I would not live in this world withont a Providence, nor would I leave it without a Saviour. A person may believe as he pleases Orders solicited about things; but things will not, therefore, be as he pleases. If you desire the common people to treat you as a gentleman, you should conduct yourself as a gentleman should to them.

first weed pulled up in the garden, the first seed set in the ground, the first dollar put in the savings bank, and the first mile traveled on a journey, are all important things. How many a poor outcast is now creeping and crawling his way through the world, who might have held up his head and prospered, if, instead of putting off his resolutions of amendment, he had only made a beginning!

Suffering .- There is a great want about Christians who have not suffered. Some flowers must be broken before they emit any fragrance. All the wounds of Christ sent out sweetness; all the sorrows of Christians do the same. Commend me to a bruised mother-a broken reed-one like the Son of Man. To me there is some thing sacred and sweet in all suffering; it is so much akin to the Man of Sorrow.

Go To CHRIST .- Jesus Christ is always near you. Go to him as your Master for grace to study, to love, and to follow his instructions. Go to bim as your Lord, that you may love and serve him faithfully, and fulfill Tools and Materials used by Carpenters, Black-sall his commands. Go to him as your smiths, Carriage and Wayne Makers, Ac with Pattern, that you may follow his ex- large stock of ample, and imitate his virtues. Go to him as your Saviour, that he may IRON, NAILS, STEEL, SPIKES, cleanse your heart from sin and make you pure in his blood. Go to him as your King, that he may give laws to your soul, and that you may obey his laws, and never robel against his au thority. Go to him as your Shepherd, for you are one of the lost sheep he came to seek, that you may be kept from straying from his blessed fold.

LOVE ANXIOUS TO PLEASE. They that love a friend will inquire of his servants, What doth your Master like best, and what doth he desire to with kindness, and not have him to it; and they are marvelous careful of whatsoever may displease TURPENTINE, him. A soul truly humbled is not content unless God may have his will, and therefore comes to the faithful ministers of God, and saith, How may I please God better, and how may come to entertain the notions of his Spirit better? Show me what duties An excellent assertment of Fine Cutlary, commust be done and what sins must be avoided. You know Christ's will, and KNIVES, what will please him; I beseech you, advise me, that I may hear, and pray, and walk, and approve my heart so to him that nothing may displease

A man that does wickedness easily, is not far from damnation, and if it is dishonesty, if it is any of the forms of pride or selfishness, if it is any one of the malign passions, and it is unfold-ing itself almost without your notice or your consciousness, and some other discourse as this brings the fact to your mind, and leads you to ask yourself whether there is not cause for apprehension in the case with which you are doing wrong, do not let the monitor go unheeded. It is time for you, young man, it is time for you, young maiden, to be alarmed if you are approaching that condition of which I have been speaking. It is a serious thing for a man to come to a state in which he does wickedness and does not know that it is wicked. It is nocessary that the wheels that roll so easily in wickedness should be blocked. And if any have thought, because they have come to a state in which they suffer less restraint; if any have thought, because they are walking now with great joy and pleasure in ways that once they would have been shocked to believe they ever could enter; if any have thought, because these ways are smooth and flowery, that they were should be the should that they were safe, and that they had no occasion for alarm about themselves, let them be warned that these ways in which they are now walking so easily and with so little concern. are the very ways which are described in the word of God as ways which seem right to men, but the ends of which are death. The beginnings of these ways are flowery; overhanging them are trees whose every bough is pendulous with rich clusters; all is sweet in promise around about the ways of destruction, but they are de-lusive. And as men, like birds that go with apprehension, but with growing ease and trust, toward a snare, enter these ways, and progress in them, and find themselves growing less and less apprehensive of danger, and find the path smoother, and their steps accelerated and easier, let them be sure that they are nearer and nearer to that last state from which there is Dumas Pile Salve seconding to directions and hard to you, it is a sign that you are no recovery. When wickedness is hard to you, it is a sign that you are not practiced in it. When wickedness is easy to you, it is a sign that you are fatally educated in it.

HOW TO SAVE MONEY.

How you may save your dollars; The way to do it I will show, If you will read what follows.

A man who lived not far from here, Who worked hard at his trade, But had a household to support That squandered all he made. I met him ence. Seys he, "My friend, I look thread bear and rough; I've tried to get myself a suit, But can't save up enough."

Says I, my friend, how much have you? I'll tell you where to go To get a suit that's sound and cheap: To EXIZENSTEIN & Co.

He took what little he had saved, And went to Reisenstein & Brushers', And there he got a handsome suit, For half he paid to others.

For half he paid to others.

New he is home, he looks so well,
And their effect is such;
That when they take their daily meal,
They don't eat half as much.

And now he finds on Saturday night,
With all their wants supplied.

That he has money left to spend,
And some to lay aside.

His good success, with cheerful smile, He gladly tells to all. If you'd save money, go and buy

THIS new Compound, prepared by a practical Chemist, having a full knowledge of all the medical virtues of each ingredient that euter medical virtues of each ingredient that suters into its composition, is warranted to exceed any thing of the kind ever yet affered to the Public as an external application for the diseases for which it is recommended. We are astisfied that it will work its own toad into the configure of all who are it, and those who fry it once will never be without it, and therefore we rely so experience as the best test of its asculances. It is prenounced by Parriers, and all who have tried it, to be the best application ever used. This Embrocation has been put up for over sight years, and it is only through the increasing demand and urgest request of my friends and the Public that I send it forth as the grand remedia agent for the various diseases to which that notice and useful animed, the horse, is subject.

Many remedies have been offered to the Public studed different forms, some of these are injections, others at best of fittle use, and many whelly improper to answer the purposes for which the jurious, others at best of little use, and many shally improper to answer the purposes for which they are recommended.

A judicious and really useful composition, free from those objections, has therefore long been desired by many gentlemen, who have valuable horses, and are unwilling to trust them to the care of designing and pretended Farriers. Their wishes are at length fully gratified, by [Dr. Besic) being prevailed upon to allow this valuable Embronation (which has proved as effections in the various diseases) to be prepared achieunght out to the public.
