those who persist in according to him more patriotism and Artue than even Washington possessed, have recently discovered by an official statement of the worldly affairs of the great martyr at the time of his "taking off," that he was in the blissful possession of Government bonds to the amount of about eighty thousand dollars ! and they point to the fact as still another evidence of his great loyalty. When we take into consideration the fact that the bonds in question are subject to no taxation whatever, and that the latering community are taxed exorbitantly to pay an interest in gold equal to nine per cent on the loyal Lincoln's bonds, it becomes a question with us as to who is the loyal man-he who asts of and measures his loyalty by submits quietly to inordinate taxation We doubt whether Mr. Lin. coln would have died possessed of Government bonds to the amount of Government bonds to the amount of one dollar, had they been subject, like other property, to taxation.
