WEDNESDAY MORNING: Oct. 3, 1866.

Democratic State Ticket.

FOR GOVERNOR
HIESTER CLYMER,
OF Berks county.

Democratic District Ticket.

FOR CONGRESS,
WILLIAM L. SCOTT, of Erie.
FOR ASSEMBLY,
Col. JOHN D. HUNT, of Forest.

Democratic County Ticket.

FOR ASSOCIATE JUDGES,
JACOB WILHELM, of Graham.
SAMUEL CLYDE, of Lawrence.
FOR COMMISSIONER,
HENRY STONE, of Clearfield.
FOR AUDITOR,
JOHN A. L. FLEGAL, of Goshen.

White men, go to the polls on Tuesday next and with the ballot annihilate the white and black enemies of your country.

Democrats, go to the polls on Tuesday next, and cast your ballots for Clymer, Scott, Hunt, Wilhelm, Clyde, Stone and Flegal, and thereby disconcert and scatter your enemies.

Keep it before the People, that the Abolition party are in favor of taxing you to feed negroes in idleness, and to educate their children, while you have to work for your own support, and pay tax to educate your own children.

THE CRUCIBLE.—Every man that on Tuesday next, casts his ballot for John W. Geary, and Glenni W. Scofield, votes as emphatically for negro suffrage, and the social equality of the white and black races, as though it were printed on the ticket.

Keep it before the People, that you have a revenue stamp on your matches, your meat, your deeds, your wills, your agreements, and on every thing else, in order to raise money to keep hundreds of schools open all year to educate the lazy negro.

It was clearly demonstrated at the Disunion gathering in the Court House, last week, that a defeated candidate for Congress would make a better clown than anything else. This was demonstrated by the debut of Southern and Swoope, two ravenous creatures completely tamed by their master, Scofield.

The intelligent mixed audience in the Court House, on Wednesday night of court week, were treated to a good "mess" of correct and refined literature. The orthography and pronunciation of our negro bureau Congressman was magnificent, while the President's taste was extraordinary. We had South Carolina, Missouri, and I wasn't in favor of no such work, etc. Great dignity.

LOYAL CHARITY.—The followers of the "late lamented," begged fifty thousand dollars from the people to build a monument to his jests, and collected over one hundred thousand for the relief of the sufferers by the Portland, (Me.) fire, but now it is charged that most of these charity funds were spent in carrying the election in Maine.

NOW AND THEN.—Jack Hamilton of Texas, who fraternizes with Fred. Douglass and belongs to the Torch-and-Turpentine party, was the chairman of a meeting held in Galveston Texas, in 1856, for the purpose of commending Brooks' assault upon Sumner. In that meeting the following resolution was adopted:

Resolved, That in testimony of our appreciation of the patriotic conduct of Colonel Brooks, we will present to him a cane, made of the toughest wood which grows on the soil of Texas, and which, therefore, with manifest propriety, should be applied with the full force of a stout Southern arm upon the backs of our hypocritical and slanderous enemies.

We presume this sentiment is what makes Hamilton so "loyal" now, and with the aid of Rev. Brownlow, will organize the Torch-and-Turpentine party.

"Andrew Jackson" is in jail at Richmond for picking "Horace Greeley's" pocket.

The Democratic Mass Meeting.

One of the finest Democratic gatherings we ever witnessed assembled in this borough on the evening of the 25th ultimo. What it lacked in numbers in comparison with former gatherings of the kind, it made up in enthusiasm; and the visible determination depicted in the countenances of those present showed that the Democratic blood was up to fever heat, and that our unscrupulous enemies must be defeated at the polls. Notwithstanding the unsettled state of the weather for weeks previous, and the consequent delay in every agricultural pursuit, it, however, far exceeded in numbers the motly crew that assembled in the Court House the following night, under the frowns of Providence, for the purpose of still further misleading their deluded followers, in order to complete, if possible, the destruction of the political fabric erected by the sires of '76.

The meeting was called to order by the Chairman of the County Committee, who proposed the name of THOS. J. McCULLOUGH, Esq., for President, which was carried amidst universal applause. The following list of Vice Presidents and Secretaries were then elected, viz:

VICE PRESIDENTS—Beccaria, Sam'l H. Hindman; Bell, Robert Mehaffey; Bloom, D. W. Chilson; Boggs, Chas. Sloan; Bradford, M. O. Wilson; Brady, M. H. Luther; Burnside, Matthew Irvin; Chest, John Hockenberry; Covington, Solomon Maurer; Clearfield, Thomas Robbins; Curwensville, Hon. John D. Thompson; Decatur, Adam Kephart; Fox, Jos. B. Heath; Ferguson, James Straw; Girard, A. S. Dickinson; Goshen, Wm. L. Shaw; Graham, A. M. Gill; Gulich, Wm. T. McCorkle; Huston, Lewis Bordell; Jordan, Sylvester Weimer; Karthaus, William Perry; Knox, John Withcrown; Lawrence, William L. Rishel; Lumber City, Dr. D. A. Fetzer; Morris, John Hoover; New Washington, Crawford Gallagher; Osceola, Richard Hughes; Penn, T. A. Hoover; Pike, Joseph Gonn; Union, W. F. Johnson; Woodward, James Henderson.

SECRETARIES—Serg't David Buck, Lieut. Andrew Pentz, Jr., Serg't John J. Jackson, Capt. M. Ozden, Serg't T. H. Wilson, H. H. Evans. The meeting being fully organized, Mr. McCullough, in an appropriate manner, thanked the acres of human faces for the honor conferred; after which he introduced the Hon. Cyrus L. PRASING, of Johnstown, who, for nearly two hours, kept the mass of human beings spell-bound, while, in a statesmanlike manner, he depicted to them the perils of the hour, fully demonstrating to every mind the determination of the Radicals, under the lead of Thad. Stevens, to destroy the Government, under the garb of enlarging individual right and improving the Constitution and laws of the country.

At the conclusion of the remarks of Mr. Pershing, the President introduced the Hon. Wm. L. SCOTT, our nominee for Congress, who, though not a public speaker, proceeded, in his business way, to satisfy those present that he was the "right man in the right place," and that, with the co-operation and support of the Democrats and Conservatives of this county, he would compel the negro-bureau candidate—Mr. Scofield—to remain at home after the 4th of March next, and thereby save to the Treasury the $4,000 extra pay in the future.

The President then introduced S. S. MARSHALL, Esq., of Erie, who assured the public that all was well in Erie and Warren; that the Disunion leaders in that section were demoralized and quarreling about the quickest way to destroy the Union, and that, while they were engaged in this wrangle, hundreds of their former followers were leaving their ranks, and were Clymer-ing on Mr. Scott and the rest of the Democratic ticket.

At the conclusion of Mr. Marshall's remarks, the committee on resolutions, through their chairman, D. W. MOORE, Esq., reported the following resolutions, which were all unanimously adopted: WHEREAS, A crisis of most fearful consequence is again upon us. The issue is fairly made up, and is now presented to the consideration of the American people, whether we are to have a restored Union, peace, prosperity and harmony among the States and people; or, war, bloodshed and anarchy; whether, in short, this is to be a "Government of white men, for the benefit of white men and their posterity." Therefore

Resolved, That we heartily endorse the restoration policy of President Johnson, and the plan of adjustment agreed upon at the 14th of August Philadelphia Convention, believing there are no other means by which the blessings sought for can be secured, or the evils feared can be averted.

Resolved, That in HIESTER CLYMER, the Democratic candidate for Governor, we have a man of the highest and purest private and political character—in whose veins flows the richest blood of the patriots of '76—and whose election will secure to Pennsylvania an era of prosperity she has never yet known, and send joy and gladness to the hearts of all true patriots throughout the Union.

Resolved, That in WILLIAM L. SCOTT, of Erie, the Democratic and Conservative candidate for Congress, we have a gentleman of irreproachable character, and of unbounded popularity—who will look to the interests of the white men of his district, and not devote his time and influence in favor of negro equality.

Resolved, That we have implicit confidence in the Democracy, as well as in the qualifications of Col. JOHN D. HUNT, of Forest county, the Democratic candidate for the Legislature, as also in our several candidates for County offices, and recommend them to the support of every conservative voter in the county.

Resolved, That the supporters of the Radical majority of Congress perpetrate a deliberate fraud as often as they deny that Negro Equality is a direct issue in the present contest, and we therefore declare that every man who votes for either Geary or Scofield votes directly in favor of Negro suffrage.

Resolved, That the supporters of the Radical majority of Congress perpetrate a deliberate fraud as often as they deny that Negro Equality is a direct issue in the present contest, and we therefore declare that every man who votes for either Geary or Scofield votes directly in favor of Negro suffrage.

Mr. TEST was then introduced, who in his fatherly manner, dealt severe blows upon the heads and hearts of the Union-Sliders present. At the conclusion of his remarks loud calls were made for Dr. BOYER, who soon appeared, and gave an able review of the crimes and designs of the negro-equality leaders, and conclusively established the fact that the whole design of these bold, bad men, was to establish negro-suffrage, or, failing in this particular manner to degrade and demoralize the citizen, they will never cease in their mad career, until they disrupt and finally destroy the Union and harmony of these States.

During the intervals a fine band of martial music electrified the meeting with their patriotic strains; and at a very late hour the crowd slowly moved away, a large number of ladies maintaining the ground to a very late hour, to whom the officers ask us to return their special thanks for their presence.

Unadulterated Equality.

A large portion of the opposition party deny that they are in favor of affiliation with the negroes. But John Hickman, late member of Congress from Chester county, in a speech at a Republican mass meeting at West Chester, last week, said:

"I am in favor of giving equal and impartial suffrage to the negro, because he is entitled to it, and because I believe that God Almighty has decreed that justice must be done to all men. Many of the colored people here before me have a better right to vote than I have; for I have but given of my money to sustain the government, whilst they have periled their lives to protect it.

If the Irishman is entitled to vote after five years' residence in the country, why should not the negro, who has lived here all his life? It is said he is not intelligent enough. I say that if the Irishman is intelligent enough, so is my friend Mr. Garnett. If I am intelligent enough to vote, then so is Mr. Garnett, for he is my equal. It has been customary to say that the negro who has intelligence derives it from the white blood in his veins. I deny it. Stand up, brother Garnett—[Brother G. stood up amid great applause.] Show me where there is any trace of white blood in him, (patting brother G. on the shoulder.) There is none; he is a genuine negro. It has taken four years of bloody war to destroy the body of slavery, and it will take four years more of war to destroy the spirit of slavery. When that war comes, you will be called upon to fight, and mark me! if then you do not obtain your right to vote, I will never again exercise mine.

But I did not come here to make a speech; I came here to show you that I am in favor of equality before the law, and I now boldly declare that I am in favor of political and social equality with the negro." The meeting was alternately addressed by negro and white speakers. "Brother Garnett," is a negro preacher, and preceded Hickman, and pitched into the white trash in a rough manner. Hickman's speech was loudly applauded, and he supports Geary for Governor because their political and social sentiments are identical—they prefer the black race to their own.

There are in the State of Maine 431 towns, of which 362 have been heard from, and these voted as follows: Pittsburg (Dem.) 38,148 Chamberlain (Rep.) 64,943 Republican majority 26,837 The remaining 69 towns, it is believed, will reduce this majority to 23,000 at least. Should this be the case, the Democratic vote of 1866 will show an increase of twenty-five per cent. over that of last year, while the corresponding Republican increase will be but five per cent.

To the People of Pennsylvania.

DEMOCRATIC STATE COMMITTEE ROOMS, 122 WALNUT ST., PHILADELPHIA.

The Democratic party in its platform of principles, adopted at Harrisburg, on the 5th day of March, 1866, resolved

1. That the States whereof the people were lately in rebellion are integral parts of the Union, and are entitled to representation in Congress, by men duly elected, who bear true faith to the Constitution and laws, and in order to vindicate the maxim that taxation without representation is tyranny, such representatives should be forthwith admitted.

2. That the faith of the republic is pledged to the payment of the national debt, and Congress should pass all laws necessary for that purpose.

3. That the white race alone is entitled to the control of the government of the republic, and we are unwilling to grant to negroes the right to vote.

Upon this platform we placed our candidate for Governor, and with these principles we confidently look for success in this contest. Our opponents in their Convention, held at Harrisburg on the 7th day of March, 1866, also, adopted a platform, and nominated a candidate. The principles they enunciated appear to be lost sight of, and the proposed constitutional amendment takes their place as the rule of Radical orthodoxy, and to it their candidate gives his unhesitating support.

Negro equality and negro suffrage are the essential elements in that amendment. By it the negro is made the equal of the white man in all his "privileges and immunities." The right of Pennsylvania to make laws to regulate the migration of negroes into the State is denied and she is deprived of her just share of representation in Congress unless her Constitution be amended and the negro allowed to vote.

The Radical candidates for Governor and for United States Senator; their leaders of public sentiment; their speakers and their newspapers are open advocates of this amendment, and their practice accords with their profession, for they mingle with the negro in social intercourse, in political conventions, and in public processions.

We hold that the negro is not the equal of the white man, and whilst we accord to him freedom and protection of person, with the right to enjoyment of the fruits of his labor and aid in intellectual advancement, we affirm that our own race is entitled to control the entire machinery of the government.

Sustain this amendment, and you give the negro the right to aid in governing you; defeat it, and you maintain your own right of sovereignty.

EVERY MAN WHO VOTES FOR GEARY OR FOR A RADICAL CANDIDATE FOR CONGRESS, VOTES AS DISTINCTLY FOR NEGRO SUFFRAGE AND NEGRO EQUALITY AS IF THEY WERE PRINTED ON HIS BALLOT. DEMOCRATS OF PENNSYLVANIA!

Power is no longer against you, but ranges itself upon your side. Opportunities for fraud do not exist. Aid comes to you from the ranks of the enemy. No Democrat who voted for McClellan votes against you now; your brethren are aroused from the Lakes to the Delaware. A change of five per cent. upon the vote of 1864 will sweep your opponents out of existence. You can count it in every election district in the Commonwealth; and if you will but execute the details of your organization success is certain.

Faith in your principles, courage for the contest, and a determination to poll every Conservative vote, are the only requisites to an assured victory. By order of the Democratic State Committee.

Wm. A. WALLACE, Chairman.

The Congressional Pyramid.

$4,000 00 extra pay to Congressmen for legislating for the negro—extending their privileges and abridging those of white men. $300 00 Bounty for negro soldiers, the boys in black. $100 00 bounty for 3 year white soldiers, the boys in blue. And 2 year white men $50.

Money appropriated to lazy negroes $20,000,000 For chaplains, agents and sneaks, and to carry elections 6,000,000 Interest on the disunion war debt, one hundred and eighty millions dollars, and a disrupted Union. All this is bequeathed us by the followers of John Brown.

One brave man is generally a modest one, while a braggart is usually unreliable in the hour of danger. Said Geary, at Baumgardner's woods, near York: "I am a soldier—I have never met defeat." Said Bob Acres: "If he should ask you what kind of a man your friend Acres is, do tell him I am a devil of a fellow—tell him I generally kill a man a week!"

Geary in Mexico—What Was Said of Him at the Time.

A gentleman has placed in our hands, two letters written by a member of Company H, 2nd Pennsylvania Volunteers, to a friend in this county; the first dated San Angel, nine miles from the City of Mexico, March 27th, 1848; and the second at the same place on the 30th of the same month. From them we make the following extracts, which show very clearly what was then thought of Geary by the men over whom he was playing the petty tyrant. The writer was a gallant soldier, and his letters only express the common sentiment of Company H concerning Gen. Geary. We make the following extract from his first letter:

"I notice a letter in the Genius signed by *, who pretends to speak for Co. H, and, in fact, the whole Regiment, applauding Col. Geary for gallantry at Chipteque. This is false, as is known by two-thirds of the Regiment. He lay in a ditch at the foot of the hill and never came up until we had taken the castle."

From the second letter we make this extract:

"In a conversation a short time since, Geary acknowledged that he had done injustice to Sergeants Giler and Downer, in failing to mention them in his report, as he had done other non-commissioned officers. Giler and Downer (Absalom Giler and James E. Downer,) were the first to urge the Company forward under a galling fire at Chipteque, as is known by the whole Company, while Geary lay in a ditch, and never came up until the battle was over."

Judging by these letters, which contain much more about Geary, and his arbitrary treatment of the company than we have quoted, he would not have received very many votes in company H for Governor or anything else.—Genius of Liberty.

Died.

In Bloom township, on the 7th of September, 1866, LUCRETIA VIRGINIA, daughter of GAIKER P. and ELIZABETH BLOOM; aged 3 years, 8 months and 28 days.

That angel babe, so sweet, so fair— Where is it now? "Echo answers, "Where?" Whist! "mid parental tears and sighs, Hope glances upward to the skies."

There, in that land that knows no blight, Her spirit harks in heavenly light, Though fondly loved, and loving too; Yet Jesus loved her still more true. He gave her first, our hearts 'enchain, Then gently drew her back again; And thus, by golden links of love, Now binds us to our home above. Methinks her spirit's hovering near, Our stricken hearts to soothe and cheer, And soothe us to those seats above, Where all is joy and peace and love.

Oh, "CRETA, dear, thy mission fill Thus ministering; be with us still; Till freed from earth, we soar away, To dwell with thee to endless day."
