HOW TO SAVE MONEY. THE times are hard; you'd like to know How you may save your dollars; The way to do it I will show, If you will read what follows.

A man who lived not far from here, Who worked hard at his trada, But had a household to support That squandered all he made.

I met him once. Says he, "My friend, I look thread bear and rough; I've tried to get myself a suit, But can't save up enough," Sars I, my friend, how much have you? I'll tell you where to go To get a suit that's sound and cheep: To REIZENSTEIN & Co.

He took what little he had saved, And want to Reisenstein & Brothers', and there he got a handsome suit, For half he paid to others.

Now he is home, he looks so well, And their effect is such, That when they take their daily meal, They don't cut half as much. And now he finds on Saturday night, With all their wants suppl That he has money left to spend, And some to ley atide.
