The official count of the vote in Kentucky makes the Democratic majority for Governor 56,286.

Our genial friend, Col. L. W. Hall, has been defeated for the nomination for State Senator, by Mr. Robinson, of Junata county, after a hard contest.

Rev. Mark P. Judd, a loyal member of the Massachusetts Legislature, committed suicide, by hanging himself to the limb of a tree, near his home, on the 25th ult. Cause, lack of brains and an honest heart.

The celebrated white negro, John Hickman, of Chester county, has been nominated by the Democrats of that county for the Legislature. Black Fred Douglass is a gentleman compared to this debauched creature.

A loyal Washington correspondent says that the citizens of that city are going to give Gen. Sickles a grand reception on his return from South Carolina. This tool of despotism should have had a rope reception in that city a few years ago.

An exchange says Lord Sheridan is to have a Republican reception in St. Louis. Such confounding of names is enough to bewilder a blackwood man. Lords and tools of despotism are becoming as plentiful in this country as in Europe, but much greater fools.

Abby Folsom, a celebrated female Abolitionist, died a few days ago, at Boston. Since her demise, the Anti-Slavery Standard confesses that she had been crazy for twenty years, and was a nuisance at all her meetings. If the Standard would tell the truth about its peculiar friends, it would pronounce them all crazy alike.

"Occasional" Forney, and a squad of his camp followers, landed at New York on the 4th instant. They have been over to Europe looking out places, should they be likely to be rendered uncomfortable here in the future. There is no old unoccupied garret in London, known as the former abode of Benedict Arnold, and where he spent the price of his treason, that the Dead Duck has no doubt secured for a retreat in his old days, should emigration be deemed necessary.

THE THUNDERER.—The "Old Com-mo-ther," in his late letter to his friend Schock, at Columbia, has let the cat fall out of the bag. He has caused a terrible shaking among the dry bones in the loyal wigwag. As Thad. Stevens is the acknowledged brains of the Black Republican party, we are bound to accept for truth the interpretation he puts upon the acts of his colleagues. In the letter referred to, he distinctly declares that he and his party are acting outside of the Constitution in their whole reconstruction scheme. This is a remarkable confession for men to make who have taken an oath to support that instrument.

Although we are not one of those who helped to place Andrew Johnson in his present position, we will nevertheless be compelled to lend him our feeble efforts in "protecting the Capital," should he continue to swing around the Constitutional circle, and thereby squelch "the traitors at the other end of the line." Let him go on in the good work now commenced, and before six months roll by "the stables at Washington will be cleaned out, and not a traitor left to tell the story." We will support the "Government" when the "Government" does that which is in harmony with the Constitution, the laws, and the genius of our institutions.

California O. K.
The late election in the Golden State has resulted most gloriously for the Democracy and the Union. The "Cops" have elected their Governor, two of the three members of Congress, and a majority of the Legislature—thereby securing the election of U. S. Senator. What makes this victory the more significant, is the fact that for the past three years the Disunionists had carried the State by a majority of about 20,000, almost a total sumersault.

The Radical defeat is causing some rich developments. Their party has split in two, and if the half is true that they charge upon each other, the leaders of both factions should be compelled to spend the remainder of their days in the penitentiary. They have operated on the Pacific end of the line just as they have done here. The one half of the party has been for seven years employed in manufacturing bonds and stamps and assessing taxes, while the other half has been engaged in gathering and collecting them; and in making out their balance sheet, a large deficit develops itself to the public. Whereupon each in turn charges the other with robbing and plundering the Government and people. Hence the people have concluded to take matters in their own hands, and have delivered the affairs of State over again into the hands of the "Union-Savers." They have paid dearly for their Radical whist.

Amnesty Proclaimed.
We direct special attention to the President's amnesty proclamation in this issue. The National Intelligencer, the Administration organ, in alluding to the force and effect of this document, says: "During the deliberations of the Cabinet, it is understood that it became evident that in the opinion of every member present the 'legal effect of the contemplated amnesty proclamation would be to re-leave all persons included within its terms from all disabilities, as well as all penalties incurred by their complicity in the late rebellion, and of course, so far as the action of the General Government is concerned, from all disability as to the right of suffrage.'"

If this interpretation does not kill Thad. Stevens, it will squelch his treasonable ranting—black reconstruction. The President's method of dealing with "reconstruction," and the California election, will "make Rome howl!"

A SPECIMEN BRICK.—The Radicals are greatly in love with Ben Wade, one of the Ohio Senators, and intend to impeach and remove President Johnson for the purpose of getting Ben in his place. The "grand moral idea" candidate made a speech at Portsmouth, in that State, last week, in which he spoke thus:

Compare negro-voting Tennessee with rebel-carrying Kentucky. In the latter they have elected a full ticket of traitors to Congress, and they come up and demand seats there, but not one devil of them will ever get a seat there. (Cheers, and repeated cries of "Good.") You may say it is despotic, but that sort of despotism is it to exclude from the Government men who openly tried to destroy it? It is quite enough if we spare their devilish necks, (cheers) said my right hand shall forget its meaning before I vote for their reelection. You must recognize them for the safety of your government. Let rebel Kentucky try it over again."

This man is to be President of the United States, in case Johnson is impeached. What a man for such an office!

REMY AUTHORITY.—The conduct of the Rump Congress, in expelling Democrats from that body in order to make a sure two-third vote against the President, is already cited and discussed in the British Parliament. Mr. Lowe, in a recent discussion in the English House of Commons, said:

"My honorable friend, the member for Reading, said that a majority in America had never been known to abuse its power. I will take my stance, which is just as good as a thousand. Certain things were necessary for the Republican party, which could not be carried without a majority of two-thirds of Congress. Everybody knows that members who were innocent even were expelled from Congress in order to obtain the necessary Republican majority."

It will be observed by the tenor of this speech that the conduct of the majority in the American Rump is even alarming English aristocrats, who are warning their people against the examples set on this side of the ditch.

The Springfield Republican has a correspondent who comes at length to the defence of Rev. S. M. Merrill, the "drowned" clergyman, pleads his eighteen years of "faithful service"—during a portion of which he was intrigu-ing with the young female lambs of his flock; his pressure of debt and poverty—consequent upon inability to live on two thousand dollars a year; his freedom from anything save "in-discretion"—which consisted in holding illicit correspondence and traveling incognito with women; besides, as he confesses, keeping bad company. The correspondent protests that the newspapers should not "crush" the poor unfortunate. We have no disposition to do so. But it seems to us that when a man in Merrill's position perpetrates the crimes of which he has been guilty, justice, the interests of society, and a regard for religion, demand that he should be made an example. There are cases, and this is one, in which marked sympathy for the individual is an offense against community.—Albany Journal.

Rev. Henry Wendt, who was convicted of raping thirteen young girls, inmates of the Lutheran Orphan Home in Germantown, has been sentenced by Judge Allison to seventeen years imprisonment at hard labor in the Eastern Penitentiary.

A Hard Nut to Crack.
The people in the Southern States, under the loyal programme, are compelled to take an oath to support the Constitution of the United States, and the reconstruction acts of the Rump Congress, before they are considered reconstructed by their oppressors. This is done enough to physic a cannibal. The man who takes an oath to support Thad. Stevens' reconstruction acts, is sure to violate the Constitution; because they are diametrically opposed to each other, as holiness and sin. Whosoever swears to support the Constitution, (if he lives up to his oath,) is compelled to oppose Thad. Stevens & Co. The request of these men is peculiarly Paritan—"you'll be damned if you do, and you'll be damned if you don't." These Radical nuts are hard to crack; they cannot crack them themselves, except upon the witch-drowning, Quaker-hanging, Roger-Williams-banishing principle. As these crimes were rendered godly once, through Puritan ingenuity, that of perjury may be added to the same catalogue. The Holt-Over-Ashley case squints that way, and passes as current to day as Quaker hanging did two hundred years ago. Loyalty is adapted to as many changes and localities as the moon, and its author, Stevens, possesses more hate and envy for his neighbor and free institutions, than the father of lies himself.

The Last Temperance Dodge.
Our readers are no doubt aware that Gov. Geary runs the Temperance wing of the Loyal Leaguers, and neither touches, tastes or handles the "unclean thing."

Last week three hotel keepers were tried and convicted at Bellefonte for selling liquor without license, to minors, and persons of intemperate habits. His honor, Judge Linn, in accordance with the law, proceeded to pass sentence upon the parties—fine and imprisonment. Having disposed of two cases, he was proceeding to pass sentence upon the third, when the counsel for the party (also a great temperance advocate) jumped up and for the information of all read a pardon from the temperance Governor, pardoning a man, not for selling liquor without license, but for violating the law and cheating the Commonwealth out of her fees. The pardon also added over one hundred dollars of cost upon the county. This is another illustration of "grand moral ideas." We presume the Court manifested as much surprise when the pardon was produced as it did on a certain occasion in this county, when the Governor pardoned a gang of rioters—remarked that "a pardon wipes all out." To which the counsel for the Commonwealth replied: "and the Court is well high wiped out too."

IN CLOVER.—Some of our eastern cotemporaries seem to live fat. We have noticed on several occasions that one of them has had such a rash of subscribers, after the outside was worked off, that the hands were obliged to cut the sheets in two for the large list of exchanges, in order to get papers enough for subscribers. Brother, you should get your outside stereotyped, or have your new subscribers wait until the next week! We don't charge for this advice.

The question, "who killed Cook Robin?" was settled many years ago; but who killed Radical reconstruction, we will allow the "Government" to answer.

SUCCESSFUL TREATMENT OF CHOLERA.—A correspondent of the Cincinnati Commercial, writing from Hernando, Miss., says that the cholera has gone, and adds: "There is much talk here about the unvarying success with which one Dr. Alfred Brooks treats cholera patients by injecting sulphuric acid into their veins. He has never lost a case. Of thirty on a single plantation, he 'resurrected,' to use the language of my informant, every devil of them. If this is so, our Northern physicians may take the hint with advantage to themselves and their patients."

Patriots, look at this fact: Tennessee seceded from the Union and now gives a Radical majority of 30,000. Kentucky remained true to the Union, sent 85,000 men into the Federal armies, and now polls 60,000 Democratic majority! What more is necessary to prove that Radicalism is really treason, and that the men now fighting President Johnson and Grant are traitors at the other end of the line? Ponder this fact.

The Boston Traveller of Monday says: "Hon. Darwin A. Finney, of Meadville, Pa., a member of Congress from the Twentieth Congressional District of Pennsylvania, is lying dangerously ill at the residence of Ezra March, in Shelburn, Vermont, whom he has been visiting for several weeks. But faint hopes are entertained of his recovery."

The largest ministerial salaries in New York and Brooklyn are those received by Chapin and Beecher. The former has $19,000 and the latter $12,500. Each is the owner of a handsome residence, presented by devoted constituents. Chapin is on Thirty-sixth street, and Beecher's on Columbia street. Both pastors turn honest outside pennies.

Peruvian ladies are noted for their exquisitely small feet, and get them by having the little toe amputated in infancy. A Peruvian surgeon skilled in the business is going to San Francisco to open an office.

Amnesty Proclamation by the President.
WASHINGTON, Sept. 8, 1867.
The following pardon proclamation, although prepared yesterday, was not issued until this afternoon:

A PROCLAMATION.
WHEREAS, In the month of July, Anno Domini 1861, the two Houses of Congress, with extraordinary unanimity, solemnly declared that the war then existing was not waged on the part of the Government in any spirit of oppression, nor for any purpose of conquest or subjugation, nor with a view to overthrow or interfering with the rights or established institutions of the States, but to defend and maintain the supremacy of the Constitution, and to preserve the Union with all the dignity, equality and rights of the several States impaired, and that as soon as these objects should be accomplished the war ought to cease;

And, whereas, The President of the United States, on the 8th day of December, A. D. 1863, and on the 29th day of March A. D. 1864, did, with objects of suppressing the then existing rebellion, of inducing all persons to return to their loyalty, and of restoring the authority of the United States, issue proclamations offering amnesty and pardon to all persons who had directly or indirectly participated in the then existing rebellion, except as in those proclamations was specified and reserved;

And, whereas, The President of the United States did, on the 29th day of May, A. D. 1865, issue a further proclamation with the same objects before mentioned, and to the end that the authority of the Government of the United States might be restored, and that peace, order and freedom might be established, and the President did, by the said last proclamation, proclaim and declare that he thereby granted to all persons who had directly or indirectly participated in the then existing rebellion, except as therein excepted, amnesty and pardon, with the restoration of all rights of property except as to slaves, and except in certain cases where legal proceedings had been instituted, but upon condition that such persons should take and subscribe an oath therein prescribed, which oath should be registered for permanent preservation.

And, whereas, In and by said last mentioned proclamation of the 29th day of May, A. D. 1865, fourteen extensive classes of persons therein specially described, were altogether excepted and excluded from the benefits thereof;

And, whereas, The President of the United States did, on the 2d day of April, A. D. 1866, issue a proclamation declaring that the insurrection was at an end and was thenceforth to be so regarded;

And, whereas, There now exists no organized armed resistance of misguided citizens or others to the authority of the United States in the States of Georgia, South Carolina, Virginia, North Carolina, Tennessee, Alabama, Louisiana, Arkansas, Mississippi, Florida and Texas, and the laws can be sustained and enforced therein by the proper civil authority, State or Federal, and the people of said States are well and loyally disposed, and have conformed, and if permitted to do so, will conform in their legislation to the condition of affairs growing out of the amendment to the Constitution of the United States prohibiting slavery within the limits and jurisdiction of the United States;

And, whereas, There no longer exists any reasonable ground to apprehend within the States which were involved in the late rebellion a renewal thereof, or any unlawful resistance by the people of said States to the Constitution and laws of the United States;

And, whereas, As large standing armies, military occupation, martial law, military tribunals, and the suspension of the privilege of the writ of habeas corpus, and the right of trial by jury, are in time of peace dangerous to public liberty, incompatible with the individual rights of the citizen, contrary to the genius and spirit of our free institutions, and exhaustive of the national resources, and ought not, therefore, to be sanctioned or allowed except in cases of actual necessity for repelling invasion or suppressing insurrection or rebellion;

And, whereas, A retaliatory or vindictive policy, attended by unnecessary disqualifications, pains, penalties, confiscations and disfranchisement, now as always could only tend to hinder reconciliation among the people and National restoration, while it most seriously embarrass, obstruct and depress the popular energies and National industry and enterprise;

And, whereas, For these reasons it is now deemed essential to the public welfare and to the more perfect restoration of Constitutional law and order that the said last mentioned proclamation, so as aforesaid issued on the 29th day of May, A. D. 1865, should be modified, and that the full and beneficent pardon conceded thereby should be opened and further extended to a large number of persons who by its aforesaid exceptions have been hitherto excluded from executive clemency;

Now, therefore, be it known that I, Andrew Johnson, President of the United States, do hereby proclaim and declare that the full pardon described in the said proclamation of the 29th day of May, A. D. 1865, shall henceforth be opened and extended to all persons who, directly or indirectly, participated in the late rebellion, with the restoration of all privileges, immunities and rights of property, except as to property with regard to slaves, and except in cases of legal proceedings under the laws of the United States, but upon this condition, nevertheless, that each person who shall seek to avail himself of this proclamation shall take and subscribe to the following oath, and shall cause the same to be registered for permanent preservation, in the same manner and with the same effect with the oath prescribed in the said proclamation of the 29th day of May, 1865, namely:

"I do solemnly swear (or affirm) in the presence of Almighty God, that I will henceforth faithfully support, protect and defend the Constitution of the United States and the Union of the States thereunder, and that I will in like manner abide by and faithfully support all laws and proclamations which have been made during the late rebellion with reference to the emancipation of slaves, so help me God."

The following persons and no others are excluded from the benefits of this proclamation, and of the said proclamation of the 29th day of May, A. D. 1865, namely:

First, The chief or pretended chief executive officers, including the President, Vice President and all heads of departments of the pretended Confederate or rebel government, and all who were agents thereof in foreign States and countries, and all who had or pretended to hold in the service of the said pretended Confederate Government a military rank or title above the grade of brigadier general, and naval rank or title above that of captain, and all who were or pretended to be Governors of States while maintaining, abetting or submitting to and acquiescing in the rebellion.

Second, All persons who, in any way, treated otherwise than as lawful prisoners of war, persons who, in any capacity, were employed or engaged in the military or naval service of the United States.

Third, All persons who, at the time they may seek to obtain the benefits of this proclamation, are actually in civil, military or naval confinement or custody, or legally held to bail, either before or after conviction, and all persons who were engaged directly or indirectly in the assassination of the late President of the United States, or in any plot or conspiracy in any manner therewith connected.

In testimony whereof, I have signed these presents with my hand, and have caused the seal of the United States to be thereunto affixed. Done at the city of Washington, this 7th day of September, one thousand eight hundred and sixty-seven.

ANDREW JOHNSON.
By the President:
WILLIAM H. SEWARD,
Secretary of State.

Radicals Harmed.
The Radicals charge the President with meditating a coup d'etat between this and the 20th of November, with a view of preventing the meeting of Congress. Now, although in many respects it might be very desirable to prevent the meeting of such a mischief Congress as the present, yet the President prefers that it should kill itself, as it is likely to do, by its own quarrels in regard to the Presidential nomination. There are in that Congress Wade men, Chase men, Fessenden men, and Grant men—four factions, and four candidates. Perhaps, also, there are a few Sheridan men. But with four prominent candidates, each with an army of outside seconds and bottle-holders, the fight will lack nothing of intensity and bitterness. In the mean time, let the Conservatives look on coolly and dispassionately. With general amnesty in the South, and a good, sound believer in the Constitution at the head of the ticket, and the usual effort at the polls, there cannot be much doubt of their success in November, 1868. Reports from every section of the Union represent the people as heartily sick of the present profligate state of affairs. They demand a reduction of taxes, a return to specie payments, a reform in the expenses of the United States Government—and will have them, or will know the reason why. It is absurd, it is monstrous, that the Government expenditure now should be five or six times greater than it was in 1860. There is no reason for it, there can be no reason for it, except the Radical necessity for supporting negroes and other useless persons in idleness, to sustain their waning power at the coming elections.

Radical Inconsistency.
The radicals are alarmed that any one should propose to pay the interest upon renewed or existing Federal bonds in paper. Republicans must not forget, that the Republican Legislature of New York directed the State Comptroller to pay the interest on the bonded debt of that State in greenbacks, although the bonds called for gold. The Pennsylvania Legislature, also, on the recommendation of Gov. Curtin, repealed the law requiring the bonds of that State to be paid in gold. Every Republican member voted to pay in greenbacks. And the reason given by the Legislature of both States was, that legal tender notes was the only money known to the country with which debts could be discharged. Gentlemen, please to be a little more consistent. State faith to pay ought to be as sacred as the Federal Government. Before 1861, millions were borrowed upon a pledge of payment back in specie. Individuals and States trampled their obligations under feet and the Courts—to their everlasting disgrace, sustained the repudiation.

A PLEASANT CHANGE.—A LUTIN in the tide of our Indian affairs has taken place, and we may congratulate the country upon this. It seems that of late we kill more Indians than they kill of us. Two camps of savages have been surprised in the Puebla Mountains, and a band of Cherokees have been defeated near Plum Creek. These victories were gained, however, by friendly Indians on our service, and we now see our way clearly to the extinction of a much apprehended difficulty—the Indian race. Let the friendly savages kill off the unfriendly, then let us get up, in a sort of philanthropic way, a war between the Blacks and the Reds, and we may find things so reduced as to be within bounds. This would decidedly be the most extensive game of Rouge et Noir on record.—Exchange.

The man who desires to see negro suffrage, forced upon our State by an act of Congress, declared constitutional by a Judge of the Supreme Court, should vote for Williams. He is pledged to decide that the white men of Pennsylvania have no right to say whether negroes shall vote in their State or not.

The clergyman in a certain town, as the custom is, having published the bans of matrimony between two persons was followed by the clerks reading the hymn beginning with these words, "Mistaken souls, who dream of heaven."

Proclamation of the President.
A Warning Against Intended Obstruction of the Execution of the Laws.—The Army and Navy Enjoined to Assist and Sustain the Judiciary.
WASHINGTON, September 8.
The following proclamation was issued this afternoon by the President of the United States:

Whereas, By the Constitution of the United States, the Executive power is vested in a President of the United States of America, who is bound by a solemn oath, faithfully to execute the office of President, and to the best of his ability, to preserve, protect and defend the Constitution of the United States, and is, by the same instrument, made Commander-in-Chief of the Army and Navy of the United States, and is required to take care that the laws be faithfully executed; and

Whereas, By the same Constitution, it is provided that the said Constitution and the laws of the United States which shall be made in pursuance thereof, shall be the supreme law of the land, and the Judges in every State shall be bound thereby; and

Whereas, In and by the same Constitution, the judicial power of the United States is vested in one Supreme Court, and in such inferior courts as Congress may, from time to time, ordain and establish, and the aforesaid judicial power is declared to extend to all cases in law and equity arising under the Constitution, the laws of the United States, and the treaties which shall be made under their authority; and

Whereas, All officers, civil and military, are bound by oath that they will support and defend the Constitution against all enemies, foreign and domestic, and will bear true faith and allegiance to the same; and

Whereas, All officers of the Army and Navy of the United States, in accepting their commissions under the laws of Congress and the rules and articles of war, incur an obligation to observe, obey and follow such directions as they shall, from time to time, receive from the President, or General, or other superior officers set over them, according to the rules and discipline of war; and

Whereas, It is provided by law that whenever by reason of unlawful obstructions, combinations or assemblages of persons, or rebellion against the government of the United States, it shall become impracticable, in the judgment of the President of the United States, to enforce, by the ordinary course of judicial proceedings, the laws of the United States, within any State or Territory, the Executive in that case is authorized and required to secure their faithful execution by the employment of the land and naval forces; and

Whereas, Impediments and obstructions, serious in their character, have recently been interposed in the States of North Carolina and South Carolina, hindering and preventing, for a time, a proper enforcement there of the laws of the United States, and of the judgment and decrees of a lawful court thereof, in disregard of the command of the President of the United States; and

Whereas, Reasonable and well-founded apprehensions exist that such attempted there or elsewhere:

Not, therefore, I, Andrew Johnson, President of the United States, do hereby warn all persons against obstructing or interfering, in any manner whatsoever, the faithful execution of the Constitution and the laws, and command all officers of the government, civil and military, to render the submission and obedience to the said laws and to the judgments and decrees of the courts of the United States, and to give all the aid in their power necessary to the prompt enforcement and execution of such laws, decrees, judgments and processes.

And I do hereby enjoin upon the officers of the army and navy to assist and sustain the courts and other civil authorities of the United States in the faithful administration of the laws thereof, and in the judgments, decrees, mandates and processes of the courts of the United States; and I call upon all good and well disposed citizens of the United States to remember that upon the said Constitution and laws, and upon the judgments, decrees, and processes of the courts, made in accordance with the same, depend the protection of the lives, liberty and happiness of the people, and I exhort them everywhere to testify their devotion to their country, their pride in its property and greatness, and their determination to uphold its free institutions, by a hearty co-operation in the efforts of the government to sustain the authority of the law, to maintain the supremacy of the Federal Constitution, and to preserve, unimpaired, the integrity of the national Union.

(Signed) ANDREW JOHNSON.
