HOW TO SAVE MONEY.

The times are hard; you'd like to know how you may save your Dollars; The way to do it I will show, If you will read what follows.

A man who lived not far from here, Who worked hard at his trade; But had a household to support, That squandered all he made.

I met him once, says he, "my friend, I look blue and red and rough; I've tried to get myself a suit, But can't save up enough."

Says I, my friend, how much have you? "I'll tell you where to go, To get a suit that's good and cheap— At REIZENSTEIN'S and Co."

He took what little he had saved, And went to Reizenstein & Brothers, And there he got a handsome suit, For half he paid to others.

Now he is home, he looks so well; And their effort is such, That when they take their daily meals, They don't eat half so much.

And now he ends on Saturday night With all his wants supplied; That he has money left to spend, And some to lay aside.

His good success, with cheerful smile, He gladly tells to all; If you'd save money, go and buy, Your clothes at Reizenstein Clothing Hall.

Where the cheapest, best, and best clothing and good furnishing goods can be had to suit every taste and in every style.
