FOR COMMISSIONER, HENRY STONE, of Clearfield. FOR AUDITOR, JOHN A. L. FLEGAL, of Goshen.

An Explanation.

Two weeks ago, in a rather jocular manner, we intimated that "W. A. W. had had his satchel stolen on the cars. containing a number of papers and other valuables, and that the editor of the Journal was in the same caras we presume there were also a score of other persons. The statement, though true, seems to have offended our neighbor tremendously. We had made the shoe to fit another party, intending to use the Journal editor as proof in the future, if necessary. We We did not then, nor do we now, becensed at what we said, and in his personally offensive to any one; but we may sometimes be mistaken, or our language be misinterpreted, and in our uncouth, backwoods manner, publish that which is offensive to the refined and educated mind. This seems to be our misfortune—not our design—at this time; hence, like Col.
