[Written for the Clearfield Republican.]
DEPARTED DAYS.
BY REZA.
Come back! O, come back! sweet days of the past,
Come back with your smiles and your tears;
And on your wings of remembrance light,
Bring pleasure and joy for me.
Whither, dear days of the past, have you flown?
Are you gone to that orchard there,
Where once you returned from the silences of night,
But are buried in gloom evermore?
I have a deep voice that speaks from the gloom,
In tones that awaken my fears:
Bury not the past to ever return—
'Tis buried in the deadness of years.
And the dark tide of oblivion's stream
Sweep o'er, with its pitiless wave,
The spot where joy, with departed years,
Is buried in our common grave.
Where the angel of night, with his sweeping wing,
Hovers on the verge of the stream,
Where all who pass over its swelling flood
Are numbered with those who have been.

MISCELLANEOUS ITEMS.
"The Lost Cause"—Radicalism.
Advice to the Republicans—"If you have tears to shed, prepare to shed them now."
"Welcome, little stranger," as the man said when he found a three-cent piece among his postage stamps.
Why are young ladies generally bad grammarians? Because few of them are able to decline matrimony.
It is understood now, that the Radical party have given up the idea of running a negro for Vice President.
Why is Gillott accountable for much dishonesty? Because he makes people steal pens, and says they do write.
A Western man says he always respects old age except when some one sticks him with a pair of tough chickens.
A contemporary complains that we "strike below the belt." Have we given him the belly-ache?—Louisville Journal.
A lady fixed the following letters in the bottom of a flour barrel and asked her husband to read them if he could: O I C U R M T.
A Wheeling M. D. advertises a French medicine, one bottle of which will enable a person to talk French in three weeks.
When young men begin to sing "We won't go home till morning," they are in a fair way not to get there much before that time.
A man advertises a new patent stove which saves three-quarters of the coals while the ashes it makes pays for the other quarter.
"Excuse me, madam, but I would like to ask you what you look at me so savagely?" "Oh! I beg pardon, sir; I took you for my husband."
Judge Chase has returned from Ohio to Washington. His visit to his old State wasn't a pleasant one—owing, however, to "circumstances over which he had no control."
The bank of Pettis & Ingalls, at Fremont, Tazewell county, Ill., was broken into on Thursday night, and robbed of $100,000 in money and bonds. The burglars are still at large.
We are shocked to hear of such bloody battles between the Blacktoed and Bigbilled. It threatens to become as bad a conflict as the scalping contest which rages between T. W. and H. G.
Human nature is got up in such a way that we would run the risk of breaking our neck to see what our neighbour owns, while the Sheriff is postin bills for the sale of our own property.
A witness spoke of a particular person as having seen him "partially clad." "Was he not quite nude?" asked the examining counsel. "No," replied the witness, "he wore a pair of spectacles."
The horse which Col. Thomas Benton rode through the whole of the Mexican war, lately died at New London, Ct., aged thirty-six. He was formerly owned by Joseph Bonaparte, and at his death by Sidney Miner.
The Radicals have been saying all along that the President was the "impediment" to reconstruction. The people, however, have decided that the Radical party is the "impediment," and intend to remove it.
Foliofogy of a tax-payer who contributed largely to sustain the untaxed bondholder:
Also! and shall we ever live
On this your dying race,
Our local interest is small
And Government's is great?
Dr. Mudd, who is a prisoner in the Dry Tortugas, faithfully attended the sick in the yellow fever epidemic there, all the other surgeons being prostrated. He didn't lose a case, and in consideration of his services, efforts are being made to obtain pardon for him.
A little boy some six years old was using his slate and pencil on a Sunday, when his father, who was a minister, entered and said:
"My son, I prefer that you should not use your slate on the Lord's day."
"I am drawing 'meat' houses, father," was the prompt reply.
Inventors.—The Bellefonte (Pa.) editors are inventors as well as writers. Mr. Meek, of the Democratic Watchman, has lately invented a patent galley, for the use of printers, which promises to be a useful and labor-saving article. It does away entirely with the quoin and side-stick, and the galley can be set in any position without danger of "piling" the matter. Mr. Meek has applied for a patent, which we have no doubt he will receive. His invention has been tested in the Press office in Philadelphia, and pronounced a success.
Mr. Kurtz, of the Central Press, in Bellefonte, has also invented a new galley, on a somewhat different principle, and will take out a patent. It looks by means of a screw at the end, and when locked up, the type can be turned upside down or placed in any position with impunity. It is also a convenient and useful invention, and is the consequence of a suggestion taken from Mr. Meek's idea. Which of these two galleys will obtain the preference among printers will be seen in the future. They are both much needed and useful improvements. We trust the inventors will make their fortunes of them.—Clinton Democrat.
