

Mr. J. M. Nichols brings his coal to the notice of consumers in this issue.

Mr. James L. Leavy publishes a note in another column, that may be of interest to some of our citizens.

Those interested in the borough ordinance relative to swine, had better read the "hog law" in our advertising columns.

THE HARVESTS.—We could fill columns from our Western Exchanges telling of the abundant harvests in almost every direction.

To BUILDERS.—It will be noticed elsewhere, that the School Directors of Goshen District invite proposals for building a School House and repairing another.

A Yankee trick.—Selling a poor printer three gallons of "huckleberries" out of a two gallon bucket. The chap had better change his base or he will be gobbled up by the printer's devil, or 'trotter one.

Read the "Horrors of European Dungeons" on our first page, and then reflect that Black Republicanism is inviting us to a similar feast not far in the future. Scores of "free Americans" have already encountered similar torture under loyal edicts.

CAMP MEETING.—We are requested to state that the Methodist denomination will hold a camp meeting near the village of New Washington, commencing on Thursday, the 22d day of August. All friends and well disposed persons are cordially invited to attend.

Mrs. MILLER.—We learn that the Supreme Court has denied Mrs. Miller a new trial, desiring the law to take its course. The woman is getting tired of her prison life, and demands that something be done. She says she has no way to remain "penned up this way."

Our readers will find on our first page this week the "Amendatory Reconstruction Bill" now in force in the Southern portion of this Republic. It reads more like an Austrian edict than a Constitutional requirement, enacted by the Representatives of freedom. It has the car-marks of a half grown despotism.

THE FAIR.—We understand that the officers of the Agricultural Society have agreed to hold a Fair, on the old grounds, the first week in October, and have gone to work in earnest to get up an exhibition worthy of the farming interest of the county. Now, let the farmers and mechanics join the officers, and do something creditable to themselves and the county. Quit growing and go to work.

Some of our friends have lately overwhelmed us with poetry, and even went so far as to promise us pay if we would insert some of their ethereal effusions. It is impossible to comply with all their requests. If we would open the fence for all the poets who wish to enter the field, it would take the major part of our time, and the devil's, too, to revise it so that it would be fit to appear in print—and then we would catch "hall Columbia" if we happened to put in a wrong word.

We have also on hand a number of valuable communications, but the names of the writers fail to accompany them. The authors should know that this omission is fatal.

STURM.—President Johnson is likely to share the fate of one of the old Roman Kings, who was deposed by his own dogs. He attempted, last week, to put that Jacobin bull-dog, Stanton, who has become very snappish—out of his house; but, as the Scotchman would say, "he na went," and the "government" had to suffer a defeat. This, we suppose, is Bull Run No. 1. Had the President, two years ago, taken his official club and hit this pup over the head, he would now be out of danger; but as the dog-days are on, it is hard to predict what will come to pass. We of course hope the "government" will win.

BURGLARY.—On the night of the 6th inst. the house of Geo. Ed. Weis, in the borough of St. Mary's, was entered by some person or persons, and a gold watch and some jewelry belonging to Mrs. Weis, and the pocket book of Mr. Weis, was stolen. The thieves entered the room where Mr. & Mrs. Weis were sleeping, took Mr. Weis' pants and vest out on the side wall, rifled the pockets and left the pocket book and papers which were in it but minus of any money. The loss is about $200. The same night the house of B. Weidenboer of the same place was also entered by some person, but nothing stolen. The thieves were probably frightened off before they could accomplish their designs.—Ad. Advocate.

There is a rumor from the South, (we do not vouch for its truth) that Gen. Sheridan contemplates the removal of President Johnson, on the ground that he is "an impediment" to reconstruction! Phil. is on the rampage, and having removed two Governors, he may next try the successor of the "late lamented."

The Gem is sufficed, the diamond is silvered; but even in its dust you may see the magnificence of its material.

A young girl was drowned in the Potomac a few days ago, and the coroner of Alexandria—a Radical—summoned six white men and six negroes as a jury of inquest. The brothers of the girl protested against the negro jury, but no notice was taken of their protest. One white man who was summoned refused to sit with negroes, and a "mean white substitute was procured."

Ex Gov. Perry, of South Carolina, advises opposition to "reconstruction" under the five-monarchy bills. He is right. The bogus governments and constitutions which may be set up under the Rump plan will be swept away like chaff, after a brief existence. Neither Poland nor Jamaica will be permitted to exist within this Union. The Radical leaders are only twisting words to hang themselves.

"Shall not treason be made odious?" asks a black Republican editor. Yes, we say. Let the traitors who swore to be loyal to the Constitution that constitutes our government, and then perjured their black souls by violating its most sacred provisions, be evermore the marks for scorn's un-mov'ing finger.

A singular question of veracity has arisen between President Johnson and Joe Holt. Mr. Johnson says the recommendation of mercy to Mrs. Surratt, given by the Lynch Court which tried her, never was presented to him. Holt says it was. Here is a case of "flat burglary." Question—Who's the burglar?

President Johnson and Stanton have finally crossed swords. Andy wants him to resign but Stanton won't. What a deplorable condition for a President of the United States, when he can't discharge one of his own clerks!
