

GEORGE B. GOODLANDER, Editor.

CLEARFIELD, PA.

Thursday Morning, July 25, 1867.

Democratic State Ticket.

JUDGE OF THE SUPREME COURT, HON. GEORGE SHAWWOOD, OF PHILADELPHIA.

Democratic District Ticket.

ASSEMBLY, THOS. J. McCULLOUGH, OF CLEARFIELD COUNTY.

Democratic County Ticket.

SHERIFF, CYRENIUS HOWE, OF CLEARFIELD TOWNSHIP.

TREASURER, WILLIAM K. WHIGLEY, OF BETHLEHEM TOWNSHIP.

DISTRICT ATTORNEY, WILLIAM M. McCULLOUGH, OF CLEARFIELD TOWNSHIP.

COMMISSIONER, OTHELLO SNEAD, OF BETHLEHEM TOWNSHIP.

JURY COMMISSIONER, RICHARD S. ELLIS, OF BETHLEHEM TOWNSHIP.

AUDITOR, CLARK BROWN, OF LAWRENCE TOWNSHIP.

CONTROR, JAMES A. MOORE, OF CLEARFIELD TOWNSHIP.

The Ramp Congress adjourned on last Saturday, to meet on Thursday, the 21st of November.

The Dictator, General Schofield, on Saturday last, by a military order, released a woman named Kirby from jail at Richmond, Va.

Capt. A. J. Rupp, charged with robbing the State, is still retained in his position as messenger in the office of the Adjutant General.

The RETURN.—We lay before our readers this week a detailed statement, in tabular form, of the result of the Primary Election, held on the 19th instant, showing the vote cast for each candidate in every district except Fox.

The notorious H. S. Campbell, of Waterford, who robbed and plundered the people of this district, in the capacity of a Provost Marshal, during the second John Brown raid, is a candidate for Sheriff in Erie county.

HEAVY WORK.—We observe by the Press that Col. Forney, (a domestic Colonel at that) J. W. F., Jr., Hon. John W. Forney, and John W. Forney, Esq., etc., father and son, now in Europe, are doing some "heavy" blowing on their own account, through that modest journal.

READ THE SPEECH.—We hope every reader will peruse and ponder the speech of Hon. James Brooks. Next week we will produce the President's veto; and then, after reading what Mr. Johnson and Mr. Brooks have to say upon this last political iniquity, we presume every honest man will help to overthrow the enemies of our country.

"Who is Right?"—The Journal last week called us to an account for what we had said about the wooden-nutmeg candidate for the Supreme Court, and foolishly attempts to establish that Mr. Williams is a manufacturer of decisions and opinions for the Supreme Court.

The editor of the Elk Advocate still harps about an "agreement," which he seems to have in his possession, with reference to the Assembly question. We would like to have a copy of it, so that we could learn who the high contracting parties are.

The Democracy of Clearfield are in the habit of polling a few votes on this question, and have a right to know who (if any one has done so) contracted with our northern brethren.

Our National Disorder.

The Americans in past years have boasted much of their liberty and freedom; and one would suppose, from their antagonism to all despotic forms of Government, that they would not calmly submit to or assist in establishing them, or exchange the Constitutional form delivered to us by the Fathers for them.

If an individual were informed by his physician that he had the itch on his hand, or was afflicted with some other loathsome disease, he would soon manifest alarm, and seek for and apply a remedy, in order to cure it, and prevent it from spreading over other portions of his body.

Politically, the people of the United States are just now afflicted with a more foul and fatal disorder than the itch. Thad. Stevens & Co. have abrogated the Constitution in ten States, and exchanged a Republic for a Despotism. And yet they are calm.

The cause of their adoption is very plainly stated in the preamble, and needs but little explanation at our hands. The charge was made in the Convention that in some of the districts a number of Republicans had voted at our Primary Election, but no evidence to that effect was or could be produced in time for the action of the Convention.

The Black Republican newspapers and stamperers seem to have a great many strings to their bow. The following extracts will exhibit the velocity with which they call things: "General M. Jeff. Thompson, a distinguished officer of the Confederate army in Missouri, and previously to the rebellion a prominent lawyer in that State, lately announced his adhesion to the Longstreet party, and advised an acceptance of the reconstruction act."

"It will be noticed that the above 'distinguished Confederate officer' and 'prominent lawyer,' was in 1863 a 'notorious rebel bushwhacker and murderer.' What a wonderful reformation has set in! If the Devil ever betrayed more hypocrisy and knavery than is daily manifested by the Ramp leaders, writers have failed to place it upon record.

"A 'LOYAL' BREAK.—A Constitutional Convention has been in session in New York, for over two months—two thirds of whose members are of the loyal persuasion—but until last week they had perfected but one clause of a new Constitution, and it is in the following words: 'That persons of African descent shall be entitled to all the rights and privileges that are now enjoyed by persons of European descent.'"

The Washington Ramp, before adjourning, passed an act striking the word "white" out of the City charter, and making negroes eligible to serve as jurors and hold office. This is the feat to which white people are invited at the National Capital.

The Disunion press throughout the country denominated President Johnson's vetoes as "ephemeral affairs." This is a joke, because he is a "government" of their own making.

THE EDITOR OF THE ELK ADVOCATE still harps about an "agreement," which he seems to have in his possession, with reference to the Assembly question. We would like to have a copy of it, so that we could learn who the high contracting parties are.

Rules and Regulations.

We this week republish the preamble and resolutions adopted by the Democratic Return Judges at the late County Convention, in order that all may read and fully understand them.

Resolved, That hereafter it shall be the duty of every Vigilance Committee transmitting their returns in the manner indicated, to deposit some active and known Democrat to enter the County Convention and act for them and their district; and that a list of the names of the voters must in every case accompany the return.

Resolved, That hereafter, should any district fail to be represented as above indicated, or neglect to return a list of the names of the voters, it shall be referred to the Convention to establish and refuse to receive and count the votes of said district as affecting.

The cause of their adoption is very plainly stated in the preamble, and needs but little explanation at our hands. The charge was made in the Convention that in some of the districts a number of Republicans had voted at our Primary Election, but no evidence to that effect was or could be produced in time for the action of the Convention.

Democratic Primary Election, held July 13, 1867--Official Vote.

Table with columns: ASSEMBLY, SHERIFF, TREASURER, COMMISSIONER, DISTRICT, and various districts like Baccaria, Bell, Bloom, etc. with corresponding vote counts.

John A. Logan.

The Valley Spirit says: "Next to Ben. Butler, the meaneast specimen of a renegade that we know of in the United States is John A. Logan, of Illinois. Logan, like Butler, is a politician for pay."

A New Tonic.

The Black Republican newspapers and stamperers seem to have a great many strings to their bow. The following extracts will exhibit the velocity with which they call things: "General M. Jeff. Thompson, a distinguished officer of the Confederate army in Missouri, and previously to the rebellion a prominent lawyer in that State, lately announced his adhesion to the Longstreet party, and advised an acceptance of the reconstruction act."

ARMED TO THE TEETH.

Bishop Tuttle, the newly elected missionary Bishop of Colorado, who started lately for the field of his future labors, has been heard from. The person sending the information announces that the entire party, Bishop and all, were armed, owing to the fears of an attack by the Indians.
