HOW TO SAVE MONEY.

Till times are hard; you'd like to know Bow you may save your dollars; The way to do it I will abow, If you will read what follows.

A man who lived not far from here, he worked hard at his trade. But had a household to support That squandered all he made.

I met him once. Bays he, "My friand, I look thread beer and rough ; I've triad to get myself a suit, But ean't save up snough."

Says I, my friend, how much have you ? I'll tell you where to go To got a suit that's sound and cheap : To REIZENSTEIN & Co.

He took what little he had saved, And went to Reincovern & Brethers', And there ha got a handsome soit, For half he paid to others.

Now he is home, he looks so wall, And their effect is such. That when they take their daily meal, They don't eat half as much.

And now he finds on Saturday night, With all their wants supplied, That he has money left to spend, And some to by aside.
