

The Republican.

GEORGE B. GOODLANDER, Editor.

WEDNESDAY MORNING: Oct. 17, 1866.

The Late Election.

The election is past, and we are not disposed to growl much over the result. Elsewhere will be found a table giving full and official returns of the county. The average majority on State officers is about 1,140—sixty less than we had anticipated. We were mistaken in the vote in Beccaria, Bloom, Brady and Goshen, the opposition polling a larger vote than we expected. But when we look around and see that our neighbor counties all yielded to the fell spirit of fanaticism, we still feel proud to know that the gallant Democracy of this county maintained themselves against a two-fold opposition. We had to encounter all the financial appropriations of the Negro Bureau, with its millions of dollars of a corruption fund, while the Assessment Bureau of this Congressional district was specially concentrated upon us. Its agents had promised to reduce our majority in this county, below one thousand, and at one time they were determined to reduce it to eight hundred, because they so informed their State Committee. On the other hand, we loaned the energy of three of our most active and influential Democrats to other sections of the State, while the enemy's agents were actively at work at our own doors. Thus the Democracy of this county had to meet the energy, counsel, experience and power of the Bureaucrats, with all their patronage and personal prestige, while we gave our best men to our neighbors. Notwithstanding all these disparaging circumstances, the principles of Democracy are more firmly fixed in the minds of the people of this county, than ever before. To illustrate a little, we need only refer to the vote cast in 1860, when we were at peace with all the world "and the rest of mankind." The vote for Governor stood: Foster, Dem., 2,040; Curtin, Rep., 1,755—Democratic majority 285. Now the vote stands: Clymer, 2,786; Geary, 1,650—Democratic majority 1,136.

It will be observed from this that the Democrats have gained 746, while our enemies have lost one hundred and five. It is true, that comparing the vote with that cast in 1860, it would seem as though the Democrats had lost, while our enemies had gained. The vote including the Soldiers stood McClellan 2,801, Lincoln 1,508—showing a majority for the former of 1,293. At that time we had an artificial vote—persons not permanently settled in the county—of nearly 100, principally in Bloom, Huston and Knox. This year we have nothing of the kind, but our opponents will find that they have the same thing this year in Beccaria, Brady, Knox and Morris.

THANKSGIVING.—
BY THE PRESIDENT OF THE UNITED STATES, A PROCLAMATION.

Almighty God, our Heavenly Father, has been pleased to vouchsafe to us as a people, another year of national life, which is an indispensable condition of peace, security and progress. That year, moreover, has been crowned with many peculiar blessings. The civil war that was so recently among us has not been anywhere re-opened. Foreign intervention has ceased to create alarm or apprehension; intrusive pestilence has been benignly mitigated; domestic tranquility has improved; sentiments of conciliation have largely prevailed, and the affections of loyalty and patriotism have been widely renewed; our fields have yielded quite abundantly; our mining industry has been richly rewarded, and we have been allowed to extend our railroad system far into the interior recesses of the country, while commerce has resumed its customary activity in foreign seas. These great national blessings demand a national acknowledgement.

Now, therefore, I, Andrew Johnson, President of the United States, do hereby recommend that THURSDAY, THE 29TH DAY OF NOVEMBER next, be set apart and be observed every where in the several States and Territories of the United States, by the people thereof, as a day of thanksgiving and praise to Almighty God, with due remembrance that in His temple doth every man speak of His honor. I recommend also, that on the same solemn occasion we do humbly and devoutly implore Him to grant to our national councils and to our whole people that Divine wisdom which alone can lead any nation into the ways of all good. In offering these National Thanksgivings, praise and supplications, we have the Divine assurance that the Lord remains a king forever. "Them that are meek shall He guide in judgment, such as are gentle shall He lead his way." The Lord shall give strength to His people, and the Lord shall give to His people the blessings of peace.

Geary's majority will be about 14,500.

PHILADELPHIA.—The Metropolis of our State has partially recovered her senses. At the late election the 11,000 majority for Lincoln was reduced to 5,000. Gen. Josh. Owen, of Pittsburgh, Convention notometry, the Disunion nominee for Recorder of Deeds, was elected by only 1,390 majority; while on the other hand, the Democrats gained one Senator and two members of Assembly. The Senator elect is Gen. Wm. McCauley, President of the late Harrisburg Soldiers' Convention, one of the gentlemen whom the Governor elect, in his classic speech at York, denounced as "shyster," "coward," &c.

Thanksgiving.

THE moral idea party are on the rampage. Beast Butler threatens the President with impeachment; Rev. Brownlow favors the torch-and-turpentine; Forney, civil war; Stephens, the penitentiary of hell, and Rev. Hunnicut, death and hell. These are samples of the threats in which loyalists now engage; and yet, if Democrats object to their infamy, "they are planning another rebellion," etc.

NOT.—Between Curwensville and Holden's, on the 15th inst., a GLEW SHAWL. A liberal reward will be paid by leaving it at this office.
