HE times are hard; you'd like to know How you may save your dollars; The way to do it I will show, If you will read what follows.

A man who lived not far from here, Who worked hard at his trade, But had a household to support That squandered all he made. I met him once. Soys he, "My friend, I look thread bear and rough; I've tried to get myself a suit, But can't zave up enough."

Says I, my friend, how much have you? I'll tell you where to go. To get a suit that's cound and cheap: To BRIZENSTEIN & Co.

He took what little he had saved, And went to Reisenstein & Broth And there he got a handsome suit, For half he paid to others.

Now he is home, he looks so well, And their effect is such, That when they take their daily meal, They don't eat half as much. And now he finds on Saturday night,

With all their wants supplied, That he has money left to spend, And some to lay axide. His good snecess, with cheerful smile, He gladly tells to all.

If you deare money, go and buy
Your cluther at BEIZENSTEIN'S CLOTHING HALL.
