THINE ANGER IS TURNED AWAY .-The anger of God is his displeasure against sin. It is not a passion like ours, which agitates and troubles us; but it is the calm, dignified, hely manifestation of his opposition to what is wrong. He must hate evil. He will always be displeased with sin. But he will not always be angry with the sinner; when his heart is broken when his spirit is humbled; when he submits to God's righteousness; when he frankly confesses his fault; when he is willing to part with all sin; when he looks to Jesus, and pleads his sacrifice alone for his acceptance, God is pleased, his anger is turned away. He now smiles, and forgives; invites the prodigal to come near unto him ; sheds abroad his love in the heart, applies the precious promise to the soul sprinkles the blood of atonement on the conscience, and peace and joy are experienced. Then the sinner can say with the prophet, "O Lord, I will praise thee; though thou wast angry with me, thine anger is turned away, and thou comfortest me." Now God uppears as a father; the believer is a reconciled, happy child; whatever happens to him is overrailed for his field county Bank [may4, 64]

Forever gracious is the Lord, Forever faithful to his word; By sweet experience new I prove His morey, his unchanging love.

The lilies which Jesus loves to gather in their early and delicate beauty, do not always grow in the carefully fenced and cultivated parts of his fenced and cuitivated parts of his garden here. Often like the little wood blossom, it is from among the thorns, and out of the tangled thickets of briery and desolate places, that they are taken to be transplanted to his garden above.

Godly members of godless families are hidden in dark cellars or bleak garretts from the eye of man; still Dr. Woods. the eye of the Lord is upon them that fear him, upon them that hope in his mercy to deliver their souls from death, and to keep them alive in famine.

The "incorruptible seed" of his own word, scattered it may be by a Sabbath school teacher, in what seems very uncultured and uncared for soil, springs in God's good time; often in eason of loneliness and pain, the litsimple hymns and sweet Scripture verses, which, with a power never known before, speak peace to the pin-ing heart, and testify of Jesus the ever living—ever loving—ever present Saviour. "And he who is the same yesterday, to day and forever," now, as in the days of his flesh, takes up young children into his arms and blesses them; and it is manifest to all who stand by how tenderly "he gathers the lambs with his arm, and carries them in his bosom," and his very gracious to them at the sound of their

ARCHESHOP PURCELL ON THE RECENT COUNCIL AT ROME.—Archbishop Purcell, of Cincinnati, attended the great Council in House of Cou great Council in Rome a few weeks since, where he occupied the seat of honor at the right hand of the Pope. MEN AND BOYS' CLOTHING, day evening, the 8th inst, he gave a lecture in which he reviewed his experience. We quote a few passages:

"When we saw assembled so many hundreds of bishops—so many hundreds of learned teachers, doctors, generals of orders, worthy of comparing almost with those of the primitive Church, coming from the most distant lands-we said to ourselves that nothing but truth could command or receive such homage. If any other de-nomination—and I speak not unkindly, I speak but for the truth-if any other-the largest denomination of so-called Christians on the earthwere to attempt such a demonstration, ask you if they could so succeed. MOSHANNON LAND & LUMBER CO., Whence would they come, and how many would there be? What history what traditions could they bring along with them, and trace their origin to Jesus Christ ?

As you know, some of the prelates lately assembled in Rome had to come further than the wise men came under the guidance of the star that led to the Saviour in the manger at Bethlehem. Further and further did they Importers and Jobbers of Dry Goods, come than any had ever come before to worship at Rome or Jerusalem. And from the United States there came bishops from sees, and tribes and tongues and peoples never before to CASH BUYERS.

We are now prepared with our usual extensive and well-asserted stock to offer extra inducements to CASH BUYERS. came bishops from sees, and tribes heard of-never before represented in the Council of Nice, or in the general council of the Catholic Church. From all these distant places and from all these distant nations they came with one glorious accord, with one sympaone glorious accord, with one sympathy of belief in the eternal truth that in a workmanlike manner. spei,67 has been preserved by Rome-the mother and mistress of all the churches. Many of these bishops had to travel on camel's backs for eight, nine, ten or twelve days before they could reach the point of shipping to get to Rome.

And when we met there we did no strangers to the Catholic Church. We are not foreigners or aliens. We are of the household of faith; the children of God; fellow citizens of the same Church; and when we came together, we came as members of the same family, children of the same God, professors of the same faith There was then no stranger among us. I met with a venerable oriental bishop by the name of Melchezidee, and we walked together in that grand procession of Rome as if we had known one another all our lives, and we talked together in the language of the made, and all kin Church. We professed the same faith, an abort soiles. and we united in the same coremonies. We were one, as Christ wished all his apostles to be, and all who believed in Him, to the end of time. Here was a grand spectacle of Catholic unity; unity of Government, unity of faith, one heart, and one soul, and one in the Kingdom of God."

external application.

This new Compound, prepared by a practical Chemist, having a full knowledge of all the medical virtues of each ingredient that enter into its composition, is warranted to exceed any thing of the kind ever yet effected to the Pable as an external application for the disease is which it is recommended. We are satisfied the it will work its own read into the confidence of all who use it, and those who try it one will ascer be without it, and therefore we rais a experience as the best test of its unfullness. It is prenounced by Farriers, and all whe have tried Near Philipsburg, Pa. it, to be the best application ever used. The Embrocation has been put up for over east years, and it is only through the increasing the mand and urgent request of my friends and agent for the various diseases to which the mode and under the various diseases to which the mode and under the various diseases to which the mode and unfel arimal, the heres is which the Public that I send it for it as the grand relocate agent for the various diseases to which the noble and useful arimal, the horse, is religible. Many remedies have been offered to the Pathic under different forms, some of these are injectious, others at best of little use, and many contents of the send of the content of the uniter distayent forms, some of these are injerious, others at heat of little use, and many wholly improper to answer the purposes for whice

they are recommended.

A judicines and really useful composition, the
from these objections, has therefore long beer decired by many gentlemen who have releable horses, and are unwilling to truet them to the care of dors, using and premoded Farriers. These wishes are at length fully gratified by [Or.
Beale) being prevailed upon te allow this valuable Embrocation (which has proved so effective to the various diseases) to be proposed and brought out to the public.

The Embrocation was extensively good by the Garrenment fairing the war.
