A"Loyal Georgian!"

As one of the representatives of the "Loyalists" of Georgia we find the name of M. S. Norse. A distinguished officer of the Federal army yesterday gave us the anteredents of this gentleman on the here don't amount to a little bit of a "march to the tomb of Lincoln." In 1861, he was melody after all. We were but a selitor of the Bridgenort (Conn.) Former, a paper "march to the tosab of Lincoln." In 1861, he was editor of the Bridgeport (Conn.) Former, a paper rankly "disloyal" and very olinexious to these who in that year regarded the President as "like government." This man assalled President Lincoln so hitterly, that a meb destroyed the office. He went South, and tendered his services to Jeff. Davis, who said that he wanted nothing to do with a "renegade Northerner." Morse finally brought up in Georgia, and became editor of a rabid secession sheet. When our government determined upon arming the negroes, he declared that the South should raise the black flag, and shoot down every negroffound in the Union bine!
