

THE VOICE OF THE PEOPLE IS GREAT.

At the Meeting of the Green... We have full faith in our Ireland...

CLEARFIELD

REPUBLICAN

GEO. B. GOODLANDER, Proprietor.

PRINCIPLES—NOT MEN.

TERMS—$2 per annum, in Advance.

WHOLE NO. 1935.

CLEARFIELD, PA., WEDNESDAY, NOV. 14, 1866.

NEW SERIES—VOL. 8, NO. 18.

oward men had gone of to kill our good people and the women were at work in the hospitals and all John had to do was to whip a lot of little children and help himself! I know them ere folks are wicked, mean, ungrateful set, out to be killed."

Mrs. Puritan wanted to know if it was true that the people of the South actually cooked biled dinners on Sunday? If they did, she really hoped her cousin in Congress would pass a law that whenever a man in the South cooked a biled dinner on Sunday he should be hung before dinner and his biled dinner sent North!

Mrs. Pinchback hoped the war would continue to go on till there was no more of nothing. For her part it was all stuff about the people suffering during the war. Her Josiah had a contract and made two hundred thousand dollars the first year, and when her brother Reverend Perkozee Rlanter came back from the war where he had periled his precious life, eating pickerses he brought home more than fifty gold watches and the nicest gold clasp Bible, which was now used every Sunday in one of the Buttonville Churches.

Mrs. Squeak said the people of the South were nothing but murderers, for when her brother, Colonel Fibre Hunter was out in field, doing nothin', killin' nobody, doin' nothin', but just seein' how much cotton an army team could drag, so he could tell if it was a good team, some cowardly gorilla shot a hole clean through him, and wouldn't even send his clothes home for her Josiah to wear out! And she hoped if another war ever did come, some of them sinful men of the West would go down and do it to 'em agin, not that she cared as much for brother, but she wanted them ere clothes for her Josiah!

Mrs. Cokeley said she hoped there would be a hull passel of wars, for her cousin, her dear good cousin, Benjamin (the Best) had made lots of money in the late war, and had supplied nearly all her relations with spoons, watches, silverware, &c., and said it was right the war should go on, for her cousin was safer in the war than before a court of Justice even, and said it was a Christian duty to let all Christian wars be continued so long as there was anybody to continue 'em.

Mrs. Sniviller here spoke again— "Well I don't care now how. The South should be fought! What right had they to have cotton picked by niggers without asking our consent? And they were rich—And they had nice things. And we believe a nigger naby is of more account than a white napper in the North. And my husband, Deacon Sniviller, wants more buttons to make buttons of, he'll sell the buttons to South and West, and they will have to pay us Nw England Christians for the privilege of wearing out their own bones.

External and Internal Peace.

Nothing connected with the spirit of our institutions seems harder of comprehension to the public men of Europe, and to many, indeed, of our domestic politicians, than our cardinal doctrine of non-intervention in the affairs of other nations. It is nowhere written in our constitution or laws, and according to the course of the world's history is supposed to be inconsistent with a republican structure of government. The nervous energy which is developed in a free people has so often taken the shape of conquest, and the tendency to propagandism is so natural to mankind, that despite the teachings of Washington and the unbroken practice of the nation since that time, the topic is constantly renewed, and always awakens the liveliest interest.

Mrs. Squeak said the people of the South were nothing but murderers, for when her brother, Colonel Fibre Hunter was out in field, doing nothin', killin' nobody, doin' nothin', but just seein' how much cotton an army team could drag, so he could tell if it was a good team, some cowardly gorilla shot a hole clean through him, and wouldn't even send his clothes home for her Josiah to wear out!

Mrs. Cokeley said she hoped there would be a hull passel of wars, for her cousin, her dear good cousin, Benjamin (the Best) had made lots of money in the late war, and had supplied nearly all her relations with spoons, watches, silverware, &c., and said it was right the war should go on, for her cousin was safer in the war than before a court of Justice even, and said it was a Christian duty to let all Christian wars be continued so long as there was anybody to continue 'em.

Mrs. Sniviller here spoke again— "Well I don't care now how. The South should be fought! What right had they to have cotton picked by niggers without asking our consent? And they were rich—And they had nice things. And we believe a nigger naby is of more account than a white napper in the North. And my husband, Deacon Sniviller, wants more buttons to make buttons of, he'll sell the buttons to South and West, and they will have to pay us Nw England Christians for the privilege of wearing out their own bones.

Mrs. Sniviller here spoke again— "Well I don't care now how. The South should be fought! What right had they to have cotton picked by niggers without asking our consent? And they were rich—And they had nice things. And we believe a nigger naby is of more account than a white napper in the North. And my husband, Deacon Sniviller, wants more buttons to make buttons of, he'll sell the buttons to South and West, and they will have to pay us Nw England Christians for the privilege of wearing out their own bones.

Mrs. Sniviller here spoke again— "Well I don't care now how. The South should be fought! What right had they to have cotton picked by niggers without asking our consent? And they were rich—And they had nice things. And we believe a nigger naby is of more account than a white napper in the North. And my husband, Deacon Sniviller, wants more buttons to make buttons of, he'll sell the buttons to South and West, and they will have to pay us Nw England Christians for the privilege of wearing out their own bones.

Mrs. Sniviller here spoke again— "Well I don't care now how. The South should be fought! What right had they to have cotton picked by niggers without asking our consent? And they were rich—And they had nice things. And we believe a nigger naby is of more account than a white napper in the North. And my husband, Deacon Sniviller, wants more buttons to make buttons of, he'll sell the buttons to South and West, and they will have to pay us Nw England Christians for the privilege of wearing out their own bones.

Mrs. Sniviller here spoke again— "Well I don't care now how. The South should be fought! What right had they to have cotton picked by niggers without asking our consent? And they were rich—And they had nice things. And we believe a nigger naby is of more account than a white napper in the North. And my husband, Deacon Sniviller, wants more buttons to make buttons of, he'll sell the buttons to South and West, and they will have to pay us Nw England Christians for the privilege of wearing out their own bones.

Sunday Schools of a New Style.

The Beechers are natural growths of Puritanism—fair samples of that intolerance of belief, which finally loses itself in impracticalness and unchristian ideas of rank fidelity. They have ceased to profess Christ's religion, and are full of Beecher religion, altogether a different compound, a thing as changeable as the hues of a chameleon, or an Abolitionist's notion of what constitutes loyalty.

Mrs. Sniviller here spoke again— "Well I don't care now how. The South should be fought! What right had they to have cotton picked by niggers without asking our consent? And they were rich—And they had nice things. And we believe a nigger naby is of more account than a white napper in the North. And my husband, Deacon Sniviller, wants more buttons to make buttons of, he'll sell the buttons to South and West, and they will have to pay us Nw England Christians for the privilege of wearing out their own bones.

Mrs. Sniviller here spoke again— "Well I don't care now how. The South should be fought! What right had they to have cotton picked by niggers without asking our consent? And they were rich—And they had nice things. And we believe a nigger naby is of more account than a white napper in the North. And my husband, Deacon Sniviller, wants more buttons to make buttons of, he'll sell the buttons to South and West, and they will have to pay us Nw England Christians for the privilege of wearing out their own bones.

Mrs. Sniviller here spoke again— "Well I don't care now how. The South should be fought! What right had they to have cotton picked by niggers without asking our consent? And they were rich—And they had nice things. And we believe a nigger naby is of more account than a white napper in the North. And my husband, Deacon Sniviller, wants more buttons to make buttons of, he'll sell the buttons to South and West, and they will have to pay us Nw England Christians for the privilege of wearing out their own bones.

Mrs. Sniviller here spoke again— "Well I don't care now how. The South should be fought! What right had they to have cotton picked by niggers without asking our consent? And they were rich—And they had nice things. And we believe a nigger naby is of more account than a white napper in the North. And my husband, Deacon Sniviller, wants more buttons to make buttons of, he'll sell the buttons to South and West, and they will have to pay us Nw England Christians for the privilege of wearing out their own bones.

Mrs. Sniviller here spoke again— "Well I don't care now how. The South should be fought! What right had they to have cotton picked by niggers without asking our consent? And they were rich—And they had nice things. And we believe a nigger naby is of more account than a white napper in the North. And my husband, Deacon Sniviller, wants more buttons to make buttons of, he'll sell the buttons to South and West, and they will have to pay us Nw England Christians for the privilege of wearing out their own bones.

Mrs. Sniviller here spoke again— "Well I don't care now how. The South should be fought! What right had they to have cotton picked by niggers without asking our consent? And they were rich—And they had nice things. And we believe a nigger naby is of more account than a white napper in the North. And my husband, Deacon Sniviller, wants more buttons to make buttons of, he'll sell the buttons to South and West, and they will have to pay us Nw England Christians for the privilege of wearing out their own bones.

Mrs. Sniviller here spoke again— "Well I don't care now how. The South should be fought! What right had they to have cotton picked by niggers without asking our consent? And they were rich—And they had nice things. And we believe a nigger naby is of more account than a white napper in the North. And my husband, Deacon Sniviller, wants more buttons to make buttons of, he'll sell the buttons to South and West, and they will have to pay us Nw England Christians for the privilege of wearing out their own bones.

The Supremacy of the Constitution the only Safeguard for the Country.

In reply to a writer in one of the leading New England dailies, of the Radical faith, who speaks of the trial of Jefferson Davis by a court and jury, and objects thereto, saying that "To my mind the sovereign and victorious majority of the people of the United States are superior to the Constitution, that no one can mistake the originals of the different portraits."

Mrs. Sniviller here spoke again— "Well I don't care now how. The South should be fought! What right had they to have cotton picked by niggers without asking our consent? And they were rich—And they had nice things. And we believe a nigger naby is of more account than a white napper in the North. And my husband, Deacon Sniviller, wants more buttons to make buttons of, he'll sell the buttons to South and West, and they will have to pay us Nw England Christians for the privilege of wearing out their own bones.

Mrs. Sniviller here spoke again— "Well I don't care now how. The South should be fought! What right had they to have cotton picked by niggers without asking our consent? And they were rich—And they had nice things. And we believe a nigger naby is of more account than a white napper in the North. And my husband, Deacon Sniviller, wants more buttons to make buttons of, he'll sell the buttons to South and West, and they will have to pay us Nw England Christians for the privilege of wearing out their own bones.

Mrs. Sniviller here spoke again— "Well I don't care now how. The South should be fought! What right had they to have cotton picked by niggers without asking our consent? And they were rich—And they had nice things. And we believe a nigger naby is of more account than a white napper in the North. And my husband, Deacon Sniviller, wants more buttons to make buttons of, he'll sell the buttons to South and West, and they will have to pay us Nw England Christians for the privilege of wearing out their own bones.

Mrs. Sniviller here spoke again— "Well I don't care now how. The South should be fought! What right had they to have cotton picked by niggers without asking our consent? And they were rich—And they had nice things. And we believe a nigger naby is of more account than a white napper in the North. And my husband, Deacon Sniviller, wants more buttons to make buttons of, he'll sell the buttons to South and West, and they will have to pay us Nw England Christians for the privilege of wearing out their own bones.

Mrs. Sniviller here spoke again— "Well I don't care now how. The South should be fought! What right had they to have cotton picked by niggers without asking our consent? And they were rich—And they had nice things. And we believe a nigger naby is of more account than a white napper in the North. And my husband, Deacon Sniviller, wants more buttons to make buttons of, he'll sell the buttons to South and West, and they will have to pay us Nw England Christians for the privilege of wearing out their own bones.

Mrs. Sniviller here spoke again— "Well I don't care now how. The South should be fought! What right had they to have cotton picked by niggers without asking our consent? And they were rich—And they had nice things. And we believe a nigger naby is of more account than a white napper in the North. And my husband, Deacon Sniviller, wants more buttons to make buttons of, he'll sell the buttons to South and West, and they will have to pay us Nw England Christians for the privilege of wearing out their own bones.

Mrs. Sniviller here spoke again— "Well I don't care now how. The South should be fought! What right had they to have cotton picked by niggers without asking our consent? And they were rich—And they had nice things. And we believe a nigger naby is of more account than a white napper in the North. And my husband, Deacon Sniviller, wants more buttons to make buttons of, he'll sell the buttons to South and West, and they will have to pay us Nw England Christians for the privilege of wearing out their own bones.

Raymond Photographs the Jacobins.

Henry J. Raymond, the editor of the New York Times, who has been forced from his support of the President by the clamors of the Radicals, but a few weeks ago published the following pen-picture of the Radical wing of the Republican party. The fidelity of the picture is so striking, that no one can mistake the originals of the different portraits.

Mrs. Sniviller here spoke again— "Well I don't care now how. The South should be fought! What right had they to have cotton picked by niggers without asking our consent? And they were rich—And they had nice things. And we believe a nigger naby is of more account than a white napper in the North. And my husband, Deacon Sniviller, wants more buttons to make buttons of, he'll sell the buttons to South and West, and they will have to pay us Nw England Christians for the privilege of wearing out their own bones.

Mrs. Sniviller here spoke again— "Well I don't care now how. The South should be fought! What right had they to have cotton picked by niggers without asking our consent? And they were rich—And they had nice things. And we believe a nigger naby is of more account than a white napper in the North. And my husband, Deacon Sniviller, wants more buttons to make buttons of, he'll sell the buttons to South and West, and they will have to pay us Nw England Christians for the privilege of wearing out their own bones.

Mrs. Sniviller here spoke again— "Well I don't care now how. The South should be fought! What right had they to have cotton picked by niggers without asking our consent? And they were rich—And they had nice things. And we believe a nigger naby is of more account than a white napper in the North. And my husband, Deacon Sniviller, wants more buttons to make buttons of, he'll sell the buttons to South and West, and they will have to pay us Nw England Christians for the privilege of wearing out their own bones.

Mrs. Sniviller here spoke again— "Well I don't care now how. The South should be fought! What right had they to have cotton picked by niggers without asking our consent? And they were rich—And they had nice things. And we believe a nigger naby is of more account than a white napper in the North. And my husband, Deacon Sniviller, wants more buttons to make buttons of, he'll sell the buttons to South and West, and they will have to pay us Nw England Christians for the privilege of wearing out their own bones.

Mrs. Sniviller here spoke again— "Well I don't care now how. The South should be fought! What right had they to have cotton picked by niggers without asking our consent? And they were rich—And they had nice things. And we believe a nigger naby is of more account than a white napper in the North. And my husband, Deacon Sniviller, wants more buttons to make buttons of, he'll sell the buttons to South and West, and they will have to pay us Nw England Christians for the privilege of wearing out their own bones.

Mrs. Sniviller here spoke again— "Well I don't care now how. The South should be fought! What right had they to have cotton picked by niggers without asking our consent? And they were rich—And they had nice things. And we believe a nigger naby is of more account than a white napper in the North. And my husband, Deacon Sniviller, wants more buttons to make buttons of, he'll sell the buttons to South and West, and they will have to pay us Nw England Christians for the privilege of wearing out their own bones.

Mrs. Sniviller here spoke again— "Well I don't care now how. The South should be fought! What right had they to have cotton picked by niggers without asking our consent? And they were rich—And they had nice things. And we believe a nigger naby is of more account than a white napper in the North. And my husband, Deacon Sniviller, wants more buttons to make buttons of, he'll sell the buttons to South and West, and they will have to pay us Nw England Christians for the privilege of wearing out their own bones.

Miscellaneous Rems.

The largest new steamer on the Mississippi river is called the Robert E. Lee.

A man proves himself fit to go higher, who shows that he is faithful where he is.

The mammoth hotel at Williamsport, the "Herdie House," is to be sold at sheriff's sale.

The telegraph of Switzerland is the property of the State, and they charge one cent per word for any distance.

A Chicago wife, on the death of her husband by cholera, locked up the house and ran away with a live fellow.

Family jars are plenty as ever in pious New England. Nine divorces in one town in Vermont recently.

Carlos L. Golden, of Chicago, died of cholera on the 26th ult., and his wife of consumption on the same day.

A Mormon Bishop recently deceased leaves 11 wives and 47 children to mourn his loss.

What's the latest and sweetest thing in loonets? The ladies' faces, to be sure.

A man at Dubaque, Ia., got his life insured and then tumbled from a church spire and knocked his brains out.

The fall bonnets are pronounced "lovely," "charming," "petite," "soil," "splendid," "eloquent," "unique," "recherche."

Mrs. Eva Lancaster, wife of an editor in Texas, is conducting the paper while her husband is avoiding arrest by the Freedman's Bureau.

Why is the suspension of the habeas corpus act in Ireland beneficial to the Fenians? Because it quickens their apprehensions.

The key to mother's heart is the baby. Keep that well oiled with praise, and you can unlock all the pantries in the house.

Speaking of the undeveloped wealth of the country, a loafer said that was exactly his position; he possessed vast resources—was very rich—but his wealth was undeveloped.

Rev. Mr. Carroll, pastor of the Arbor Hill Methodist Church in Albany, has been dismissed and forbidden to exercise his ministerial functions, on the ground of immoral conduct.

A man up the river got married, went on his tour, and cut his throat the second day out. He would have saved money by doing it before he started.

A foolish and timid Tennessee swain attempted suicide on his wedding day. A stomach pump relieved him and a little old Boarboon gave him pluck to meet his fate with a coming dignity.

A little son of John Morrissey, of New York, was lately bitten by a monkey belonging to an organ-grinder. If he is never bitten by one of his "papa's" "niggers" he'll be fortunate.

A wicked but pretty little chambermaid stole a lady's jewels at the St. James Hotel in New York, valued at $6,000. She cried dreadfully when a detective discovered them in her palpitating corset.

The case of Lindsay, the Rev. person who killed his child because he would not say its prayers, has been put over until January. Lindsay defends the killing, declaring that it was in the way of duty.

Gottlieb Robers's infidelity so grieved Mrs. Robers, of Hartford, that she drowned her sorrow in a flowing bowl of poison; but a stomach pump restored her to Gottlieb and fresh sorrows.

Mr. Greeley has made $100,000 out of the "Great Conflict." No wonder that he wants another civil war. If he can get another war started he would make as much more. Patriotism is it not.

Bishop Whipple states that he has been in Minnesota seven years, and has seen much of the Indians there of whom there are about 18,000. He gives them credit for many virtues, except in districts corrupted by the whites.

Distinctions and Differences.

A Southern man is said to have offered a reward for Lincoln's head when Lincoln was his armed enemy—that is fearful feudish crime.

INTEREST.

An exchange paper says that the fastest time "on record," at all distances, is as follows:

ALL ABOUT NAILS.

The following table will show any one, at a glance, the length of the various sizes, and the number of nails in a pound.

AUCTION OF WOMEN.

It is well known that an auction of unmarried women used to take place annually in Babylon.

Mrs. PARTINGTON ON FASHION.

There is one thing sure, says Mrs. Partington, the females of the present generation are a heap more independent than they used to be.

A Bachelor Editor.

A Bachelor editor, sensitive as to his rights, objects to taking a wife, through fear that if she should have a baby, his contemporaries, who habitually copy without giving credit, would refuse to give him credit for the baby.

There is a shop kept by a lady in New York, in a window of which appear these words: "No reasonable offer refused."