THE REPUBLICAN.

THURSDAY.....November 21, 1867.

On our first page will be found a full account of the execution of Lena Miller, on the 13th.

All the magazines, literary periodicals and newspapers, for sale at city prices, at the Postoffice.

The card of Mr. Hutchinson, of Girard, Pa., will be found in this issue. He devotes special attention to bankrupt cases before the Register of this District, who resides at Girard.

TAVERN LICENSE.—Those persons who intend to apply for hotel license at January Term, will find the time short enough. The bond and petition must be filed three weeks before the first day of the Term.

We call the attention of our readers to the extensive sale of Judge Wilhelm, advertised in this issue and by handbills posted throughout the neighborhood. It will be noticed that the sale comes off on the 7th of Dec. next.

THE SUSQUEHANNA HOUSE.—The card of Mr. Wm. M. Jeffries, proprietor of this old and well-established Hotel, will be found in another column. It is one of the best kept houses in the country, and the proprietor is entitled to a liberal share of public patronage.

The fate of negro suffrage in Minnesota is still in doubt, with the chances against the proposition. So in no instance has it been affirmed, when submitted to the people of the North. We wonder if the Washington Rump will still persist in enforcing it upon the South, while they reject it at home?

COURT.—The late term of our Court "came and went" without any excitement. The Honorable Associates met on Monday, but neither the attorneys nor parties being ready, the machine was adjourned over until the fourth Monday of December. The names of the jurors for that term will be found in another column.

THE ASSESSMENT.—We neglected last week to call the attention of the citizens to the Appeal Notice, published by the County Commissioners. As this matter interests every taxpayer, we hope that the time and place for holding the Appeal in the several boroughs and townships will be remembered by all.

AT HIS POST.—We notice that Othello Smead, Esq., County Commissioner elect, has been sworn in, and is now discharging the duties of that office. He takes the place of Mr. Baker, whose term has expired. The Board, as now organized, stands: Col. Charles S. Worrall, of Chest; Henry Stone, Esq., of Clearfield, and Mr. Smead, of Burnside.

CLEARFIELD ACADEMY.—Those interested will please take notice that the second session of the present scholastic year of this institution will commence on Monday, the 2d day of December next. See terms, etc., in another column. The rumor that Prof. Harrison is about withdrawing from this school we understand is unfounded; precisely the reverse is the fact. He intends, in the future, to devote his whole time to teaching.

INSURRECTION IN THE JAIL.—Sheriff Faust and his "jail birds" have a great time with the "pot lamb" who is now restrained of his liberty and sojourning with them. The "colored American citizen" is greatly tormented with a bad stomach. He is often aroused from his sleep by horrible dreams, and thereupon yells and bellows loud enough to arouse the whole castle. This "nig" is very religious occasionally, and at other times swears "like a trooper." His lovely "Dinah" called upon him several times, and she would fire him up to fever heat. After she leaves he alternately swears and prays in an enthusiastic manner. He has had an awful time with spirits ever since he learned that Mrs. Miller was to be hung. He constantly annoyed the Sheriff with reference to this matter, and wanted to be put into another building. He became so "beside himself" on the morning of the execution that the Sheriff was compelled to confine him in the kitchen, and place a guard over him until evening, when he returned him to his cell; the "nig" groaning and moaning like a dying calf. Matters passed off rather quietly until about midnight, when the Sheriff and family were aroused by loud yells emanating from the "humb's quarters;" and upon repairing to his cell he found the darkey nearly frightened to death, swearing that Mrs. Miller and Cathcart both had him by the "throat." The Sheriff tried to persuade the "intelligent contraband" that he had only been dreaming; but he reiterated his statement, and would not allow the Sheriff to leave his cell—the "fellow-man" all the while shaking like an aspen leaf. Mr. darkey could not be quieted until the Sheriff ordered one of his fellow-boarders to sit up with him the balance of the night. If this "man and brother" has any particular friends in the vicinity, it is hoped that they will see that the nose of his stomach is changed, so that he can enjoy rest.

SAD ACCIDENT.—Last week a party of gentlemen from Burnside township repaired to the neighborhood of the "Green Woods," between this place and Sinnemahoning, for a grand hunt, but it became the misfortune of Mr. Edward Smith, one of the party, to be shot in the arm by one of his companions, who fired at him through a thicket, supposing him to be a deer. The wounded man was conveyed to town, medical aid was at once obtained and the proper remedies applied. The arm is very much lacerated, and it was at one time supposed that amputation would be necessary to save his life; but he seems in a good way now of recovering, without this operation. It is not far from where this accident occurred that a Mr. Wait was shot in the arm in a similar manner, which finally cost him his life.

We learn, also, that two young men from New Washington, named Breth and Kitchen, went to the woods to hunt, one day last week, and while the latter, who was ahead, was crawling through among some logs and brush, his gun went off and shot the former in the head. We learn that there are but faint hopes of his recovery. We understand that the wounded boy is a son of Esquire Breth, in New Washington.

THE RAILROAD DEPOT.—The location of the depot of the Tyrone & Clearfield railroad, at this place, has finally been settled. The ground chosen fronts one hundred feet on Reed street, and one thousand feet on Third street.

The passenger depot will be located on the corner of Reed and Third sts., the Company having secured lots Nos. 229 and 240, from Mr. Colburn, and the balance of the ground from Mr. A. H. Shaw. The freight depot will be located on the ground secured from him.

We understand that the track will be laid up Third street to Pine, for purpose of loading cars, sidings, &c.

BALLOU'S MONTHLY MAGAZINE.—This very popular and exceedingly cheap Magazine presents an attractive table of contents for December. Amethyst Wayne's charming story, "The Derwent Eyes and Hair," is completed; Mrs. Edson's exciting serial, "The Lady of Lindenwold," is intensely interesting, while "Paul's Romance," by Miss Hale, and "My Darling," a poem, by James Franklin Fitts, are among the coolest of magazine reading. The illustrations are also remarkably good, making this one of the best numbers of Ballou ever issued.

The publishers offer unusual attractions for the coming year. With the January number the Magazine will be enlarged to one hundred pages, and several new and attractive features introduced. Miss Williams has written a romance entitled, "So as by Fire," which will commence the year. Amethyst Wayne will furnish an exciting serial story for boys, entitled, "Old Hugh's Look-off," which will be finely illustrated by Kilburn, and will appear in the new department, called "Our Young People's Story-Teller;" a popular author will furnish a charming story for girls, while there will be at least a dozen other stories and poems of the highest literary excellence, and intensely interesting, all complete in the January number.

It will be seen from the foregoing that Ballou's Magazine for 1868 will eclipse its present excellence, while the extraordinary low price is retained. It is only $1 50 per year, or 15 cents a number. Clubs receive it for $1 25. The proprietors have good cause for calling it "the cheapest magazine in the world." Published by Elliot, Thomes & Talbot, Boston, Massachusetts.

PETERSON'S MAGAZINE.—We are in receipt of this popular Ladies Magazine for December. It is a splendid number, with two steel engravings, a mammoth fashion plate, a colored pattern in Berlin work, and nearly fifty wood cuts of braiding and other patterns, and late fashions. The Publisher says, that in 1867, "Peterson's Magazine had more subscribers than all the other Ladies' Magazine's combined." "We do not wonder at this, for it really gives more for the money than any in the world. The stories are by the very best writers and are written originally for "Peterson." The mammoth colored fashions are the newest and latest, the Principal Editor having gone out to Paris to secure patterns in advance. About a thousand pages of reading will be given in 1868, when the Magazine will be greatly improved. The terms however will remain two dollars a year to single subscribers. To clubs it is cheaper still, viz: five copies for $8 00, eight copies for $12 00, or fourteen copies for $20 00; astonishingly low. To every person getting up a club (at these rates,) the Publisher will send an extra copy gratis. Specimens sent (if written for) to those wishing to get up clubs. Address, post paid, Charles J. Peterson, 306 Chestnut Street Philadelphia.

GEARY'S TRUTHFULNESS.—Shortly after the election of our ballot-box-stuffing Governor, he announced to the people that the pardoning power was to be seldom exercised, and that he, at least, was beyond and above the influence of Bill Mann and his crowd. A day or two since one William Carson was tried, convicted, and sentenced for keeping a gambling house—the first conviction of the kind for many years—and in less than an hour after sentence was pronounced the aforesaid Carson was at large, having procured his pardon in advance of his conviction; Poor Geary! —Sunday Mercury.

The supporters of Judge Chase, it is said, desire to have the next National Republican Convention meet in Cincinnati.

TERRIBLE ACCIDENT.—The wife of Mr. Weaver, who resides in West Indiana, met with a terrible accident on Wednesday evening of last week. She had been down town and was just in the act of crossing the stone walk between the Episcopal church lot and Dr. St. Clair's office, when a team of horses, belonging to a Mr. Smith, of Elder's ridge, ran off and turning into the Salisburg road came in contact with Mrs. Weaver, who was knocked down by the concussion and severely injured. One of her limbs was so frightfully shattered that amputation was rendered necessary, and the operation was successfully performed by Dr. St. Clair. The lady sustained other injuries, but we learn is doing well, with fair hopes of her recovery. The practice of letting teams stand without being secured ought to be abated, at least in the neighborhood of the depot where horses are liable to take fright.—Indiana Democrat.

Mr. Weaver and his family had just lately removed from Burnside township, in this county, to Indiana.

$200 REWARD.—I will pay the above reward for the apprehension of Cyrus Thompson who shot and killed the son of Daniel McDonald in Cambria borough, on Thursday evening, October 31st. Said Thompson is aged about 36 years, is about 5 feet 10 inches high, weighs about 150 pounds, has dark eyes, black hair and dark complexion, is addicted to drink, wears a mustache and goatee, and had on when he left a stiff-rimmed low-crowned black hat, and a soldiers long blouse.

☞ The above reward will be paid for his apprehension in addition to any other reward offered by other parties.

Nov. 9, 1867. JAMES MYERS, Sheriff of Cambria county.

LARGE TURNIP.—We have in our office a Winter Turnip presented to us by Robt. Foresman, Esq., of Elemsport, which weighs three pounds and nine ounces. The turnip was grown by Daniel Flick, a Democrat of Washington tp.—Lycoming Standard.

That's the land of our birth, and where the first nine years of our life were spent, but we never grew as large as that turnip.

It is reported on good authority that Secretary McCullough recently tendered his resignation, and the President requested him to withdraw it. The Secretary complied.

Robert H. Pomeroy, late cashier of the Mohawk Valley National Bank, committed suicide at his residence in the village of Mohawk on Friday. The act is said to have been committed on account of alleged defalcation from the funds of the institution.

He is satisfied that he can please all, (unless it might be some intensely loyal stay-at-home patriots.) He is prepared to sell low for Cash or Country Produce.
