

MASS MEETINGS!

White Freeman, to your Posts!

JOHNSON, CLYMER & THE UNION!

Democrats and Conservatives

AGAINST

DISUNION RADICALS AND NEGROES!

The friends of the "Government" and the Union propose to hold a Mass Meeting at Clearfield, on FRIDAY, (Court week), the 25th of September. The following places have also been agreed upon for discussing the issues of the day...

N. L. ATWOOD, Esq.—This gentleman will address the people on the issues of the day, at Kylertown, Williams Grove, Lumber City, Pennville, Luthersburg, Boggs township, Democratic Club of Clearfield borough, Curwensville, Millport, Glen Hope, New Washington and Burnside, at the time indicated in the programme published elsewhere in this issue...

RELICS OF THE GREELY REFORMATION.—One of the most daring attempts at Bank robbery ever brought to our knowledge, was attempted in this place on Saturday last. It appears, from the confession of one of the parties, that a conspiracy was entered into to rob either one or all three of the Banks, and that, too, in broad day light...

COURT.—Parties and witnesses in civil cases on the list for September term will not be required to attend, as the civil list has been continued, in view of the large amount of criminal business to be disposed of.

Those raftmen who may have an interest in Spruce Island, are directed to a notice on the subject, in our advertising columns. "Better late than never."

Reizenstein has just returned from the city, with the largest stock of men's and boys' clothing and furnishing goods ever brought to the county at one time. He is disposed to exchange them for money at city prices.

Moscow has just received, and has now on hand, 20 bbls. Molasses, 5 bbls Sugar, 2,000 lbs. Tobacco, 500 pieces of Flannel, 100 pieces of Cassimere and Satinet, 5 bales of Muslin, and other dry goods and groceries to match—all at sensation prices.

Norrie.—There appeared in the Journal of last week, "A Dastardly Outrage"—"A Colored Camp Meeting attacked with Fire Arms," "by a gang of rebels and rebel sympathizers, resulting in the death of a man while at prayer." In New Orleans it was a "political convention," in Baltimore it was a "religious meeting!"

We have simply to say that there is less truth in this statement than we ever saw in an article of the same length, without even an editorial endorsement. The testimony elicited from the sworn witnesses, ten or fifteen "loyal persons"—negroes—proves that the negroes were all armed with pistols and clubs, and are nearly wholly liable for the disturbance. Nice instruments to run a camp meeting.

The Democracy.

We had the pleasure of a trip through Girard, Covington and Karthaus, on Friday and Saturday of last week. We found the Democrats alive and active in these districts, determined to do better than they ever done before.

The cause of Democracy and the Union is safe down the river. We find the Opposition very much demoralized, especially the "Bread-and-Butter" portion, who see the "Government" getting on the old track again, while their patriotism—what little they have—is divided between the negroes and their own race.

They are troubled day and night with "negro on the brain," and are strongly attached to the disunion programme of Thad. Stevens. We have strong hopes that a number of our "wayward brethren" down there, like those of the South, will soon ground their weapons of rebellion, and join the Democracy, as a kind of refuge, and in the future act and vote with the old "Union-savers."

We had excellent meetings at Karthaus, Mulsonburg and Congress Hill, notwithstanding the rain, on Friday and Saturday, the Congress-Hillers rather outdoing the rest—nearly one-half of the meeting being composed of ladies, who are always in the right place when found at a Democratic meeting. These meetings were ably addressed by T. J. McCullough, Israel Test and Frank Fielding, Esqrs., whose remarks caused the most confirmed radicals present to stagger, and rendered Thad. Stevens and negro suffrage very unpopular among those who still think more of a white man than a negro.

We had the pleasure of meeting N. L. Atwood, Esq., of Lock Haven, at Karthaus, where he gave the Disunionists a first-rate thrashing. A good meeting was also held at Goshen, on Saturday evening, which was addressed by D. W. Moore and Wm. M. McCullough, Esqrs. Goshen promises to "do better."

The Disunion Conference of this district met at Ridgway last week, and re-nominated our negro-loving Congressman, Glenn W. Scofield. We have not seen the proceedings of this white negro cabal, but presume they resolved to "wind up this FARCE of a Government, by the fourth of March next," as they threatened to do six years ago. But we hope also that, like in the past, their disunion, treasonable projects will come to naught.

RELICS OF THE GREELY REFORMATION.—One of the most daring attempts at Bank robbery ever brought to our knowledge, was attempted in this place on Saturday last. It appears, from the confession of one of the parties, that a conspiracy was entered into to rob either one or all three of the Banks, and that, too, in broad day light. Three young men (whose names we withhold through respect for their friends,) came to town in the morning, and after visiting all the Banks, asking some plausible question in relation to checks, money, &c., finally succeeded, in the afternoon, in grabbing up, at the First National, between three and four hundred dollars. One of them gobbled up three $50 and one $100 bill, and the other about ninety dollars, in $5s and $10s. The latter was caught in the act, and the others were captured yesterday. They are all now in jail.

The barn of Stacy W. Thompson, in Boggs township, was fired by an incendiary on Friday night consuming everything, together with a valuable horse and carriage. During the fire an attempt was made to rob the store, by removing a pane of glass in the back door and removing the bolt inside; but fortunately the door between the store-room and the warehouse was locked, and the robbers failed in their attempt.

The Greely reformers have indeed wrought a great work among us. A daily catalogue of crimes is the legacy they have bequeathed our country.

A Little Head. CURWENSVILLE, Sept. 11, 1866. Ma. Editor.—Dear Sir: I see by last week's Republican, a notice of what seemed to be thought a good yield of potatoes. I wish to call your attention to something that far surpasses it. Mr. Jefferson Gates, of this place, last spring, secured one pound of early Gooding potatoes, which he divided equally with his brother; they were planted, and on taking them up a few days ago, Jefferson Gates had thirty pounds, and his brother had twenty-three pounds—making fifty-three pounds as the product of one pound planted.

George M. Weston Esq., formerly editor of the Washington Republic, has been nominated for Congress from the fourth district of Maine by the conservatives.

WILMINGTON.—The result of the election in this city on Tuesday last shows a Democratic gain of 266 votes on the Mayor's election last year.
