The Republican.

GEORGE B. GOODLANDER, Editor.

CLEARFIELD, PA.

Thursday Morning, Oct. 24, 1867.

Result in this County---Again.

Last week we indulged in a little plain talk for the benefit of those voters who saw fit to stay at home on the day of the late election. We shall now take the liberty of being just as plain with the candidates of our party. They either did not know their duty, or were indifferent to its discharge. Had they exhibited but half as much zeal for the interests of the party after the primary election as the did for themselves before, three thousand Democrats would have been brought to the polls with ease. Out of the eight nominees on our ticket, it is doubtful if either of them spent a day from their homes for the benefit of the party. On this point we may be mistaken; but upon any one furnishing us information to the contrary, we shall hasten to give them due credit. We have been informed that some of them went hunting on election day. If they went out to hunt and drive in voters to the polls, that was right, and we admire their strategy; but if they were hunting birds and neglecting the interests of the party and the country, it looks rather shysterish.

While on this point, we will relate a circumstance that occurred before the primary election. An enthusiastic Democrat, in the upper end of the county, solicited us on several occasions to advocate the claims of a particular candidate and assist him in securing his nomination, because, said he, "he is an exhaustic fellow and will help ham the machine through; he'll go into every hole and corner of the county." His candidate succeeded, but we are informed that he was never seen outside of his district after the primary election. We "ran foul" of the Democrat aforesaid a few days ago, and when interrogated on the point aforesaid, he abruptly replied: "D—n such a candidate; instead of helping the party along, the party had to carry him. I'll make it a point hereafter, when a candidate comes to me before the primary election, to make him promise to spend at least half as much time for the party, after he is nominated, as he spent for himself before. I'm not going to help nominate men for office, and then be called upon by you, to get the voters out to the election, while the candidates stay at home." As our friend understands the relation candidates sustain to the party better than we do, we have quoted him at length, and will therefore allow party and candidates to digest his points to the satisfaction of each—and we hope for the benefit of both.

As we have spoken "a bit of our mind" to lazy voters and candidates, and being an advocate of "free speech" in its broadest sense, we request either candidates or voters to inform us wherein we have failed to do our duty towards them, either as editor of the party organ, or as Chairman of the County Committee. Don't be "mealy mouthed" on this point; because, if we are proven half as directest to the interests of the party as we take the liberty of charging upon those who have a common interest with us, we will either vacate our present position very soon, or do better the next time. We hope no one will charge us with egotism, when we state that we are laboring for the success of the Democratic party, and upon this point we seek for information from friend and foe. An essay on the duty of an editor towards his party, or some plain talk on the duties of Chairman of a County Committee, is respectfully solicited, either personally or by letter. We have a heavy campaign before us, and we want all the information on these points we can secure. Bear in mind, however, that we have find the smallest gun in the battery, and if drawn out of our works, will use those of larger calibre.

INDIANA IN A BAD PLACE.—We are highly gratified to learn that the excessive loyal, temperate and virtuous county of Indiana—the home of the valorous Gen. Blowhorn, Harry White—has elected a Democrat to the Legislature, in the person of Capt. R. B. McCormick. He beats his loyal opponent, Klamrd, nearly 200, and yet the county was crazy enough to give the wooden nutmeg candidate for Supreme Judge 1,700 majority. Mr. McCormick resides at the Cherry Tree, (Grant P. O.) and is spoken of highly by our friends in the upper end of the county who know him personally. We suppose that after this triumph, we may reasonably expect that by next year the "loyal" counties Allegheny, Chester and Lancaster will send "Copperheads" to the Legislature.

Copperhead Rejoicings.

It seems as though the Cops could not quit rejoicing over the great Union victory they obtained on the second Tuesday of October. The "old Union savers" fully appreciate their year of jubilee. Their rejoicings are not over dead and mutilated neighbors and the torch of the incendiary, like those of their loyal neighbors in years past. The Democratic "war for the Union" is not waged by the sword, fire and death; they maintain the rights and liberties of freemen through the innocent ballot. Hence the rejoicings of the Copperheads and Butternuts in this State and Ohio the past few weeks.

We happened to pass through Bloomington on Saturday last, and learned that the Cops of that vicinity had a grand jubilee over the late Union victory. Over one hundred rounds were fired, and nobody hurt. We understand that our young friend, James S. Smith, of Cambria county, delivered an excellent speech on the occasion, rehearsing the wrongs and oppressions practiced upon the people by the loyal national robbers. The Cops in that vicinity insist on the impeachment of Governor Geary, for frauds practiced by him at the late election, and on putting Hon. W. A. Wallace in his place. They say that if the hero of Snickersville is not impeached for his crimes, they will insist on Mr. Wallace taking his place at the expiration of his term. We have no doubt but that a large majority of the people of Pennsylvania will enforce this latter suggestion.

SO WE GO.—In 1860, "the late lamented" carried Pennsylvania by 60,000 majority, and Ohio by 44,000; and in 1864, he carried the former State by 20,000 and the latter by 60,000. Now, the Cops carry the land of Penn. by 1,000 and lose the Buckeye State by only 2,000; and if the leaders of the Radical party become as honest in Pennsylvania as they are in other States, and give us the negro platform as they have elsewhere, we will carry the State by 150,000.

Twelve years ago, they gave us "Sam" clean and clear—no foreigner fit to vote because of ignorance; now, they give us "Sambo," and ask white people to give him a vote because of his ignorance, so that he can be made a smart man.

"Old Nick's" kingdom is full of such knaves and hypocrites as these leaders of the Radical party unfortunately are.

THE TRUMP CARD.—The New York Tribune declares that no man can secure the "loyal" nomination for President, who does not come out fair and square for negro suffrage.

This looks as though our opponents intended to become honest in the future. No party ever existed in this country that needed this virtue more than the present John Brownites. Their honesty, like their money, has been at a heavy discount for years. All we have to say, is: Bring on your candidate on this platform, and give the "Copperheads, Rebels, Butternuts" and Democrats a whack at him; and if he is not confiscated, set us and the rest of the "white trash" down as dunces. Sambo and loyalty is a dose the American people will never swallow.

THE DAVIS TRIAL.—It is rumored that Jefferson Davis will be tried, at Richmond, during the last week of November. The loyal Judge Underwood, assisted by his honor Chief Justice Chase, have succeeded in obtaining the right kind of a jury. Out of a panel of sixty, forty-five are negroes—all "loyal," of course. Negro jurors is one of the freaks of "the war for the Union." Stamps, high taxes and tariffs and the Bureau, are thrown in by way of variety. "Boys in Blue," this is the feast your loyal friends invite you to. Judge Chase and his backers, being too cowardly to try Mr. Davis while in the field, will, of course, refuse to try him in a court-house.

O, DEAR!—The editor of the Erie Observer is "poking his fun" at our loyal Congressman. It is well known that Mr. Scofield ably assisted Ben. Wade and Zac. Chandler in the late Ohio campaign, the result of which our readers understand ere this. "Whit," of the Observer, says:

> A friend writes us to suggest that the Democratic Committee of New York should at once secure Mr. Scofield to stump that State in favor of the Radical ticket. His eminent success in humbugging the Radical majority in Ohio to a guarantee that, if he were to try his hand in New York, we might carry it by 25,000.

STRAWS SHOW.—The Black Republican majority for Williams in Erie county is only 2,087, while Lowry, the candidate for Senator, has but 1,953. George W. Hooker, Esq., of Crawford, and formerly of this county, was the Democratic candidate. Geary's majority in Erie county, last year, was 3,320. Look out for a Democratic Congressman in this district next fall.

THE MACHINE REVERSED.—Last year the Black Republicans had a majority of 46 on joint ballot in the Ohio Legislature. This year the Cops have a majority of three in the Senate and seven in the House. This is pretty good for the Butternuts. The current was too deep for Ben. to Wade through.

A Loyal Howl.

The Pittsburg Commercial, bewailing the fate of its party, says:

"A day or two after the election the Cincinnati Gazette had an article on the causes of the Republican defeat. The moment was a favorable one for plain speaking, and the Gazette improved it. It is more than a week since its article was printed, and nobody has "come back" on it. So we conclude that in Ohio the Gazette stands approved. We quote from the article in question:

> No one need deny that there is a reaction against the radical policy of making Slack States in the South, coupled with the most reprehensible carelessness in financial legislation, save where rare it takes to favor special interests, and a terribly profligate system of appropriation. Within a few weeks Congress meets. There will be those to demonstrate that they will wish to rush forward—"jump ahead," as Ben Wade says—take a leap in the dark in further proscriptive legislation, confiscating Southern estates, impeaching the President, and all that sort of thing. It will not do.
> We begged Ben Wade to stop the torrent of personal vituperation and partisan violence long enough to talk a little about some of the new issues which were particularly important here. Nothing could be got out of him but the same old ding-dong. The third officer of the Government, Mr. Speaker Colfax, gave us but a very small amount of instruction in proportion to the latitude and longitude of his discourse, and indulged in an unseemly and untimely threat of hanging the first officer of the Government. The efficacy of such indirect harangues is seen in the election returns of Ohio. Something beside war talk will be wanted hereafter.

"The Gazette says furthermore that it was "unwise in Congress" to make it necessary for the friends of equal suffrage to bring forward the amendment which bore the Republicans down. It says, also, that the result in Ohio must be accepted as a verdict against an "extreme Radical policy." We take it for granted the Gazette (which is understood to be the organ of Mr. Chase) is not for Mr. Stevens's programme."

On the other hand, Ben. Wade, Horace Greeley, Thad. Stevens and Wendell Phillips have declared that no man can get the nomination of their party for President, unless he adopts unqualified negro suffrage as the leading article of his faith. These antagonistic elements are bound to inaugurate an "irrepressible conflict" in the loyal camp before the next election. As both these wings jointly tried for six years to destroy the Union, and failed, we have no fears that they can accomplish its ruin while back biting each other. We fully appreciate the feelings of a loyal orator, while lampooning the radical wing of his party after the election, when he exclaimed: "It was your d—d nigger and your whiskey morality that defeated us, and it will do it again if the present d—d fools are allowed to control the party."

What a pity that the party controlled by "grand moral ideas" should thus be berated by the members of its own household.

GIGANTIC STATESMANSHIP. — The Erie Observer says:

"Col. D. B. McCreary, of this city, last week assumed the position of Adjutant General of this State, to which he was appointed at the commencement of Gov. Geary's Administration. The reasons why he did not enter upon his duties before, are reported to be as follows:

> "'After his appointment had been made and confirmed, it was discovered that Col. McCreary was ineligible by reason of his being a Legislator, and that he could not assume the duties of his position until the election of a successor as Representative of Erie county. Gen. Russell, by force of this fact, held over as Adjutant General.'"

The last paragraph betrays the stupidity and gross ignorance of the hero of Snickersville and his Cabinet louder than any ass ever brayed. It is no wonder the State is robbed every year, while knaves control the Treasury and fools act as Governors and Secretaries.

It appears that Governor Geary, at the late election, played one of his old California pranks, in the way of stuffing the ballot-box. Read the letter of the Commandant at Fort Delaware. For the Governor of a State to turn ballot-box stuffer, is rather cool in a moral sense; but it is Geary all over.

Since April last, the Democrats have carried three United States Senators, Connecticut, California and Ohio will send three "Union-savers" to the next Congress, and thereby displace disunionists. Three traitors less in that body after March, 1869.

ELECTION OF JUDGE WOODWARD.—Among all the results of the election, there is none more gratifying than the successful canvass made by the friends of Judge Woodward in the Luzerne Congressional district. The Radical party made the Judge an especial object of attack. His ability as a constitutional lawyer and statesman, his firmness and integrity, his earnest devotion to Democratic principles, his gifted eloquence in advocating the right and exposing fraud, tyranny and usurpation to merited abhorrence, were feared by the guilty Radicals, and they spared no effort to defeat his election. For that purpose they expended large sums of money, and resorted to all the expedients of sophistry, intrigue and corruption. But in vain. A majority has wisely declared in his favor, and he will leave the office of Chief Justice of the Supreme Court of Pennsylvania, which he has eminently adorned, to take a seat in the Councils of the Nation. A new sphere and new duties are thus imposed upon him. That he will do good service to the country, in this hour of her utmost need, none who know him can doubt. —Scranton Register.

SUDDEN BEREAVEMENT.—Almost upon the landing of Hon. George W. Woodward from the vessel which had conveyed him to the shores of his native land, the telegraph bore to him the mournful message that death had been busy in his family circle during his absence. His son William, aged about 24 years, who had been ill for some three or four weeks, died in Wilkes-Barre, on Monday afternoon. A sad greeting, indeed.

State Election Returns for 1866 and 1867.

We publish below the official returns of the elections held in this State for Governor in 1866, and for Supreme Judge in 1867, which are always interesting in making comparisons:

The aggregate vote polled last year was 597,370, while this year it is only 534,850—being 62,520 less than last year. The Radicals lost 40,450, while the Democrats lost only 22,670.

An examination of the table will show that no county in the State came as near polling the Democratic vote of last year as Clearfield; yet this is no excuse for those who staid at home and perilled the interest of the country.

Soldier Vote.

In Philadelphia the return judges counted over one hundred votes said to be given by Pennsylvania soldiers at Fort Delaware. It was a fraud of course, but as it does not rule the result, it will doubtless be let pass. It was made a matter of inquiry before Court, and its fraudulent character fully developed. The following will also give some light upon it:

> WAR DEPARTMENT, October 15, 1867.
>
> William L. Hirst, 211 South Sixth street, Philadelphia:
>
> In reply to your letter of October 12, received yesterday, Gen. Grant directs me to send you the following copy of telegram just received from the commanding officer at Fort Delaware:
>
> FORT DELAWARE, Oct. 14, 1867.
>
> Gen. E. D. Townsend, Assistant Adjutant General:
>
> I was in Philadelphia when the election occurred here. Col. Howard, who was in command, reports that a citizen presented himself here with a commission from Gov. Geary, under the seal of Pennsylvania, appointing him to take the votes of Pennsylvania soldiers at this post. Col. Howard told him that he was under the impression that such an election was not legal. But as the man had a commission from Gov. Geary, he allowed him to take the votes. I add, on my own authority, that I have ascertained that a large proportion of the men voting had no vote in the State under any circumstances. It is said only thirty-three (33) votes were polled, while over a hundred (100) were returned. No officers were concerned one way or other in this election. C. B. MORGAN,

Political swindling is an indication of Moral Reform. If it was not so, we should hear it denounced by political parsons in the pulpit as a sin. On the contrary, it has their support.

REBUKED RUMPERS.—The election in Pennsylvania of course is a general rebuke to the Radical fanatics in the Rump Congress for the course they have pursued upon negro suffrage and military despotism "reconstruction." In certain districts, however, the people seem to have prepared special condemnation for their mis Representatives. The following exhibit shows who they are; the majority by which they were elected in 1866, and the majority by which they stand condemned:

Dist.	Maj. in 1866.	Sharswood's maj.
3d. Leon. Myers	1691	1011
5th. C. N. Taylor	439	292
6th. H. L. Cake	215	2
10th. W. H. Kountz	623	15
24th. John Covode	354	209

From this it will be seen Myers is condemned by 1015 of his Radical constituents; Taylor by 731; Cake by 217; Kountz by 640, and the great "alligator" by 723. The question now is, will these repudiated individuals resign, or will they resolve to comport themselves hereafter agreeably to the spirit of the people as indicated by the great reaction? We will see.

In some other districts a number of other Radical members came pretty near to a similar rebuke, and in all the Radical districts the Radical majorities of 1866 have been greatly reduced. These facts should be emphatically forced upon the attention of the mis Representative henceforth. —Pat. & Union.

Important Jury Trial.

The People of Ohio vs. Ben. Wade. } Impeachment before the last Congressional election, at October election, 1867.

The charges against the defendant were that he had violated the Constitution of the United States; and that he had committed treason against humanity:

1. In this, that he did wickedly conspire with Sumner, Stevens, and others, unjustly to procure the impeachment and dismissal from office of Andrew Johnson, President of the United States, with intent to usurp the powers of the government for the purposes of self-aggrandizement and to perpetuate the powers of the infamous "Rump," and it was further charged, that although the defendant was one of the judges of impeachment under the Constitution, he publicly condemned the President without evidence, and in advance of the proposed trial.

2. That as one of the ringleaders of the sect of Republicans, he conspired as aforesaid to overthrow the laws of property, by which every man has secured to himself the product of his own hard earnings, with intent to establish the agrarian rule, that all property shall be equally divided amongst men, and that therefore the virtuous, industrious and thrifty citizen should divide with the vicious, idle and thriftless, every Saturday night, and oftener if necessary, the colored "cuss" to have the largest share, if possible.

3. That he advocated the monstrous doctrine of negro equality, and the intermingling of the races; whereby he intended to debase and degrade the white to the level of the black man, and in furtherance of this terrible purpose, he designed to give the black man the ballot box, the jury box, and the right to be elected to office in the Northern States.

4. That he conspired as aforesaid to destroy the Union of these States, by passing laws excluding ten of the States from a participation in the privileges of the government, and by creating and putting in force five military despotisms, in their room, giving to five military satraps absolute power over the lives, the property and the liberty of millions of white men, in derogation of the Declaration of Independence and the Constitution of the United States, all with intent to perpetuate the power of the "Rump" aforesaid.

5. That he conspired as aforesaid to confer the right of suffrage upon the blacks of the South, by an act of Congress, at the same time disfranchising the whites, thus intending in the end to exclude the whites from power, and confer it on the debased and brutalized negro man.

Innumerable offences of lesser magnitude were charged against the defendant, with the averment that he was a revolutionist, a corrupt politician and a low demagogue, whose continuance in power would endanger the liberties of the people.

8th Oct., 1867.—The defendant was arraigned before the bar, and pleaded not guilty, and put himself upon the country. The jury was empanneled. The old Democracy of Ohio were the prosecutors. The defendant appeared by counsel of his own kidney, who resorted to bribery, fraud, and every devilish device to gain the verdict, but after a fair trial and a full investigation, the jury returned a verdict of guilty in manner and form as defendant stood indicted.

Whereupon the court adjudged, ordered and decreed that Ben. Wade should not be re-elected Senator, and that he had forfeited forever the confidence and respect of the people of Ohio, and that he return into merited obscurity, followed by the execration of mankind.

Thus the great "Impeacher" was himself impeached, and the office for which he sacrificed his manhood was placed beyond his grasp forever.

Sic transit gloria mundi, which being literally interpreted, means that Ben. Wade is a dead dog. Let politicians take warning.—Valley Spirit

The Boston Post's Washington correspondent says: "An attachment has been issued for Gen. Baker to bring him again before the Judiciary Committee, and it is said he is now under arrest. The General will be required to explain many of his statements, which are in direct conflict, concerning President Johnson. It is understood that no member of the Committee gives the slightest credence to anything Baker has said unless substantiated by other testimony." This man Baker was the especial pet of Lincoln and Stanton during the war; yet now, his "loyal" brethern refuse to believe his oath, unless corroborated by other witnesses. He and Conover are just as good as their backers. All, however, should be in the penitentiary.

COLD COMFORT.—The Radicals have lost the Legislature of Ohio. They have lost the entire law-making power of the State, for the Governor there has no veto power. They have lost the United States Senator, Ben. F. Wade. They have lost the negro suffrage amendment by half a hundred thousand majority. They have lost forty thousand out of their last year's forty-two thousand majority in the State. Yet they profess to be very much elated that they have retained their Governor. Well, it would be too ungenerous for the Democrats to deprive them of this small crumb of comfort.

A rich story is told by the Venango Spectator, of a Radical dutchman, in Canal township, who received a written notice from the Sheriff of the county, who is also Chairman of the Radical County Committee, telling him to stand at the polls all day and watch things. He accordingly took his position, but after a few hours became fatigued. Taking an old Democrat to one side he showed him the Sheriff's order, and said:

"I ish tired as der tayvil of dish. Vot you dinks dey would do mit me if I goes away mit mineself?"

The Catholic priests in New Orleans have many of them died of the epidemic. The Times speaks enthusiastically of the zeal they show in fulfilling the painful duties imposed upon them in ministering to the spiritual wants of the sick and dying.

Mr. M'Culloch as Secretary of the Treasury.

Mr. Secretary McCulloch, either knowingly, or stupidly, handled the tremendous agency of his department to the damage of the Democratic party. He certainly did this in Ohio.

The proprietor and editor of one of our respected contemporaries, at Columbus, Ohio, on the night after the election, telegraphed congratulating President Johnson. The President telegraphed back, congratulating Ohio on the political revolution. But we cannot understand the rationale of this. Our telegram would have been: "We have revolutionized Ohio, in spite of your office-holders!"

Mr. McCulloch, at the head of the United States Treasury Department, is pursuing the very course that the Democrats of Ohio have denounced. Mr. McCulloch is, month by month, calling in the "legal tender" greenbacks, by millions, and pushing out, or preparing to push out, "National Bank" bills, in their stead. This makes a tight money market, at the very time of the year that merchants and forwarders of Western produce, want bank accommodation, for legitimate purposes. At the same time it is increasing the load of our interest paying debt.

During the month of September just passed, it is officially stated that Mr. McCullough went to the extreme limit the law permitted, in withdrawing "legal tender" bills from circulation. He destroyed four million dollars of them. During the same month of September under Mr. McCulloch's management, the interest paying debt of the country was increased within a fraction of thirty million dollars! There is "finance" for you! Four millions of greenback "legal tender"—bearing no interest—is withdrawn at the very time it was needed for currency, by merchants, in legitimate business, and nearly thirty millions of interest bearing debt has been accumulated by the Government!

We know, perfectly well, that several millions of money are made, by speculation, by the favored ones who have McCulloch's confidence. But these fortunes are made by the friends of Mr. McCulloch, and of his master and director, Salmon P. Chase, at the expense of great distress, and great uncertainty, in the legitimate business of the country. What, above all, we cannot understand, is, how President Johnson can expect to share in any triumphs of the Democratic party, that are won against the influence of his subordinates in the Treasury, and other Departments! And, again, we cannot understand why Democrats should have any sympathy or regard for Mr. Andrew Johnson's troubles, present or prospective, while that functionary, through his subordinates in the Cabinet, are fighting the Democratic party! The Chase-McCulloch Treasury office-holders, collectors, tithe-proctors, etc., did this in Ohio. They, and the Seward-Weed "Conservative Black Republicans" are doing this in New York. If Mr. Johnson keeps Seward and McCulloch in his Cabinet, while the Democrats of New York have to fight the influence of those Departments—let Democrats laugh at the trouble and anguish of Mr. Johnson, when they come, and hope for a good riddance, at the Presidential election, next year, of both and all factions of the Black Republican party!

If President Johnson wants the help of Democrats to keep the Radicals from destroying him, let him talk less, and do something! Let him get rid of his present odious Cabinet, to begin with. He ought to be held responsible for the non-election of the Democratic State ticket in Ohio. His office holders defeated it.—Freeman's Journal.

The President has returned General Sickles's application for a Court of Inquiry to the War Department with his disapproval and his reasons therefor, the principal of which is, that General Sickles has already appealed for redress to the bar of public opinion, and if he was to order a Court of Inquiry it would simply be giving him another hearing. If not satisfied with the verdict of the public, the President intimates he may demand a court-martial. Go in, Daniel; sacrifice yourself for your country's good. Public opinion seems to be harder on such demagogues than the rebs, who sometimes took off a head, arm, or leg; but, Mr., opinion destroys all.

Rev. Chapin gets $10,000 salary, and Beecher gets $12,500. The extra 2,500 is supposed to be for salvation, which Chapin's flock, being Universalists, don't need. In addition to his income from preaching, Mr. Chapin clears several thousand dollars every season by lecturing, and Beecher as many more by his lectures and tales.
