GEORGE B. GOODLANDER, Editor.

WEDNESDAY MORNING:::::Nov. 7, 1866.

Read the "Amendment" question in another column, and learn what the Radical leaders say since the election is over, in reference to negroes voting and disunion generally.

The Radicals of the Sixth Ward of Boston have nominated a negro to represent them in the State Legislature. This is the party that pretends negro equality and suffrage is not an ISSUE before the people.

More Stamps.—The Treasury De partment has decided that from and after the first of October last, a stamp must be affixed to every can, jar or bottle of sealed fruits, fish, sauce, jellies, mustard, syrups, &c., packed and offered for sale. What old fogies Washington and his revolutionary rebels must have been in their day, to raise a rebellion about a few stamps on paper.

LOYALTY.-The citizens of Baltimore are probing the late election held in that city. In the 20th ward, where Mr. Harvey, according to the returns made out by the loyal board, only received twenty-one votes, fortyseven responsible men have came forward and sworn that they had voted for Mr. Harvey. There is no doubt but the same business was carried out

The BALTIMORE EMBROGLIO.-The troubles in this city are fast passing away. The announcement that the Governor had removed the Police Commissioners created great excitement among the Loyal Plugs and their allies for a short time. The old Commissioners at last accounts refused to give up the books and records of their office, and out of this the city may realize a riot ; because the Plugs will die hard. The Dead Duck quacks terribly, but, should serious trouble arise out of this question, he will be the first man to show the white feather.

AT THEIR GOOD WORK .- The Yankee moralists, who are running the Negro Bureau in the Southern States. are having a jolly time in skinning the darkey and robbing the hen-roosts of the planters. They can well sing in their nasal twang:

"In Dixic's land I'll take my stand," And live and die in Dixie's land," while they are shipping cargoes of
