I wanted on my forehead—graven on my heart, seared on my soul—that I am a sinner, a hypocrite, a liar, a mocker, a deceiver, a whited sepuil chere full of deceit and uncleanness.

I wanted popularity. People think that because a man is a church member he is a Christian ber he i attend church—can rant, bellow and enlightened and civilized North posshout with the best. Then I can go sessed—with all the utterly infamous home, sleep, eat, scold, fret, post books, character of Washington official testi-
