I met him once, says he, "my friend, I look throudbare and rough ; I've tried to get myself a suit, But can't save up enough."

Says I, my friend, how much have you? I'll tell you where to go, To get a suit that's sound and cheap— At REIZENSTEING'S and Co.

He took what little he had saved, And went to Reizenstein & Brothers', And there he got a handsome suit, For half he paid to others.

Now he is home, he looks so well; And their effect is such, That when they take their daily meals, They don't est balf so much.

And now he finds on Saturday night With all their wants supplied; That he has money left to spend, And some to fay aside.

His good success, with cheerful suile, He gladly tells to all; If you'd save Money, go and buy, Your clotheast Reizenstein Cto-hing Hall.
