The Republican.

GEORGE B. GOODLANDER, Editor.

CLEARFIELD, PA.

Wednesday Morning, Dec. 5, 1866.

REVIVED.—The Mercer Press has again been revived, and is now under the control of our old friend Wm. S. Garvin, who, we hope, will be able to bring old "Messer" to rights again.

THE RIGHT NAME.—A number of negroes in Philadelphia are forming themselves into an association entitled "Lincoln's Company," with the object of going to Liberia.

Official returns from all the counties in New York State give a majority for Governor Fenton of 13,745. The vote of the whole State is over 12,000 below that of 1864.

The income of Hon. Asa Packer, of Carbon county, is returned by the internal revenue assessor, for last year, at $185,707. We would add another column to the Republican, if we had only a three month's income of this kind.

SENATORIAL WAR.—The war on the Senatorial question, between the loyal factions, is becoming interesting. Curtin and Cameron occupy the centre of the ring, as clown and ring-master, while Stevens, Forney and Grow are trying to ride the mule.

The official majority against Hon. A. J. Rogers in the Fourth Congressional District of New Jersey, is but 290. To accomplish this much, the canvassers threw out 195 ballots, because they were printed Andrew Jackson Rogers instead of Andrew J. Rogers.

DEAD.—Hon. Jacob Fry, an old and prominent Democrat of this State, died at Norristown on Wednesday last. He was formerly a member of the State Legislature, a Representative in Congress from 1835 to 1839, and served also as Auditor General of the State.

A number of Eastern woolen manufacturers have determined to stop. They say they cannot afford to pay commissions, Government tax and the present enormous prices of dye stuffs and wool. Poor fellows! These same chaps have doubled their capital from two to three times during the past six years.

RELIGIOUS PROGRESS.—Rev. Henry Ward Beecher announced to his congregation, on Sunday last, that he had engaged a troupe of singers, and in the future would give "sacred concerts" in his church. We presume he has adopted this plan to keep his members from attending any other theatre.

Most of the clergymen of Norwich, Connecticut, have signed a circular protesting against funerals on Sunday.—Exchange.

Next, they will quarrel with the Lord for allowing people to die on that day. This is the place where, a hundred years ago, it was a sin for a man to kiss his wife on Sunday, but it was pronounced a sharp business transaction to manufacture wooden hams or nutmegs on Monday, and sell them to the "heathen round about" the balance of the week.

Hon. Daniel R. Magruder, Judge of the Second district of Maryland, has been arrested, by order of Lieut. Vanderlepe, a negro-bureau agent, for deciding that Thad Stevens' Civil Rights bill is unconstitutional. The Bureau says he is compelled to adopt this course to protect the "gentleman from Africa." We wish we had a bureau to protect our rights. Upon this point we are opposed to any distinction of "race or color."

Some fellow, neglected by the Fool-killer, through the Philadelphia Press, attempts to prove that the Constitution can be amended by a three fourths vote of the "loyal" States alone. Some fools are bigger than others; but this one, denominated by the editor an "able jurist," must be a whopper. The villains see that their treason has been defeated, and they are making a flank movement to get out of the scrape by philosophy. We suppose this able jurist will next attempt to prove that the moon is made out of green cheese.

THE RECEPTION.—The Congressional "Bread-and-Butter Brigade" took it into their heads to get up a reception in honor of the "loyal" Representatives, on their return to Washington, on Saturday last. The committee had as much trouble in securing an orator for the occasion, as a similar committee had a year ago to get one to deliver a eulogy on A. L. Logan was first invited, then Hamlin, and a score of others; but all declined, until they came down to a white negro judge, who, after the thing had been postponed until Monday, spread himself to become a Rump tool.

Horrible Crime.

The following statement we take from the Salem (Mass.) Statesman. The barbarism displayed in this instance would furnish material for a two-column article on humanitarianism in the New York Tribune, had the crime been committed in South Carolina, instead of Massachusetts. But happening where it did, it is merely treated as an incident of the day, and the child being white defeats a loyal howl:

"A man named James Grandell, living with his wife at Westfield, Mass., has been arrested, together with his wife, and the two are held for examination at Somers, for unnatural and inhuman conduct in trying to destroy the life of an infant child. It seems Grandell and his wife who have been married but a little over a year, took the child to the Shakers at Enfield and urged them to adopt it. The Shakers refused; and the parents then took the child to a neighboring woods, put it in a hole or hollow, and covering it with leaves, left it to its fate. It is thought, from marks and bruises on the infant's head and face, that the unnatural parents stamped upon it, with a view of killing it, before covering it with leaves. It was discovered the next day by two huntsmen, by means of their dog, and was found to be still alive, though nearly dead. The parents deny that they stamped on the child, and say they left it near the road, expecting it would be found. They were to have their examination to-day, at Somers. The child, by proper attention, is likely to recover."

OVER-CROWDED LABOR MARKET.—The New York papers are cautioning country workmen against seeking employment it that city, telling them that the labor market there is overstocked, business dull, and multitudes of workmen are discharged, while the rate of wages is falling. Referring to this fact the Washington Star remarks: "We feel it a duty to give the same warning to persons coming to Washington in search of employment. In our long experience in the newspaper business we have never before known so many persons out of employment in this city. A large portion of the floating population brought here by the war, still linger long after the demand for their labor has ceased, and jostle each other for a livelihood in all the trades, and in a fierce contest for the smallest governmental office. Descending the social scale, we have some thirty thousand colored people, contrabands, &c., seeking employment here, of whom it is safe to say that twenty thousand will not average a day's work in a week during the coming winter. The poor-house is already overflowing and unable to afford a shelter for the swarms of vagrants and houseless ones afloat upon our streets, and Heaven only knows what will become of the thousands of the unemployed here when the severity of the winter comes upon us.

THE CASE OF SPANGLER.—We learn that an earnest effort is to be made, now that the tumult and excitement of the elections are over, to press upon the attention of the President the case of Edward Spangler, a prisoner of the Dry Tortugas, charged with the complicity in the assassination of President Lincoln. Both Spangler's own friends, and many disinterested students of the evidence in the case of the conspirators, believe that the conviction was unjust, or at any rate unjustified by the testimony, and the intrinsic improbability of such a man's being concerned in the plot is a strong element in his favor. The present effort is not for the pardon of the condemned man, but for a new trial, which will give him an opportunity of establishing his innocence before an impartial jury. The necessity of some action in the case of this unfortunate man has been on more than one occasion urged in our columns; and the wisdom of some movement such as that now contemplated will be apparent to all who have given the matter a consideration.—Boston Advertiser.

TAKE NOTICE.—It is a noteworthy fact that all the ambitious darkey spokesmen; all the long-haired "reformers;" all the spiritualists; all the common-propertyites; all the "free lovers;" and all the Bloomers and "woman's rights" females—Mrs. Swisshelm, E. Cady Stanton, Lucy Stone, Anna Dickinson, &c.—are of and with the Radical party. Every impudent, blathering, worthless, rattle-pated darkey; every white jeremy diddler; and every he-female is opposed to to a re-established Union. As their daily practice is in violation of either the laws of nature, of morality, or of God, they could not consistently belong to any other organization.—Pat. & Union.

Frank R Lubbock, ex-Governor of Texas and ex-colonel and aid to Jefferson Davis, has established himself, in connection with his son, at Houston, in the auction and commission business. For twenty-five years Mr. Lubbock served the State in various offices, and it was he, at the Charleston Convention, who terrified Butler into a temporary whiteness, like that of chalk, by threatning to cut off the doctor's ears and nail them to the door. Butler had been imprudent, but he was very quiet during the rest of the session of the Convention, and toadied the South by voting fifty-seven times for Jefferson Davis, as his candidate for the Presidency.—Exchange.

BUTLER AND HIS GANG.—"Imagine", said Mr. Hoffman, of New York, in the speech at Buffalo, "imagine Thad. Stevens as President, Parson Brownlow as Secretary of the Treasury, Henry J. Raymond as Secretary of State, James Gordon Bennett as Minister to England, and the travelling troupe now preambulating the country as members of Congress. With such rulers what would your securities be worth? [Voice—Butler would steal them all.] You hear what my friend in the audience says. I make it a point never to contradict a sensible remark." [Great laughter.]

General G. W. Schofield has been appointed Major in the Forty-first regiment, regular army.

The Causes of Defeat.

Many so-called Democratic journals and leaders are now-a-days complaining of the delusions and waywardness of the people in continuing their support to a political party which is manifestly bent on the complete destruction of the free white man's government, established by our forefathers. But we must tell these Democratic leaders that the fault is more theirs than the peoples'. They have been doing all they could for five or six years to educate the people in this Black Republican abomination of "loyalty." If the thing now called by this kingly name of loyalty, is right, then the Black Republican party is right, then the people are right in supporting that party, and the Democrats are wrong in opposing it. If the Abolitionists have a right to overthrow the government of States, and to subjugate white men, for the purpose of reducing them to an equality with negroes, then they have a right to all the natural fruits of that subjugation. The holding of States in subjugation can be no greater crime than the very act of subjugating, and when you have educated the people to believe that the one is right, it will take a long time to persuade their common sense that the other is wrong. If you may deprive any people of the right of self-government for a single hour, you may for a day, if for a day, for a week, if for a week, for a month, if for a month, for a year, if for a year, for all time. The principle admitted for any time, is good for all time. These Democratic leaders went over themselves into the filthy slough of Black Republican loyalism alias despotism, alias devilism of every infernal type, and did their utmost to drag the people after them, and now are trying to drag them out again with just about the same kind of ropes or principles, with which they dragged them in. Vain attempt! Worse than vain to expect to drag the people out of the Abolition slough with Abolition ropes! If the Democratic party is ever to return to power, it must be through other agency, and by other leadership, than that which carried it over to the support of its enemies. The organization, the machinery of the party, is worn out and broken in the service of its enemies. It smells at once of the stench of negroes and the blood of white men! It is loathesome to every Democrat, that is, to every Democrat who has refused to be a party to the stupendous crime of the Abolition war. If the Democratic party, we say, ever returns to power, it must be by other means than this old filthy, venal, bloody, negroized machinery of the party organization. The Democratic principle is not hurt. It is as bright, as pure and glorious as when it started in the great struggle of 1776. Give it a party machinery worthy of its strength, and it will draw forth again the popular enthusiasm which was always the forerunner and companion of victory. Do we believe it possible for the party to achieve success through the leadership of the very men by whom it has been sold? The return of the Democratic party, or rather of the Democratic principle to power, (for after all, that is the only question worth contending for,) must never be looked for on this prostituted, bloody, negro-worshiping basis of loyalty. The Democracy of the United States was always purely white. It can never return to power except as a white man's party. The attempt to make it a mulatto party, or something between a white man and a negro, has resulted in nothing but disgraceful and continuous defeat. These cunning or rather foolish leaders have been trying to split the difference between a white man and a negro, and the result is, that they have made political Mongrels of themselves. What we want, what we must have, nay, what we will have, is a purely white man's party. A party based upon white supremacy, on precisely the same foundations which were laid down by the wise and patriotic founders of this government, is the only organization which can successfully cope with the negro party. To concede anything to such a party is to give away a portion of our strength. The wider the gulf between us and them, the stronger shall we be. This attempt to squat upon their grounds is both a folly and a crime. The Black Republican party holds the negro and all that belongs to him in fee simple, and for the Democratic party to attempt to get possession of any part of his body, is to play the part of a thief and a fool at the same time. This sort of thing has been going on now for several years under the present incompetent and venal leadership of the party, with only this result—the demoralization of our own forces.

These considerations have led us to support the proposition for an early great convention of the true old Democracy of the States—a genuine Democratic convention, where the people of all the States may meet on terms of perfect equality. Not such a bastard concern as that of Philadelphia, where the marplots of one section held their bloody hands over the voiceless mouths and choked throats of the other section, reading them lessons of reproof and submission. If there is any man who bore a prominent part in it, who is not already ashamed of both its action and its results, let us believe that he is past blushing. It was no doubt amusing to some to see the white State of South Carolina hugging with the black State of Massachusetts, but to us it was far from amusing, because we knew that the political offspring born of such an embrace could be nothing but a Mongrel brat. Mrs. Carolina has added nothing to her chaste reputation for that little love-making. The Democracy, or the Conservatism, or whatever you call it, of Massachusetts, as represented in that convention, was certainly not whiter than a mulatto. But there are real white men in Massachusetts, as in all the New England States—plenty of them—and we hope that such, and only such, will go to the great Convention of the States to be held in Kentucky next Spring. Every stripe of black and mulatto politicians have been holding their Conventions all around; but let the Democracy have, at least, one Convention of genuine white politicians. A Convention of brave and true patriots, who acknowledge nothing to repent of on the one hand, nor claim the right to exercise forgiveness on the other. There ought to be half a million of real white men in conference on that occasion. Such a Convention might start an enthusiasm which will arouse the sleepy ear of the old Democracy again, and give us at least one campaign in which Democrats shall not be in doubt whether they are running a Democratic or a Black Republican platform. Let us have a Convention of white men, who want the old Union our forefathers made, and who prefer the Constitution as it came from the hands of Washington, Jefferson, and the patriots of the Revolution, to the ragged, negro-looking thing as it passes out of Thad. Stevens, Sumner, and Ben. Butler. The issue is a plain one. Let the call be for a Convention of all who want the Union as it was and the Constitution as it was. Those who believe that Thad. Stevens and Ben. Butler can mend the work of Washington and Jefferson, must take, at least, a back seat in such a Convention. Let those who are foolish enough to think that they can hold the "Radical" bull by the tail try their hand in another place. Let this Convention be for those who mean to seize the beast by the horns.—Day Book.

MURDEROUS DOINGS IN MISSOURI.—An affray occurred near West Plains, Howell county, Mo., last week, between Fred. H. Baker and John Finley, in regard to a homestead entry, which resulted in the killing of Finley and his wife, and the serious wounding of Mrs. Cousins, sister of Mrs. Finley, by Baker. Great excitement prevails in the community. Baker is still at large. Last Sunday, two brothers, named Titus, assaulted the constable of Missouri city, Clay county, whereupon the constable, named Elgin, killed both the brothers, and fled to Platte county, to surrender himself to the authorities. He was followed by several men, said to be friends of the murdered brothers, and was himself found killed on Monday.

RESIGNED AND LEFT RICHMOND.—The Rev. Andrew Schwartz, late pastor of St. John's German Lutheran Church, Fifth Street, resigned his pastorate on Tuesday night and left the city. Our readers will remember that he was a radical candidate for the Legislature of Maryland at the recent election in Baltimore, and was defeated. He was nominated and entered upon the canvass without the knowledge of his congregation, and they were incensed that their religious teacher should engage in politics. Until another pastor is elected, Rev. H Knehne, D D., and Rev. Mr. Blenner will officiate in this church—Richmond (Va.) Dispatch.

NOT CONSISTENT.—Judge Allison, of Philadelphia, lately sent a Federal soldier to prison for thirty days for contempt in not taking off his hat in court, although to have done so would have been a violation of army regulations. Singular to say this same Judge resided and presided in Philadelphia, a year or two ago, when Federal soldiers, in firing at deserters, killed or wounded a woman and child, and yet the soldiers were not punished. Has "loyalty" gone into a decline, or is it a greater crime to keep one's hat on in "the presence" than take a human life?—Patriot & Union.

HORSE RACES.—There were at least three thousand people at the races on Saturday, at the National Course, at Washington, including General Grant, Secretaries Stanton, Browning and McCulloch, and several foreign ministers and others. The race was for a purse of $2,000. Mile heats, best three in five. The horses entered were the famous Dexter, the trotter George Fawcett, and the pacer Polly Ann. The horse George Fawcett was formerly known as Silas Rich. Dexter won all three heats, his time being 2,26½, 2,21¼, and 2,29½.

On the night of October 14th, when Wells, Fargo & Co.'s fast stage arrived at Crystal Lake, near the summit of the Sierras, on the Donner Lake route, a man who had been riding on the back part of the stage walked in to the house, and as he approached the fire, fell to the floor and expired. A doctor who examined the body said the deceased had been frozen to death. No one knew who the person was, or where he got on the stage; he had no baggage, and was only protected from the cold by a linen coat.

A Mrs. Fox, residing in Sandlake, N. Y., attempted to commit suicide on Thursday by taking poison. Her motive for the action was by reason of the following circumstances: Her husband went to the army in the early part of the war, and not hearing from him she supposed he was dead, and accordingly married another. Recently he came home and claimed the children, which so grieved her that she attempted to put an end to her existence. The prompt application of restoratives saved her life.

REFRESHING TO SINNERS.—It must have been refreshing to sinners to witness the avidity with which ministers of the Gospel in this section entered into the spirit of the recent political contest, and the anxiety they exhibited to be among the first to get to the ballot-box, and the love they manifested for their neighbors and many of their flock by supporting a party whose purpose they know to be to disfranchise and debase them. Should not conservatives withdraw all support from such "wolves in sheeps clothing?"—Hagerstown Press.

William Flinn, Esq., of Washington, D. C., Col. William H. Stewart, of Baltimore, Md., and John M. Miller, Esq., of Elkton, Md., have been appointed, by the President, Commissioners for the State of Maryland, under section 24, act of Congress, February 24, 1864, and section 2, act approved July 28, 1866, to award compensation to each loyal person to whom a colored volunteer or darfted man may have owed service at the time of enlistment or draft into the service of the United States.

The starch mills of S. P. Hartford & Co., of Lancaster, N. H., were burned on the 27th of November. The loss is estimated at about $5,000.

Miscellaneous Items.

Hon. John T. Jones has been elected United States Senator from Arkansas.

The State debt of Illinois, on the 1st instant, was $22,282,130. This is pretty well for a new State.

Twenty cars loaded with cotton, pass over the "air line" road from Memphis to Norfolk every day.

Jefferson and Joseph Davis's plantations in Mississippi have been leased to an association of colored men.

Johnson's large nail factory at Hollidaysburg, was destroyed by fire on the 27th ultimo. The loss is heavy.

Hon. Cave Johnson died at Clarksville, Tenn., on the 28th ultimo. He was P. M. General under President Polk.

A person lately set an investigation on foot. But he complains that it hurts him. Let him put it on horseback.

A disloyal sheet in Virginia, favors the senatorial aspirations of H. G., "because he was an influential secessionist."

Our faults afflict us more than our good actions console us; it is always pain that carries the day in conscience as in the heart.

Hon. Herschel V. Johnson has resigned the office of United States Senator, to which the Georgia Legislature elected him.

Mr. Charles A. Dana has bought up the old material of the New York Herald, types, presses, &c., for his new radical paper.

A man named Parkinson, who shot the seducer of his daughter, in Jasper county, Indiana, has been tried for murder and acquitted.

Two hundred and eighty-five gallons of sorghum molasses were made from one acre of cane this season, by a Rockingham, Va., farmer.

The Boston police arrest people for playing cards on Sunday in private houses. This is indeed strange amusement for a religious town like Boston.

Advices from the Upper Missouri state that the Indians are again troublesome, several boats having been fired into and a number of passengers killed.

Forney says "he has not committed any of the crimes that Andrew Johnson is in the habit of pardoning." No, Forney; your crimes are such that nobody can pardon.

"Did the minister put a stamp on you when you were married, Mary?" "A stamp Charlie! What for, pray?" "Why Matches ain't legal without a stamp you know."

Major George E. Glenn, a paymaster, was robbed at Fort Boyes, October 5th, of $50,000 in legal tender notes, and $50,000 in vouchers for money paid out to troops.

E. F. Pillsburry, late Democratic candidate for Governor of Maine, has been appointed, by the President, Pension Agent for that State, in the place of a loyalist named Potter.

Female clerks are now employed in the Dead Letter office at Washington. What a paradise of enjoyment for curious women! We know of a few that such situations would just suit.

President Johnson may not be a "Moses," but we see that he gives more money to aid the children of Ham and hominy than all the Rads from Maine to Iowa, put together.

Gov. Geary will be inaugurated on the 15th of January; the election for United States Senator will take place on the same day; the election for Treasurer will be held on the 9th of January.

Dennis F. Hanks, Mr. Lincoln's relation and old preceptor and friend, writes that Mr. Lincoln's "whole Presidential career was a continual struggle against the rapacity, the cruelty, and the recklessness of the Radical faction."

It is said that Judge Bond, of Maryland is to be impeached. Better turn him over to the Freedman's Bureau, under whose care all the late bondmen are now luxuriating, and toward whom he seems to have such strong affinities.

Neither Chief Justice Chase nor Judge Underwood were in Richmond on the 26th, the day for the commencement of the United States Circuit Court; consequently the trial of Jefferson Davis must go over till the May term, in 1867.

General John A. Sutter, the California pioneer, is now in Washington endeavoring to get a claim against the government allowed. It will be remembered that it was upon the General's farm that gold was first discovered in California.

Mr. Wm. Oaks, of Burrell township, Indiana county, while carrying a scap of bees across a field, on Wednesday night last, stepped into a rut and fell, striking his chin upon the box, which dislocated his neck, killing him almost instantly.

General George H. Steuart, formerly of Baltimore, and late Major General in the Confederate service, and a graduate of West Point, has been pardoned upon the recommendation of General Grant, the Attorney General, and other prominent persons.

GOING BACK ON HIS "FRIENDS."—The New York Tribune, in summing up the result of the election in Massachusetts, says:—"There are a very few Copperheads and some Negroes chosen to the Legislature, but not enough of either to do any harm."

SUDDEN DEATH IN COURT.—George Washington, a nephew of Gen. Washington, died suddenly a few days since in Wilmington, Clinton county, Ohio, while attending a case he had in court. His remains were taken to Prince William county, Va., for interment.

At a town meeting held in Chelsea, Mass., for the purpose of nominating a candidate for Mayor, the names of but two candidates were presented to the voters—R. S. Frost, and Bob Morris, a negro. The vote stood Frost 334, and for Bob 242. Bob will make it next time, sure.

EXPENSIVE CABLE DISPATCH.—The longest dispatch transmitted over the Atlantic telegraph cable was sent on Saturday by a government official of the United States to one of the ministers of this country on the continent of Europe. It contained over five thousand words, and cost $15,000.

THE PROPOSED IMPEACHMENT.—It is reported that prominent radicals held a caucus in Philadelphia, on the 20th ult., when articles of impeachment against the President were drawn up and will be submitted to a republican caucus of the members of Congress soon after the reassembling in Washington.

The grand jury of the Criminal Court of Washington has found a true bill of indictment against Sandford Conover, alias Charles A. Dunham, for perjury in the matter of his testimony implicating Mr. Davis in the assassination of President Lincoln. The indictment covers thirty pages of closely written legal cap.

In Holmes county, Ohio, a veteran Democrat of 101 years traveled four miles to the polls; and others, aged 98, 93 and 94, went a considerable distance to deposit Democratic ballots. When such ancient patriots do thus, what excuse can young and vigorous men have for neglecting to inconvenience themselves to uphold their principles?

"LETTERS FROM HELL."—Mr. Bently, the London publisher, writes to the papers in reference to the book called "Letters from Hell," which he has announced for publication, that it is not, as some good people supposed, an irreligious work. It is the production of a Danish clergyman; and has been translated by a clergyman of the Church of England.

A SAD STORY.—By a recent storm, four vessels belonging to the little town of Barrington, N. S., were lost, with most of their crews. The number of men drowned was thirty-eight, and this calamity makes twenty-three widows and sixty-five orphans, nearly all living within six miles of each other. The loss of property is also a very serious one to the town.

The great suspension bridge over the Ohio River at Cincinnati, 2,252 feet long, was opened to pedestrians on the first of December, with appropriate ceremonies. It is the longest single-span bridge in the world, costing $2,000,000. Railway tracks are laid over it. The span from center to center of the towers is 1,756 feet. Over 10,000 people passed over it the first day.

NOT TRUE.—We are authorized to announce that the article in a morning paper about the breaking up of the "Johnson Executive Committee," and the loss of $30,000 sustained there by a prominent banking house in this city, is incorrect in every particular. On the contrary the Executive Committee have a large surplus to their credit, as has always been the case.—Washington Star.

A Great Discovery.

ONE of the greatest and most useful discoveries in medical science was made by the celebrated Dr. J. Dumas, of Paris, Chief Physician to the Imperial Infirmary of France, in 1861. Those who have been afflicted with the painful disease known as Piles, and effectually cured by the use of DR DUMAS' FRENCH PILE SALVE, cannot speak too highly of the benefits conferred upon them by the use of this remedy. It has never been known to fail in effecting a permanent cure in a single case. In this respect it surpasses all other medicines of the kind. It will do just what it is recommended for; if not, the money will be refunded. One or two boxes is sufficient to effect a permanent cure in four or six days, if the directions on the boxes are followed. Price, one and two dollars per box, according to size. Sent by mail or express to any part of the United States or Canada. Sold by Druggists generally. A liberal discount made to the trade. Address D. S. DUNHAM & CO., Williamsport, Pa., sole Proprietors and Manufacturers for the United States and Canada. d5-y

ANN S. STEPHENS' NEW BOOK.—THE SOLDIER'S ORPHANS. By Mrs. Ann S. Stephens, author of "Fashion and Famine," "The Gold Brick," "The Old Homestead," "Silent Struggles," "Mary Derwent," "Rejected Wife," "The Heiress," "The Wife's Secret," etc.

This new book, by Mrs. Ann S. Stephens, has been pronounced by all to be by far the best and most interesting work ever written by her. It appeared in monthly instalments in Peterson's Magazine during the last year, having been completed in the December number, where it proved to be the most popular, powerful and successful novel that has ever appeared in that Magazine, and it is now published complete and unabridged, in one large duodecimo volume, uniform with the "Gold Brick," "Fashion and Famine," and the other works of Mrs. Ann S. Stephens, published by us. It will no doubt prove to be the most popular and successful work that has ever been written by this talented American authoress.

"Mrs. Stephens has recently become a favorite with all American readers of pure fiction, and the announcement of a new work from her graceful pen is cheerful news to thousands of readers. And there is a rare treat in store for them, for in "The Soldier's Orphan's," Mrs. Stephens has, if anything, eclipsed all her former efforts. There is less redundancy of scene and action, but there is far more artistic excellence, and an elaboration of cause and effects, attainable only by practised writers. The action of this new novel transpires in Philadelphia, and beyond the limits of the city the author does not permit herself to stray. The time selected by Mrs. Stephens is recent, the late war, and she pictures with vivid distinctness the domestic suffering and sacrifices entailed by and made for the grand and heroic struggle for national unity. The plot is one of absorbing interest, the characters are graphic transcripts from real life, strongly individualized, and the contrasts formed by their individual peculiarities, mental and physical, lend a rare charm to this last and most finished of Mrs. Stephens' books."

"The Soldier's Orphans" is published complete in one large duodecimo volume. Price $1 50 in paper, or $2 in cloth.

The Best New York Weekly Published.

NEW YORK DAY-BOOK for 1867,

WILL commence in its issue of Jan. 5 a new and original Romance, written expressly for its columns, entitled "The Confederate Flag on the Ocean; A Tale of the Cruises of the Sumter and Alabama." By Prof. Wm. H. Peck, of La., author of "Bertha Seely," "Beatrice," &c.

Among all the war stories that have been written none have yet portrayed that most romantic of all fields, the wonderful and even mysterious voyages of the Confederate cruisers. This story of Prof. P. will not be merely imaginative, but historical, not simply romance, but reality, much of it from the lips of the very actors in the scenes themselves. We feel safe in predicting that it will have a greater success than any previous story of this popular author.

NOW IS THE TIME TO SUBSCRIBE.

AGENTS WANTED—For the most popular and best selling SUBSCRIPTION BOOKS published. We are the most extensive publishers in the United States, (having six houses,) and therefore can afford to sell books cheaper and pay agents a more liberal commission than any other company.

Our books do not pass through the hands of General Agents, (as nearly all other subscription works do,) therefore we are enabled to give our canvassers the extra per cent. which is usually allowed to General Agents. Experienced canvassers will see the advantage of dealing directly with the publishers.

Our series embraces the most popular works on all subjects of importance, and is selling rapidly, both North and South. Old agents, and all others, who want the best paying agencies, will please send for circulars and see our terms, and compare them and the character of our works with those of other publishers. Address, [nov28-1m]
NATIONAL PUBLISHING CO.,
Philadelphia, Pa., Boston, Mass, Cincinnati, O., Chicago, Ill., St. Louis, Mo., or Richmond, Va
