HOW TO SAVE MONEY

The times are hard; you'd like to know How you may save your Dollars; The way to do it I will show, If you will read what follows.

A man who lived not far from kere, Who worked hard at his trade; But had a household to support, That squandered all he made I met him once, says he, "my friend, I look threadbare and rough;

I've tried to get myself a suit, But can't save up enough." Says I, my friend, how much have you?
I'll tell you where to go,
To get a suit that's sound and cheap—
At REIZENSTEIN'S and Co.

He took what little he had saved, And went to Reizenstein & Brothers
And there he got a handsome suit,
For half he paid to others.

Now he is home, he looks so well;
And their effect is such,
That when they take their daily meals,
They don't eat half so much.

And now he finds on Saturday night With all their wants supplied; That he has money left to spend,

And some to lay aside. His good success, with cheerful smile, He gladly tells to all;

If you'd cave Money, go and buy, Your clothes at Reizenstein Clothing Hall. Where the cheapest, finest, and best Clothin g and good furnishing goods can be had to suitevery taste and in every style. April 11, 1866-tf.
