The Republican.

GEORGE B. GOODLANDER, Editor.

CLEARFIELD, PA.

Thursday Morning, June 6, 1867.

HON. GEORGE H. PENDLETON.—We publish on our first page a speech delivered by this young and rising statesman, and hope our readers will give it an attentive perusal and hand it to their neighbors. Mr. Pendleton, it will be recollected, was the Democratic nominee for Vice President in 1864. We expect to see him occupy the Presidential Chair—a place he is eminently qualified for; and should the American people ever become wise enough to choose a patriot and statesman again, he, or some national Democrat entertaining his views, will be called to this duty.

J. R. Babcock, chief clerk in the Surveyor General's office at Harrisburg, died suddenly of diptheria, in Washington, Pa., on the 31st ult.

A movement is now on foot in the Sandwich Islands for annexation to the United States. If they don't want to live under an abortive military despotism, they had better continue keeping house on their own hook.

John M. Packham, the defaulting President of the First National Bank at Selma, Alabama, and confined in jail, succeeded in making his escape from that institution last week, plunged into the river, and was drowned before he could be rescued.

We this week publish two more important acts of Assembly passed at the last session, which should be read by all. The new feature in the license law, closing all public bars and saloons at twelve o'clock at night, may get the boys home for seasonable bed-time.

The Democratic State Convention will assemble in the hall of the House of Representatives, at Harrisburg, on Tuesday next, to nominate a Democratic candidate for Supreme Judge, in the room of Chief Justice Woodward, whose term of fifteen years will expire on the 1st of December next.

"SWEET TOBACCO POSY."—Hon. J. A. J. Creswell, late loyal U. S. Senator from Maryland, and president of the loyal State Convention, in appointing the new State Central Committee has appointed an equal number of negroes and whites. This is evidently the work of John Brown's soul marching along. Still opposed to amalgamation, eh!

A late Washington letter writer says that the President's cook and the boss chambermaid are in constant readiness, expecting to be summoned before Ashley's Impeachment Committee, for the purpose of testifying as to what kind of seasoning is put in the President's dinners and the loyalty of the chambermaids. Ashley will no doubt be after them just as soon as he gets through with his friends—Holt and Conover.

"FREE PRESS."—Gen. Pope, one of the bosses of the American Poland, has suppressed the National Republican, a loyal newspaper published at Mobile, Alabama, for publishing incendiary articles — instructing the "pet lambs" how to shoot, who to obey, etc., contrary to "general order" of 19th May. Go in, satraps; you and the niggers have a wide berth, and in the name of loyalty can do much; but we don't care which whips, as the old "Union-Savers" intend to get rid of both.

"Lincoln's pet lambs," in some portions of the South, are becoming restive under the boon of freedom, and are forming military companies, through the influence of which they intend to demand all the rights enjoyed by the "white trash." Gen. Stoneman, last week, was compelled to send two companies of U. S. soldiers to Danville, Va., to put down a small rebellion got up there by them on loyal account. Thad. Stevens or Sumner ought to be placed over them as a watch, so that confiscation would soon set in, and the country get rid of both.

RESURRECTED.—General Meagher, who some may have supposed to be dead for some time, has been heard from, in Montana. He has matured a plan—and submitted it to the Government for approval—by which to pacify the Indians in the western country. He proposes to behead all male Injuns over sixteen years of age, and in this way put an end to their annoyances—if not at once, in a few years at least. This may seem a little Hero-like, but not much out of place under the ægis of "grand moral ideas." He went to Lincoln's school, and we believe was made a teacher; hence his humanitarian suggestions. This is in keeping with the Beecher Sharpe's-rifle gospel—quick, sharp and decisive.

AN AUSTRIAN NOTE.—We Americans have been great boasters of liberty in days gone by. The orders and proclamations that emanate from time to time from the military satraps in the Southern end of the new Kingdom, should cause a blush to pass over the cheek of every citizen. The political bulletin board is being covered with such orders as this:

"All persons, civil officers and others, are required to obey and execute the lawful orders of the military Commissioners to the same extent as they are required by law to execute writs issued by the civil magistrates. Any person who shall disobey or resist the lawful orders or authority of a Military Commissioner shall be tried by a military commission, and upon conviction shall be punished by fine and imprisonment, according to the nature and degree of the offence."

This ukase is promulgated by Gen. Schofield, who under loyal directions "runs the machine" in the sub-kingdom of Virginia, and is a total abrogation of the letter and spirit of the Constitution, which he and his master have taken a solemn oath to protect and defend. Loyalty evidently wears a cloak by which it covers a multitude of sins—and they as red as scarlet, yet they seem to attract but very little attention.

JUST LIKE HIM.—That buffoon sheet, the New York Herald, after laboring zealously with Jay Cooke, Lincoln & Co., to create a national debt, so that the country might be blessed, now has the impudence to turn around and denounce it as a national swindle; and, oddly enough, intimates that it ought to be repudiated. The moment those loyal blood-hounds succeed in getting the bonds into other people's pockets at full rates, they will agitate repudiation. The men who have been made rich out of the blood of the nation, will be the first to advocate repudiation.

MR. DAVIS' SURETIES.—The bond of Jefferson Davis for $100,000, as taken and acknowledged before the noted Underwood, at Richmond, was signed by the following gentlemen, viz:

Jefferson Davis.
Horace Greeley, New York.
Augustus Schell, New York.
Aristides Welsh, Philadelphia.
David K. Jackman, Philadelphia.
R. H. McFarland, Richmond.
R. Barton Haxall, Richmond.
Isaac Davenport, Richmond.
Abraham Warwick, Richmond.
Gustavus A. Myers, Richmond.
Wm. W. Cramb, Richmond.
James Lyons, Richmond.
John A. Meredith, Richmond.
Wm. H. Lyons, Richmond.
John Minor Botts, Virginia.
Thomas W Doswell, Virginia.
James Thomas, Jr., Richmond.
Horace F. Clark, New York.

HEAVY VERDICT.—The heirs of Col. Wm. Butler, of Lewistown, last week obtained a judgment against the Pa. railroad company in the Court of Snyder county, for the sum of $18,000. Col. B., his wife, and Mrs. Barr, of Pittsburg, and several other passengers, were killed on the road near Lancaster, about eighteen months ago. The parties all had free passes.

The case of John H. Surratt has again been disposed of, until the 27th of June, when we presume another adjournment will take place till after the hot season shall have passed. The conviction of Conover, for perjury, seems to have made the proper material for witnesses a little scarce; or Holt and Stanton's funds have run out.

The Radical City Council of St Louis have passed an ordinance preventing the cholera from coming to that city, during the coming summer. These Radicals are indeed great reformers. We wish they would pass an ordinance reducing the price of flour. Let them become practical.

Hon. Robert J. Walker, Secretary of the Treasury during the administration of President Polk, says that Russian America, purchased by Seward for ten million dollars, was offered to Mr. Polk for nothing, and refused.

RETURNED.—Right Rev. William Bacon Stevens, D. D., Bishop of the Diocese of eastern Pennsylvania, arrived at Philadelphia on the 28th ult., after an absence in Europe, very much improved in health.

The Washington news mongers announce that Jefferson Davis will take up his permanent residence at St. Catharines, Canada West, at the head of Lake Ontario, until his case is fully disposed of.

PROGRESS.—The Baltimore Sun publishes, in full, the proceedings of the Radical convention of whites and negroes recently in session in that city, closing with the following:

Yesterday afternoon a respectably dressed colored woman called at the central police station and desired of Captain Mitchell protection from a white man who had intruded on her premises. A policeman was sent to the house, and the man brought in, when he stated that he was a delegate to "the convention" from Baltimore county, and that in passing along the street he became very much fatigued, when the colored lady invited him in to rest himself. The woman acknowledged to inviting him into the house, and also stated that she gave him a "fust rate dinner," but that, after partaking of the latter, he demanded the right to her bed, and as she did not keep a house of dat kind she demanded protection. There being no law to reach the case, the delegate from Baltimore county was discharged.

How these brethern do "love one another"—particularly the sisters!

GENERAL LAWS.

Acts passed by the General Assembly of Penn'a during the Session of 1867.

AN ACT for the relief of wives and children, deserted by their husbands and fathers, within this Commonwealth.

SECTION 1. Be it enacted, &c., That in addition to the remedies now provided by law, if any husband, or father, being within the limits of this commonwealth, has, or hereafter shall, separate himself from his wife, or from his children, or from wife and children, without reasonable cause, or shall neglect to maintain his wife, or children, it shall be lawful for any alderman, justice of the peace, or magistrate, of this commonwealth, upon information made before him under oath, or affirmation, by his wife, or children, or either of them, or by any other person, or persons, to issue his warrant to the sheriff, or to any constable, for the arrest of the person against whom the information shall be made, as aforesaid, and bind him over, with one sufficient surety, to appear at the next court of quarter sessions, there to answer the said charge of desertion.

SEC. 2. The information, proceedings thereon, and warrant shall be returned to the next court of quarter sessions, when it shall be lawful for said court, after hearing, to order the person against whom complaint has been made, being of sufficient ability, to pay such sum as said court shall think reasonable and proper, for the comfortable support and maintenance of the said wife, or children, or both, not exceeding one hundred dollars per month, and to commit such person to the county prison, there to remain until he comply with such order, or give security, by one, or more, sureties, to the commonwealth, and in such sum as the court shall direct, for the compliance therewith.

SEC. 3. That the costs of all proceeding, by virtue of this act, shall be the same as are now allowed, by law, in cases of surety of the peace, to be imposed in like manner; and all proceedings shall be in the name of the commonwealth; and that any wife, so deserted, shall be a competent witness on the part of the commonwealth, and the husband shall also be a competent witness.

SEC. 4. That should any such person abscond, remove, or be found in any other county of the commonwealth than the one in which said warrant issued, he may be arrested thereon, by the said warrant being backed by any alderman, or justice of the peace, of the county in which such person may be found, as is now provided for backing warrants, by the third section of the act of the thirty-first of March, one thousand eight hundred and sixty.

JOHN P. GLASS,
Speaker of the House of Representatives.
LOUIS W. HALL,
Speaker of the Senate.

APPROVED—The thirteenth day of April, Anno Domini one thousand eight hundred and sixty-seven.
JOHN W. GEARY.

AN ACT to enable police officers to enforce order in licensed houses, and to exterminate the unlicensed traffic.

SECTION 1. Be it enacted, &c., That persons licensed to keep taverns, or eating houses, shall, as far as in them lie, prevent all disorderly conduct in, and about, their premises, and in case of any disturbance of the peace, shall immediately give notice to the nearest sheriff, constable, officer, or member of police, of such disturbance, and call upon said officer to interpose; whereupon it shall be the duty of such officer to remove the disorderly persons, and, if need be, to close up the place, and keep it closed until order and quiet are entirely restored.

SEC. 2. No person shall sell, give away, or dispose of, any strong, or spirituous, liquors, wines, ale, beer, or any intoxicating drinks, to any apprentice, or any person under twenty-one years of age, without consent given, in writing, in the case of any apprentice, of his master, or mistress, in case of any other minor, of his father, mother, or guardian.

SEC. 3. No person shall sell, or dispose of, and no licensed person shall suffer any person, in his, her, or their, employment, to sell, give away, or dispose of, any strong, or spirituous liquors, wine, ale, beer, or any mixtures of such liquors, to any habitual drunkard, or to any intoxicated person then being under the influence of any such liquors, under penalty of forfeiture of license.

SEC. 4. No person, thus licensed, shall, against the request of any wife, husband, parent, or child, sell, give away, or dispose of, any strong, or spirituous liquors, wines, ale, or beer, to the husband of any such wife, the wife of any such husband, parent of any such child, or child of any such parent, under penalty of all the fines and forfeitures of this act.

SEC. 5. All persons, thus licensed, shall close, or shut up, their bar, or place of sale, at, or before, the hour of twelve every night, and not open the same until sunrise next day, and on Sundays shall not open them at all, but keep them shut until Monday at sunrise; this is not designed to prevent the reception and lodging of persons traveling, without violation of law.

SEC. 6. Any conviction, for the violation of any provision of this act, by a person licensed under it, or at any place licensed, shall work a forfeiture, and annul such license, and no license fee shall be returned.

SEC. 7. It shall be the duty of every sheriff, constable, policeman, and officer of police, to compel the observance, and to prevent the violation of the provisions of this act; and in the discharge of such duty, if need be, he shall have power to close up, and to keep closed, any place, or places, where such violations become known to him, whether by his own personal observation, or by information of any respectable citizen of the vicinity; also, it shall be the duty of the officers aforesaid, to arrest such persons, so alleged to be acting in violation of law, and to bring them before any magistrate of the vicinity, to be dealt with according to the provisions of this act; and it shall be the duty of such magistrate to entertain complaints, for the violation of this act, when made under oath, by any citizen of the vicinity.

SEC. 8. It shall be the duty of every sheriff, constable, member and officer of police, to arrest any and every person, who shall be found intoxicated, in any street, or public highway, or in any public place, or places, where strong, or spirituous liquors, wines, ale, or beer, are sold, publicly kept, or disposed of, and to take him, or her, before any magistrate of the vicinity; and if such magistrate shall, after due inquiry, deem him, or her, too much intoxicated to be fully examined, or to answer on oath correctly, the magistrate shall cause him, or her, to be confined until he, or she, becomes sober, and then to be brought before him, and interrogated, under oath, or affirmation, as to the cause of such intoxication, and thus ascertain from whom he, or she, obtained the liquor, which caused the drunkenness; but such examination shall not be used in evidence against such intoxicated person, in any prosecution, civil, or criminal.

SEC. 9. Any person who shall sell any strong, or spirituous liquors, wines, beer, or ale, to any of the individuals, to whom it is declared by this act to be unlawful to make such sale, shall be liable for all damages which may be sustained, in consequence of such sale; and the parties so offending, may be sued in any court of competent jurisdiction, in the state, by any individual, or the next friend of such individual, as has sustained damage; the net sum recovered, shall inure to the benefit of the party injured.

SEC. 10. Every person who may, and shall, violate any of the provisions of this act, shall, for each offence, be guilty of a misdemeanor, and on conviction thereof, shall be punished with a fine of not more than twenty dollars, and in default of payment, with imprisonment of not more than five days.

Speaker of the House of Representatives.
LOUIS W. HALL,
Speaker of the Senate.

Democratic Meeting in Osceola.

In pursuance of a call issued by the Vigilance Committees of Osceola borough and adjoining townships—the inclemency of the weather proving no barrier—a very respectable number of the hard-fisted Democracy assembled in the Osceola Borough school-house, on Saturday evening, May 25, 1867.

On motion, Lycurgus G. Lingle was called to the Chair. Richard Hughes, Dr. D. R. Good, Daniel Cilley and Lewis Stonecroad were made Vice Presidents. J. A. Blattenberger and Geo. M. Brisbin were elected Secretaries.

The Chairman stated the object of the meeting; when, on motion, Geo. M. Brisbin, J. A. Blattenberger and Dr. D. R. Good were appointed a committee to draft resolutions expressive of the same.

The Committee reported the following preamble and resolutions; which were unanimously adopted:

WHEREAS, The corruption in the Legislature during the past session—being but a repetition of the last several bodies preceding it—has become so notorious, and especially in the last session so iniquitous and injurious to the vital interests of the great mass of the people, that we deem it our duty, as well as the duty of all right-minded men, (having in view that which will bring the greatest good to the greatest number,) in every legislative district in the State, to urge for nomination to said offices none but men in whom implicit confidence can be placed; therefore—

Resolved, That while we do not overlook the claims of others, we claim, (that which the Democracy generally in this county must concede,) that no selections or nominations of any moment have been made from this section for some years. We feel justified in placing prominently before the people one who has been identified with the best interests and success of the party from this locality, and one who in its darkest hour—the reign of terror just past—stood firm and steadfast.

Resolved, That the Democratic citizens of Osceola borough and adjoining townships, personal acquaintances of JOHN LAWSHE, Esq., conceive that in him are combined all the elements that are so essential to qualify a man for the position—an honest, upright, hard-working man, and one whose democracy is above suspicion. We, therefore, recommend him to the suffrages of the citizens of Clearfield county, at the approaching nominating election, as a candidate for Assembly, feeling confident that they will never have cause to regret their favorable consideration.

Resolved, That the foregoing proceedings, together with the preamble and resolutions, be sent to the editor of the Clearfield Republican—the able organ of the party—for publication.

These proceedings were properly signed by the officers of the meeting, and a small regiment of "Cops" also attached their names as endorsers, the publication of which we are compelled to omit for want of room.

ON HIS PINS.—New York, May 29.—To day the match for $1,000, mile heats, best three in five, with wagons, between Ethan Allen and his running mate against Brown George and his running mate, came off on the Fashion Course. Ethan Allen and his running mate won the first heat in 2:29, the second in 2:21, and the third, after a magnificent race, in the unprecedented time of 2:19. This time is the fastest on record in a race with running mates, and beats that made by Ethan Allen himself with his running mate Socks, 2:19½, against Flora Temple, six years ago, over the same course. Ethan Allen is now eighteen years old, and consequently the performance is as extraordinary as it is unparalleled.

A QUESTION SETTLED.—The constitutionality of the act of Assembly enlarging the boundaries of the county of Forest, and the action of the commissioners, appointed by this act, in changing the location of the county-seat from Marion to Tionesta, has just been decided by the Supreme Court of Pennsylvania. The law and the action under it are declared all right.

The richest member of the Connecticut Senate is an Irishman, whose property is valued at $2,500,000, and whose daily income is $1000. He made his money from an oil farm in this state, which he purchased for $2500.

A son of Senator Fessenden has been made Register in Bankruptcy at Portland, Maine, by Chief Justice Chase. The Fessenden family ever turn up in luck.

J. B. Weller, Jr., son of the Hon. Jno. B. Weller, of California, has been appointed by the President a Cadet at West Point.

A prize fight in Illinois recently lasted one hour and four minutes, only three rounds being fought.
