except those who have voted with the Democracy at the preceding general election, or shall be of known Democratic standing, and no candidate shall be placed upon the return unless he shall have his card as a candidate inserted in the Democratic papers during at least three weeks preceding the primary election.

RULE 6TH.—The townships committee or the election board shall designate one of their number to act as return judge, whose duty it shall be to take charge of the returns of votes cast, after having been duly certified to as being correct, and signed by a majority of the board, and carry to them to Clearfield Borough on the Tuesday following the election, and produce them at 3 o'clock, P. M., in the Court House, when said judges will be called to order by the Chairman of the County Committee, who shall preside. The votes shall then be counted and the persons receiving the highest number of votes cast at said election, shall be declared nominated for the respective offices for which they have been voted for: Provided said persons voted for shall have complied with the requirements of rule 5th; in case the person having the highest number of votes has failed to comply with said rule, then the person having the next highest number of votes shall be declared the nominee for said office.

COMMITTEE OF VIGILANCE.

In accordance with the rules governing the Democratic party of Clearfield County, the county Committee have selected and appointed the following named gentlemen, to act as a Committee of Vigilance, for the respective boroughs and townships, the ensuing year. Heretofore the committee has consisted of but three persons, and it has often been demonstrated that through causes impossible to control, a majority of this number could not always be present, to discharge the duties enjoined upon them, and thus the duty of holding the primary election devolved upon those not designated. The County Committee deeming it no violation of our rules, have enlarged the committee, selecting seven persons in the large districts, and five in the small. They would suggest the propriety of these committees to hold a meeting a few days previous to the day of the election, and select from among, and designate, three of their number to attend and hold said election, and at the same time appoint the return judge, so that each may understand his duty, when the time of action arrives. It is hoped that all will take a lively interest in maintaining and upholding the rules and organization of the only party that has, and will, govern this country according to the Constitution, and the laws enacted in harmony therewith, and thereby restore to Union and prosperity to our distracted country, which has been so terribly afflicted by demagogues and traitors, under the guise of patriotism and "loyalty."

BITTER WINE OF IRON.—An exquisite impregnation of dry Spanish Wine, with the variety of Calaisa Bark, and the most energetic of all the ferruginous salts, Citrate of Magnesia Oxide of Iron. It has a vinous flavor, very grateful to the palate, is without chalybeate taste, and will not discolor the teeth. It excites languid appetite, gives rest to food, improves digestion, increases the strength, steadies the circulation, takes of muscular flabbiness, removes the pallor of debility, gives firmness and precision to the action of the nervous system, with power to endure fatigue and resist disease. MAGNETIC CITRATE OF IRON is new and peculiar, differing from the ordinary Soluble Citrate, in containing an equivalent of Protioxide of Iron, in place of the Ammonia. It is neutral, tasteless, without stringency, as prompt and energetic as the Chloride, and unlike that, it does not local inflammatory action or headache. CALISYA BARK is pre-eminent among vegetable tonics, has no equal as a strengthener or restorative, nor rival as an anti-periodic. Retail in $1 and $2 bottles, quarts and gallons for dispensing. O. S. HUBBELL, Je 20-1m Apothecary, 1419 Chestnut St., Phila.
