GEORGE B. GOODLANDER, Editor.

CLEARFIELD, PA. Thursday Morning, Oct. 10, 1867.

Hon. Thomas E. Noel, Democratic member of Congress from Missouri died in St. Louis, on Thursday last, after a long illness.

Elias Howe, jr., the celebrated sewing machine inventor, died at New York on Thursday last. He was posseeacd of a large fortune.

We notice that the Rev. Isaac S. Kallock, the celebrated Boston clergyman, who, a few years ago, was caught in bed with another man's The Habeas Corpus, Free prejudged his case. In fine, that he wife, at one of the fashionable hotels in that city, by the elders of his congregation, is now stumping Kansas for negro and female suffrage. He had better return to Boston and console his wife and five children.

GOVERNMENT SHIRTS .--- If what loyalists now say of the late "Govern ment" is true, it was well supplied with shirts. The editor of the New York Commercial states that Mrs. Lincoln sold twelve of "old Abs's" shirts before he was buried. These precions jewels were no doubt secured as relics by those loyal ladies who so frequently kissed the "Government" while on earth.

A SERIOUS Loss .- The "loyal people" of Alabama have sustained a heavy loss in Radical stock. Three negroes were captured at Mobile, on the 26th ult., and hang by the citizens for raping a white woman. While the mob was hanging the "pet lambs," some fifteen or twenty more were shot and seriously wounded. This will reduce the Radical majority in It is horrible how the "white rebels" treat the "loyal freedmen," isn't it?

THE NEGRO'S JEALOUSY OF CASTE .-In some of the South American Reinternecine war. In St. Domingo, the negroes rebelled against the white session of the government, they rebelled against Jeffards, their Chief blooded African, in his place; and under the constitution of the black man, or any person who has a drop of white blood in his veins, is allowed to vote or hold an office.

HIGH LIFE .- We notice by the New York papers that Mrs. Lincoln has advertised for sale twenty-tour thousand dollars' worth of silks, laces and jewelry, for the purpose of raising some pin money. This step has caused quite a hub-bub among her loyal brokers, some of whom have gone to of Clearfield county, so far as the trouble of ascertaining how much they have been received. They money the "Government" family has indicate a Democratic majority spent. It is boldly stated that the in the county of about 1,350, ily, from shoddyites, contractors a fools, amounted to over four hund thousand dollars, besides one hund and twenty-five thousand dollars salary, and plundering the WI House and paying for dinners out the public Treasury. Yet all is go No wonder we had an expensive "G ernment" during the days of Fat

Abraham. THE "LATE LAMENTED."-The ple are no doubt aware that Prosi Lincoln was the most expensive r that ever accursed any nation. well knew that millions of dollars w squandered upon favorites and in Presidential kitchen, but we did know that big dinners and supp given by Lincoln & Co., were paid of the Treasury. But Mr. Wee celebrated loyalist, declares that dinner at the White House, in I cost the Treasury nine hundred doll He admits, however, that the cl was illegal, and could not be paid v presented, but that afterwards if covered up in the Gardener's claim paid out of the Treasury. The frid of the "late lamented," after rob the Treasury in this manner, sh not have also robbed the Preside Mansion of all the furniture, car and curtains.

The doctrine of the Calhoun school of State rights Demouracy is no longer a living question. But the doc-trine of the Madison and Jackson and Stevenson school of State rights Demooracy is the question of the hour and of the generation. It is the most vital of all the living questions in our politics. State rights Democracy, as a living doctrine, is only another name for Constitutional Unionism.
