Let the road be rough and dreary, And its end for out of sight. Foot it bravely! strong or weary, Trust in God and do the right.

Perish policy and cuuning! Perish all that fears the light! Whether losing, whether winning Trust in God and do the right.

Trust no party, seet, or faction; Trust no leadow in the fight; But in every word and action, Trust in God and do the right.

Trust no levely forms of passion;
Flends may look like angels bright;
Trust no custom, school or fashion,
Trust in God and do the right. Simple rule, and safest guiding, Inward peace, and inward might, Star upon our path abiding, Trust in God and do the right.

Some will hate thee, some will love thee, Some will flatter, some will slight; Cease from man, and look above thee, Trust in God and do the right.

CANNOT AND WILL NOT .- An objector asks, if we have no will or power to come to Christ, why are we required to come? 1st. Because disability is no excuse; else were sin an excuse. a man squander his property, he is still bound to pay his debts, though unable and unwilling. 2d. Inability or will is no excuse; else when a ser-vant or child refuses to obey God or man, because it did not wish to, is ex-Did you do what I told you ! Why? Because I did not want Alas! Alas! Sd. We are asked Lard, Linseed, Coal, Lubricating and to come in order to have a desire; as a father asks a child to come to him, (though unable and perhaps unwilling) to make it desire to lead it to try, that feeling its inability, it may look to the parent, and be led to depend on him for help.

4th. We are asked to come, for power will not be wanting. Stretch out the withered arm, with desire to obey, and in the attempt, strength is given. "Bid the people go forward," said God KNIVES, Porks, to Moses, "and strike the waters;" DESERT, TEA, & SCISSORS, which they could do, but God parts the waters. Man rolled away the stone, and Christ raised Lazarus.

True, says Christ, "Without me, ye can do nothing;" yet God says, "In me is thy help;" and again, "Ask and ye shall receive." Hence, we are earnestly called to seek the Lord-strive to enter in. "The kingdom of heaven suffereth violence, and the violent (the earnest, unyielding desire) take it by force." press into it; the take it by force." press into it; the watchword being, "I will not let thee Household, Hostienliural, Farming and Rafting KEEP IT BEFORE THE PEOPLE Coats, Pants, Vests, Over-Coats, Gent's Shawle go till thou bless me." Jacob wrestled all night (likely) in his own strength, but when at break of day, he submitted and made supplication, he obtainod the blessing. Blind Bartimeus could ery and go to Jesus, though he could not see; the dying Israelite could turn his sightless eye balls to wards the serpent.

Take not to heart the losses and disappointments and vexations of life but turn the current of feeling into other channels, by fixing the mind on everlasting things and themes. ean shake off the depressing dust of earthly care and frivolity by a vigor-ous use of the arms in a noble service, or stretching the soul-wings for the highest flight of faith and adoration. To live in and for earthly objects is like mooring a boat to a shadow on a world of anybody is to think less than we ought of Him who is more than all the world. Every earthly shock and disappointment should recall our wandering thoughts and detach our affections from trivial concerns. From every worldly defeat and baffled ambition we should retreat to guard the citadel of life with more resolute valor, and give ourselves more entirely to truth and goodness in the Christ-life. To enrich the mind with the best thoughts of sages and of saints; to purify our hearts with a holy love for the true and good; to expend our time and strength in kindly service of others; to go out of our selves and above ourselves in full souled adoration of One infinitely holythis is the way to peace and per-

Who holds the plank the tightest? Why, the man who is the most afraid of being drowned. Fear frequently intensifies faith. The more afraid I am of my sins, the more firmly do I grasp my Savior. Fear is sometimes mother of faith. One who was walking in the fields was surprised to find a trembling lark fly into his bosom. A strange thing for a timid bird to do, was it not? But there was a hawk after it, and fear of the bawk made the bird bold enough to fly to the man for shelter. And ho! when the vultures of sin and bell are pursuing a poor sinner, he is driven by the courage of despair to fly into the heart of the blessed Jesus. John Bunyan has somewhere words to this effeet : "I was brought into a dread and horror of the wrath of God that 1 could not help trusting in Christ; I felt if he stood with a drawn sword in his hand I must even run right upon its point sooner than endure my sins." I boye and pray that the Lord may drive you to Jesus in such a way as this, if you will not be drawn by gentler means.

We may save our souls everywhere, contrained love God everywhere; even the throne has had its saints. We need only recall St. Louis to belive in the most difficult of salvations. I rend with aspecial delight the history of his sixter that blessed Isabella, so humble in the midst of grandeur, so averse to pleasures, so innocent and penitent, confessing so frequently, giving to the poor what she might have spent in decking herself, the delight of her brother and his court, through the gentleness and gracious qualities which made her wept by all when she retired into her house of Sainte Claire, at serve and love God everywhere; even but self reliance rooted in a heart of love and trust, is firm and supporting as the mountain oak. To rely upon a shaft of mountaine; to rely on God with us and in us is to rest upon the pil.

A Great Discovery.

O'NE of the greatest and most useful discoveries in mechent science was made by the celebrated Dr. J. Dumas, of Parts, Chief Physician to the Imperial Infermery of Prance, in 1861. Those who have been afflicted with the painful disease known as Piles, and effectually sured by the use of DR DUMAS' FRENCH PILE SALVE, cannot speak too highly of the benefits conferred upon them by the use of this remedy. It has never been known to fail in effecting a permanent cure in a single case. In this respect it surpasses all other medicines of the kind. It will do just what it is recommended for: if not, the money will be refunded. One or two boxes is sufficient to effect a permanent cure in four or six days, if the directions on the boxes are followed. Price, one and two dollars per box, according to size. Sent by mail or express to any part of the United States or Camala. Sold by Druggists generally. A fiberal discount made to the trade. Address D. S.
