Ir's Coming .- The 4th of July that "used to was" will be around in about three weeks. We know not whether our people have adopted Beast Butler's theory ("played out") in reference to the day, or whether they have became so careless as to forget the time; we therefore call attention to the subject in order to resuscitate the thoughts and fires of '76. Why allow our national holliday to fall into disrepute? The mind can never be better employed for one day in the year than by reflecting over and treasuring april up the glorious work wrought by our grandfathers.

HOW TO SAVE MONEY.

THE times are hard; you'd like to know How you may save your dollars; The way to do it I will show, If you will read what follows. A man who fixed not far from boze,

Who worked hard at his trade, But had a household to support That squandered all he made, I met him ones. Says he, "My friend, I look throad bear and rough; I've tried to get myself a sult, But can't save up enough."

Says I, my friend, how much have you? I'll tell you where to go
To get a suit that's sound and cheap:
To REIZENSTEIN & Co.

He took what little he had saved, And went to Reizenstein & Brothers', And there he got a handsome suit, For half he paid to others.

Now he is bome, he looks to well, And their effect is such. That when they take their daily usual, They don't eat half as much. And now he finds on Saturday night, With all their wants supplied, That he has mounty left to spend, And rome to lay uside.
