We should like to know why it takes six days for the U. S. Mail to carry a bundle of Democratic handbills from this place to West Decatur, 12 miles. Just two miles a day. Somebody ought to be removed. Such tricks must not be played off too often. The route is too short to do this thing often, without somebody being caught.

Messrs Showers & Graham are just now unpacking the finest lot of fall and winter goods ever brought to town. They are determined to sacrifice both time and money in order to supply the public with the necessary comforts of this life. This young and enterprising firm deserves a liberal share of public patronage.

CLEANED OUT.—The late rain storm caused a fine rise in the lumbering streams in our county. There probably never occurred a finer rise of water on the heads of those streams, and right well have our lumbermen embraced the opportunity of getting their lumber to market. We doubt if there was ever such a general run of lumber from the heads of the streams. What the rewards are that await the laborer in the eastern market, we have not learned.

DEATH OF DR. THOMPSON.—The citizens of Curwensville, and indeed the whole community, were suddenly thrown into a state of gloom on last Wednesday by the announcement of the fatal accident that befell Dr. H. P. Thompson, on that day. The circumstances, as near as can be ascertained—for there was no human eye to witness the sad calamity—are as follows: The Doctor had started in his sulky to visit a patient above Bloomington. The horse, with parts of the harness attached, was met at Mr. J. B. Garrison's, by Mr. George Brown, who, suspecting something wrong, mounted the horse and rode back towards Curwensville, and found the Doctor about a mile and a half from town, with his feet fast in the shafts, and his head and shoulders on the ground—quite dead. It was less than an hour from the time he started until the fatal tidings reached town.

It would just inform the citizens of Clearfield and vicinity, that I have opened a shop in said borough, near Mr. C. Kratzer's store, for the purpose of manufacturing and repairing GUNS, PISTOLS, WATCHES AND CLOCKS. I guarantee all my work, and expect to secure my patronage by promptness and attention to business, and executing my work in the best style of the art. Give me a call and test my capacity. JAMES D. WIDEMAN, June 13, 1866—1f

Loyal Labels. The leaders of the Thad. Stevens party seem to have no bounds to their infamy. In their mad scheme to disfranchise the white man and to enfranchise the negro, they have compelled the publication of lists of the names of persons purporting to be deserters and non-reporting drafted men, and are having them filed among the Court records of the Commonwealth. In this manner some of the best and bravest soldiers find their names enrolled as deserters—for their children and future generations to gaze at—while they carry their honorable discharges and exemption papers in their pockets. This is one of the most infamous systems of entailing and perpetrating a libel upon both the dead and the living, that the infernal regions could concoct. Thus thousands of those who periled their lives in "the war for the Union," to save and build up a heritage for their offsprings, find themselves libeled and slandered, by those who have heretofore pretended to be their friends; and that, too, in such a manner that the infamy can never be removed, because it is made a Court record.

Soldiers, what do you think of your pretended friends? Those men who are publishing and circulating your names as non-reporting drafted men and deserters? Even some of those who died in the service are posted as deserters.

The Late Dr. Thompson. Mr. Editor.—Permit an afflicted friend to pay a brief tribute to the memory of one of our most worthy and upright citizens, whose melancholy death cast such widespread gloom over this community during the last week. Dr. HARMAN PHILIPPS THOMPSON was about 41 years of age—the son of James Thompson, who spent many years of his life in your place, and died when the subject of this notice was quite a youth. At the age of 14 he entered the printing office, the Banner, then owned by D. W. Moore, where he continued, as apprentice, journeyman and partner, until 1847, when he commenced the study of medicine under his relative, the late Dr. Lorraine. His studies were pursued with remarkable diligence and success, both at home and at college, where he graduated with the highest honors. Soon afterwards he located in this place, where he soon found abundant practice. As a physician, no one was more devoted or sincere; as a husband and father he was just what a true Christian should be; as a friend, a neighbor, and a citizen, he was kind, generous and indulgent, all of which was adorned with a manly frankness such as can be said of few men. Truly have we lost one of our best citizens. Yours, &c., R. Curwensville, Sept. 22.

The Normal School. PIKE TP., Sept. 24, 1866. The school under our worthy Superintendent, Geo. W. Snyder, at Curwensville, closed on the 8th inst. Being the first ever held in the county, the experiment was truly a great success. Fifty odd teachers were in regular attendance, during the whole 12 weeks. Never before were there so many students congregated together in this county, and their improvement so entirely satisfactory, as it was on this occasion. They offered and passed a resolution at the close, "tendering their sincere thanks to the Superintendent, for his arduous labors, in their behalf, and that he might succeed in all future undertakings with as much success as he did in the present one." He certainly has taken a step in the right direction. Therefore let every friend of education stand by and sustain him; for so long as we have uneducated teachers, so long we must have poorly conducted schools. We trust, by next summer, other teachers will also see the importance of improving themselves.
