

Supplement to the Bounty Law.

Section 1. That the authorities mentioned in the act, to which this is a supplement, and the several supplements thereto, are hereby authorized to levy and collect a per capita tax, exceeding twenty dollars each, on persons liable to military duty, upon all able-bodied male taxable inhabitants, not liable to military duty, between the ages of twenty-one and forty years: Provided further, That commissioned officers and privates, now in actual service of the United States, or this State, and persons who have been honorably discharged from such service, who were permanently disabled in said service, shall be exempt from the per capita tax herein specified, and the property of widows, and minor children, and widowed mothers of non-commissioned officers and privates, who died in military service, is hereby exempted from the payment of a bounty tax, &c.

We produce the foregoing supplement for the benefit of borough, township and other officers in this county, who have levied a tax for bounty purposes, under the act of Assembly, approved the 25th day of March, 1864, and the several supplements thereto, and call their attention specially to a portion of this supplement, approved the 15th day of March, 1865, and found in the Pamphlet Laws, on page 24.

We are informed that a per capita tax has been laid, in several townships, upon persons over the age of "forty-five," after the passage of this supplement; consequently this tax is void, and cannot be collected. We understand that proceedings are about to be instituted to compel the repayment of the amount thus collected, and to prohibit the collection of the tax in the future.

SERIOUS ACCIDENT.—On Thursday last three ladies, Mrs. Jonathan Nichols, Mrs. O. B. Merrell and Mrs. Gaulin, went up the country in a carriage, and on their return home, while descending the hill to Antis, the horses became unmanageable and ran off, smashing things up generally, throwing the whole of them out of the carriage, and injuring all of them more or less. Mrs. Merrell is seriously injured about the head and shoulders, and may never recover. The most remarkable thing about this whole transaction is, that Mrs. Merrell and Mrs. Gaulin had their little babes with them, but in the general smash up they escaped injury. Mrs. Gaulin threw hers out of the back of the carriage, and then jumped after it.—The carriage striking a stump soon after, pitched the other two out of the front, among the horses' feet; but they becoming detached from the wreck, soon left all behind. It is a miracle that the whole party was not killed.

THE LADY'S FRIEND FOR AUGUST.—"Harvest time,"—the harvest time of life, as well as of the season—is the appropriate steel engraving of the August number of this beautiful periodical. The double and finely colored steel fashion plate is a gem, as usual. Then we have the usual number of wood-cuts illustrating the "Street Arabs," and the latest fashions in dresses, bonnets, hats, &c. The music is the song of "Childhood and Home." Among the literary contributions, we note "One Summer's Romance," by Clara Augusta; "The Banisher," by Mrs. Hosmer; "The Disputed Patrimony," by Auber Fosterier; "The Distressed Bachelor," (concluded) by Mrs. Oliphant; Novelties, Receipts, Fashions, &c. Price $2.50 a year; 2 copies $4.00; 8 copies (and one gratis) $16.00. Specimen numbers will be set for 15 cents. Address Deacon & Peterson, 319 Walnut Street, Philadelphia.

Five Negroes, on Wednesday night last, entered the house of Mr. Lyle, in Montgomery county, Md., and, after murdering him, plundered his house and decamped. The whole five were, two days after, arrested in Alexandria, and over $1,000 of the money and other property was found on their persons. They are in jail. The "National wards" ought to behave themselves, immediately in Gen. Howard's front, or they will injure the bureau business.

We are requested to state that the Normal School, at Curwensville, closed on the 13th, and will be reopened on Monday, July 30, to continue six weeks. The attendance, from present prospects, will be much larger after vacation than before it.

SOLDIERS' CONVENTION.—The following named delegates were chosen at the soldiers' convention, which assembled at the court-house on yesterday, to attend the State Convention which assembles at Harrisburg, on the 2d of August next: Surgeon J. P. Burchfield, Col. Walter Barrett, Capt. John S. McKiernan, Capt. Matthew Ogden, David Buck, Charles Larriemer, and Richard S. Carr.

HEAVY LOSS.—The property destroyed by the late fire at Portland, Me., upon investigation, amounts to nearly ten million dollars; while the insurance amounts to but $3,575,000. It is said that this loss is divided among 55 different companies, one losing $391,000. Rather a snug sum for one office to lose.

FIRES.—A valuable kiln of select lumber, belonging to James Hagerty, of Puseyville, was destroyed by fire last week.

The house of Patrick Flynn, in Jaynesville, was totally destroyed by fire on Monday, the 9th instant. The furniture was principally saved.

DIVIDEND.—The directors of the First National Bank of Clearfield have this day (July 2d) declared a dividend of five per cent. on the capital stock, (free from Government tax,) out of the profits of the last six months. A. C. FINNEY, Cashier.

SERIOUS CHARGE.—A Mrs. Miller, of Karthaus township, was lodged in jail yesterday, charged with poisoning her husband, who died very suddenly on the 12th instant. She having purchased arsenic the day before.

The Governor of Kansas, has appointed a notorious Radical, named E. G. Ross, U. S. Senator, in Lane's stead.

The Reading Meeting.

The initial campaign meeting of the Democracy, held at Reading, the home of Hiestor Clymer, our candidate for Governor, on last Wednesday, was, by authentic accounts, one of the grandest demonstrations that ever took place in Pennsylvania, and in all its features a brilliant success. Thousands upon thousands of the sturdy yeomanry of Berks and the adjacent counties poured in one continuous stream into that old town, from morning until noon, filled with enthusiasm for the old and undying faith, and anxious to light the watch-fires for a vigorous and animated campaign against the hereditary foes of the Union and the Constitution.

The meeting was called to order by Hon. Wm. A. Wallace, Chairman of the State Central Committee, who dealt the enemy some of his short, sharp and characteristic blows, putting the huge assemblage in excellent trim for the seige. Hon. Richard Vaux, of our city, presided, and speeches were made by Hon. George H. Pendleton, of Ohio, Montgomery Blair, and other prominent gentlemen, who defined the great issues impending in the coming election, with marked ability and telling effect. The statement made by Mr. Blair, that the Republicans were prepared to maintain their power by force of arms, and at the point of the bayonet, created a profound sensation, and many an eye flashed defiance, and many a heart throbbed with indignation, amid that vast and surging multitude.

The resolutions were well-timed, conceived in the proper spirit, and have the ring of the old Jeffersonian metal about them, which is truly refreshing. On the whole, the vastness of the meeting and the character of its proceedings, were truly encouraging; and if the canvass is continued with the same energy and zeal which have characterized its opening, a signal victory most assuredly awaits the Democracy in October next.—Sunday Mercury.

THE CONSTITUTIONAL AMENDMENT.—Hon. J. W. Leftwich, M. C. elect from the eighth district of Tennessee, and a strong Union man throughout the war, has addressed a letter to the members of the Tennessee Legislature, urging them not to ratify the constitutional amendment proposed by Congress. He says:

"What is the ultimate object of this amendment? Evidently to force upon us universal negro suffrage; and so adroit is the wording as to accomplish this in either of two ways: First, by inducing us to adopt it ourselves, rather than suffer curtailment of representation. Failing in this, (which is not probable) they will fall back on the section granting to Congress power to enforce by appropriate legislation, the provisions of this amendment; and how easy will it be to say it is necessary to grant them suffrage, in order to protect them in their newly-acquired citizenship?"

The Catholic convent, an extensive institution situated back of the Clifton House, in Canada, near Niagara Falls, was totally destroyed by fire on Friday night.

The National Cemetery at Forts Henry and Donelson will contain about one thousand tombstones.

HORRIBLE MURDER.—Between one and three o'clock, on Wednesday morning, Mr. George Raymond, residing on his farm, about one mile from Woodbury, N. J., was brutally murdered in his bed. The Philadelphia Ledger gives the following account of the tragic affair:

Mr. Raymond and wife sat in the porch of their dwelling on Tuesday evening until near ten o'clock, when they retired to their room in the second story. Mrs. Raymond being unwell, Mr. Raymond sat alongside of the bed and read until his wife fell asleep. He then went into an adjoining room and retired for the night. About three o'clock on Wednesday morning, Mrs. Raymond was aroused by a noise as if something was dropping on the floor. She felt for her husband, and finding that he was absent, got up and hurried to the other room, thinking her husband was sick. She soon discovered, however, that her husband was dead, and her screams aroused one of the neighbors, who immediately ran to the house. Upon examining the deceased, it was found that he had been struck on the temple, on the chin and throat with an axe, which had been removed from the woodshed on the place. The axe was found in the kitchen down stairs, covered with blood, and a pair of boots belonging to a stranger were found in the yard.

The deceased was about forty-two years of age, and was commercial agent to Balize during Mr. Lincoln's administration, but resigned on account of ill health. He was at one time editor of the Whig, published in Hollidaysburg, Blair county, Pa.

MISCEGENATION.—It would be strange if Chester county should fail to give practical manifestation of the doctrines taught by the Abolitionists. Here where it is taught in its purity, we have a right to expect it. We are informed of a case which occurred recently in the southwestern part of the county.

A renegade Democrat, living in New London, now a loud "loyal" member of the black league, who has been preaching up the doctrines of Stevens, Sumner, Kelly and Broomal, is possessed of a niece, who listened to his teachings, and lately returned home, from near Penningtonville, with a brawny "cullud" citizen, whom she introduced as her lawful and wedded protector, not doubting that her uncle and aunt, who professed such warm friendship for the race of her choice, would receive him with open mouth and arms; but alas, the poor deluded girl was not so favored. She had been deceived in her uncle, who wants miscegenation for other people, not for his family, and the lubly groom and his white bride were unceremoniously kicked out into the cold, cold world.—Jeffersonian.

POOR MR. HARVEY.—Will not the North American say a word for an absent friend? Will not the New York Times do something for Mr. Seward's pet? The Committee of Conference on the Diplomatic Bill have reported that no salary shall hereafter be paid to a minister resident at Lisbon, and that, therefore Mr. James E. Harvey must leave the orange grove of Cintra, and come home. Now, we do not, for a moment, imagine that this insult is levelled at Mr. Harvey, except vicariously. He is of very little moment. It is at the Secretary of State the shaft is aimed. Harvey is his friend, his pet. When Mr. Seward thought it dextrous to let the Charleston people know what he meant to do or not to do as to Fort Sumter, Harvey, who is a South Carolina man, was selected to write to Judge Magrath, and his reward was the mission to Portugal. He and his patron seem to be in a bad way, but it is hardly fair that the blow should fall on the subordinate.—Age.

G. G. Gleason, of Lock Haven, Pa., fell dead in the street in Harrisburg, on Tuesday afternoon, of disease of the heart.
