HOW TO SAVE MONEY.

THE times are hard; you'd like to know How you may save your dollars; The way to do it I will show, If you will read what follows.

A man who lived not far from here,

Who worked hard at his trade, But had a bousehold to support. That squandered all he made.

I met him onco. Says he, "My friend, I look thread bear and rough ; I've tried to get myself a suit. But can't save up enough."

Hays I, my friend, how much have you? ful tall you where to go To get a mit that's sound and cheap : To BEIZENSTEIN & Co.

He tool what little he had saved, And went to Beitenstein & Brothers', And there he got a handsome suit, For half he paid to others.

Now he is hume, he jocks so wall, And their effect is meh. That when they take their daily meal, They don't est half as much.

And now he finds on Satarday night, With all their wants supplied, That he has money left to spend, And some to lay aside.

His good success, with cheerful smile, He gladly tells to all. If you'd care money, go and huy Your elethes at— REIZENSTEIN'S CLOTHING HALL.
