

THURSDAY: December 26, 1867.

We issue our paper two days in advance, this week, and none next. The devil and his companions are determined to "swing round the circle," and of course the machine must stop. In the meantime, we intend to send New Year's "Bill-etzous" to those of our subscribers who owe us for more than five years. If those veterans don't soon "soak," they will be troubled with the nightmare, or a Constable, or perhaps both. "A word to the wise is sufficient." We'll see.

SETTLED.—We notice by the Du Page (Ill.) Press, that Rev. J. Taylor Chambers, late of St. Andrews Church, in this place, has accepted a call and is now pastor of St. John's Church at Naperville in that State. Our best wishes accompany him wherever his duty calls him.

We are indebted to Mr. A. Wynch, news and periodical dealer, 505 Chestnut Street, Philadelphia, for a copy of the standard "Old Franklin Almanac," which is full of useful information. Price 20 cents. He also sends us "Weather-Wag's Almanac," full of fun and jokes; price 15 cents. Both mailed to any address on the receipt of the price.

ADVERTISEMENTS.—The Sheriff's Sales will no doubt be interesting to some of our readers.

One thousand men and women wanted to sell Engravings. Address L. D. Robinson Springfield, Mass.

Mr. Contriott wishes the owner of an Estray Cow, to take her away.

Messrs Parker & Co., of Boston, have made a Revolution in Trade. Read their advertisement and send for a circular.

Tribute of Respect.

The following preamble and resolutions were adopted at a meeting of the Preachers of the Northumberland District, on the death of Elder Guyer:

Whereas, it has pleased the Great Head of the Church, to remove, by death, our beloved brother and co-laborer, the Rev. John Guyer, and

Whereas, for near 54 years he was a faithful and successful Minister in the M. E. Church, and for nearly four years past P. E. of the Northern District, therefore,

Resolved, That we unite in the hand of God, in this dispensation of Divine Providence, which has severed our present relations and that we deeply feel our loss, but are assured that it is his eternal gain.

Resolved, That we most cheerfully give our testimony to the kindness of his heart, Christian courtesy, ardent real and successful labors.

Resolved, That we deeply sympathize with the bereaved family of the deceased, and devoutly pray that the Savior whom he presided will comfort and sustain them in their afflictions.

Resolved, That a copy of the above resolution be presented to the family of the deceased and that they be published in the paper of the district, Christian Advocate, Methodist Episcopal Journal.

T. M. REED, Chairman.

W. H. MILLS, Secretary.

Beggars on Horseback."

In reading over the debates in the Georgia mongrel Constitutional Convention, in the columns of a Republi-contemporary, we encounter a lively discussion upon a resolution to invite the Governor of Georgia, and all ex-Governors of the State, to seats upon the floor. One of the negro delegates, we are told, spoke against it; but the resolution nevertheless, was finally adopted. We do not learn, however, that the Governor, nor any of the ex-Governors availed themselves of the proffered privilege of a seat on the floor. But one is bound to believe that they do not absent themselves out of any disrespect for the Black and Tan gentlemen who asked them in; but rather, from a praiseworthy disinclination to wound the feelings of the Hon. Jumbo Jim who spoke against the resolution. As things go on, down in those military districts we expect ere long to hero of the Hon. Mr. Hannibal, the Hon. Julius Caesar, the Hon. Scipio Africanus, submitting resolutions, excluding from the Convention, not only Governors and ex-Governors, but all other "white trash."

As it has got to come to that in the end, it is to be hoped some enterprising darkey will take the earliest opportunity to "move business forward," with a view to that result. The sooner we touch bottom in this Amalgamation harlequinade, the better.—Express.

HONORABLE AFFAIR.—A family of Browns, residing at Hudson, N. Y., last week, burned their house and in it a girl about 15 years of age. The facts elicited during the investigation are these: The family consisted of husband and wife; that seven years ago they abducted this girl from her parents in Ohio; that about six months ago Brown went to a Life Insurance office, in Hartford, Connecticut, represented this girl as his daughter, and effected an insurance on her life for $5,000, and the same amount on his dwelling house and goods; and that on the night of the 16th instant they fired the building, and succeeded in burning or murdering the girl, as her charred remains were found in the cellar. Brown and his wife repaired to Hartford the next day, to secure their $10,000; but a policeman telegraphed to the insurance agent to arrest them, for murder and arson, and they are now lodged in jail.

TERrible ACCIDENT.—A great disaster occurred on the Lake Shore railroad, on the night of the 18th inst. The New York express train by an accident got behind time, and as is usual tried to make it up; but when within a few miles of Buffalo a rail broke and the rear car went over an embankment of fifty feet and caught fire, and out of fifty passengers in it, but two escaped, the rest being burned to death, and all that is left of them is a mass of blackened and charred remains. There are no means of ascertaining their names.

Godly men are ever answered in effect though not in kind.

Philadelphia & Erie Railroad.—
WINTER TIME TABLE.

Through and direct route between Philadelphia, Baltimore, Harrisburg, Williamsport, and the Great Oil Region of Pennsylvania.

ON and after MONDAY, NOV. 25, 1867, the trains on the Philadelphia & Erie Rail Road will run as follows:

Westward.

Mail Train leaves Philadelphia.....11.30 P. M.

Do. do. St. Mary's.....2.15 P. M.

Do. do. Arrive at Erie.....4.30 P. M.

Erie Express leaves Philadelphia.....10.00 P. M.

Do. do. St. Mary's.....2.15 A. M.

Do. do. Arrive at Philadelphia.....4.45 A. M.

Eastward.

Mail Train leaves Erie.....10.25 A. M.

Do. do. St. Mary's.....3.00 P. M.

Do. do. Arrive at Philadelphia.....8.30 P. M.

Do. do. Arrive at Philadelphia.....10.00 P. M.

Do. do. Arrive at Allentown with all trains on the Warren & Franklin Railway.

A First-Class High School for Boys.

THIS location is healthful, romantic and convenient; seven miles east of Altoona, on the Pennsylvania Central Railroad. The next term begins November 3, 1867. Apply to

R. H. FULTON, Principal.

Athens P. O., Blair Co., Pa.

JULY 21, 1867. Principal.

GREAT BARGAINS!

AT PRIVATE SALE!

THE subscriber, contemplating going into other business, will sell, at private sale, his entire stock of

Pottery and Stoneware,

At his kiln, in Clearfield. Those who may need of this kind can secure it at a heavy reduction.

FREDERICK LEITZNERH.

Clearfield, October 24, 1867.

Origin and History of the Books of the Bible.

He undersigned now offers for rent the well-known hotel formerly kept by Isaac Bloom.

Isaac, deceased, situated in the central part of the borough of Curwenville. Possession will be given on the first of November, if desired. It will be rented either with or without the furniture.

For further particulars enquire by letter, or address the undersigned by letter.

FRANCIS L. TYLER.

General Superintendent.

LIVERY STABLE.

THE undersigned begs to inform the public, that he is now fully prepared to accommodate all the way of furnishing Harness, Baggages,

Wedges and Harness, on the shortest notice and on reasonable terms, for sale by H. L. & J.

GROCERIES to be had at MERRILL & SIBLEY'S.

Clearfield, April 11, 1867.

W. GEARHART.

General Superintendent.

Hardware, Tinware, &c.

Reported weekly for the CLEARFIELD REPUBLICAN.

By J. P. KREIDER, Dealer in Dry Goods, Provisions, &c., Market St., Clearfield.

CLEARFIELD, December 24, 1867.

We issue our paper two days in advance, this week, and none next.

The devil and his companions are determined to "swing round the circle,"

and of course the machine must stop.

In the meantime, we intend to send New Year's "Bill-etzous" to those of our subscribers who owe us for more than five years. If those veterans don't soon "soak," they will be troubled with the nightmare, or a

Constable, or perhaps both. "A word to the wise is sufficient." We'll see.

SETTLED.—We notice by the Du

Page (Ill.) Press, that Rev. J. Taylor

Chambers, late of St. Andrews Church,

in this place, has accepted a call and is now pastor of St. John's Church at Naperville in that State. Our best wishes accompany him wherever his duty calls him.

We are indebted to Mr. A. Wynch,

news and periodical dealer, 505 Chestnut Street, Philadelphia, for a copy of the standard "Old Franklin Almanac,"

which is full of useful information.

Price 20 cents. He also sends us

"Weather-Wag's Almanac," full of fun and jokes; price 15 cents. Both mailed to any address on the receipt of the price.

PHILADELPHIA GROCERY MARKET.

PHILADELPHIA, DECEMBER 23, 1867.

WE issue our paper two days in advance, this week, and none next.

The devil and his companions are determined to "swing round the circle,"

and of course the machine must stop.

In the meantime, we intend to

send New Year's "Bill-etzous" to

those of our subscribers who owe us

for more than five years. If those veterans don't soon "soak," they will be troubled with the nightmare, or a

Constable, or perhaps both. "A word

to the wise is sufficient." We'll see.

SETTLED.—We notice by the Du

Page (Ill.) Press, that Rev. J. Taylor

Chambers, late of St. Andrews Church,

in this place, has accepted a call and is now pastor of St. John's Church at Naperville in that State. Our best wishes accompany him wherever his

duty calls him.

We are indebted to Mr. A. Wynch,

news and periodical dealer, 505 Chestnut Street, Philadelphia, for a copy

of the standard "Old Franklin Almanac,"

which is full of useful information.

Price 20 cents. He also sends us

"Weather-Wag's Almanac," full of fun and jokes; price 15 cents. Both

mailed to any address on the receipt of the price.

PHILADELPHIA GROCERY MARKET.

PHILADELPHIA, DECEMBER 23, 1867.

WE issue our paper two days in advance, this week, and none next.

The devil and his companions are determined to "swing round the circle,"

and of course the machine must stop.

In the meantime, we intend to

send New Year's "Bill-etzous" to

those of our subscribers who owe us

for more than five years. If those veterans don't soon "soak," they will be troubled with the nightmare, or a

Constable, or perhaps both. "A word

to the wise is sufficient." We'll see.

SETTLED.—We notice by the Du

Page (Ill.) Press, that Rev. J. Taylor