What a blessing it is when the living water makes a spring within the Christian: What a curse to be one before the Register. [new21-6mp4] of the stagnant ponds of formality exhaling the putridity of hypocrysy.

Do you say, "I would be a Christ-inn if I felt that I was worthy"? How one on Second street, with Walter Barrett, Esq. is it with Christ? Is he not worthy? If you depended upon your own strength alone, you might fear and draw back; but when the treasures of eternity are yours, and when Christ Charges moderate. has said to every one of you, as he would say if he were here now, "Trust me : just as long, my children, as I Hve do not be afraid, for you shall live also; I pledge my life for yours"can you take him at his word, and be content?

CONFORMITY WITH CHRIST .- The chief study of a Christian, and the office with J. B. McEnally, Esq., over First Nainn, is conformity with Christ. The sum of religion (says Pythagoras) is to be like him who thou worshippest. And that truly is our only way ; there is nothing but wandering and perishing in all other ways, nothing but Office on Second St., Clearfield, Pa. [nov21, 55 darkness and misery out of him : "but | Wm. A. Wallnes. he that followeth me," says he, "shall J. Rial not walk in darkness." And there- WA fore it is set before us in the gospel in so clear and lively colors that we may make this our whole endeavor-to be like him.

TRUE STRENGTH .- The secret of all diligent, energy, pleasure, success in duty, is a heart enlarged by the love of God. "For the love of Christ con-straineth us." Oh! that golden chain of perfect freedom; that binding yoke of hads, &c. of most sweet and willing bondage See St. Paul the bondsman of Christ, going out to do his daily service of labor and perils, chanting his morning Inbor and perils, chanting his morning song, and saying, "Most gladly will I glory in my infirmities, that the power of Christ may rest upon me." "Strong in the Lord and in the power of his might," was St. Paul—but his strength might," was St. Paul—but his strength was M. M. C. W. L. OUGH.

WM. M. M. C. W. L. OUGH. was the strength of faith.

CRIMINAL SILENCE.—How many Christian students in college, and Christian clerks in business, are guilty of the negligence referred to in the following: A college student, who, after resisting the strivings of the Spirit for months, has recently yielded his heart to Jesus, tells me that the great obstacle which kept him from Christ was the fact that although for a year of college life he had been constantly and intimately associating with Christians, not one had ever spoken to him of the welfare of his soul. Could they be sincere? Was religion a reality?

Now the grace of God will rise as high as its source. If you and I have grace that began with us, it will never get higher than we are. If you have grace that the priest gave you when you were christened, it will never get higher than the priest; but if you get the true grace of God which descends from heaven, it will take you as high as the New Jerusalem, from which it came. High up in the throne of God are the everlasting springs of divine mercy; at the foot of divine sovereignty it wells up a spring, clear as crystal, pure without a stain, and it flows down to earth, leaping down by the way of the cross. And it will ascend as high as its course. It will go to the throne again, that is where it came from, and it will rise to its own level, and it will float up their with it. been made to taste, to feel, and to made, be saturated with the grace that came LICENSED AUCTIONEER. from God, from a divine source, you shall also have a divine portion for-

It is stronger than a promise. A promise implies that it might be another way. But when he says, "Because I live, ye shall live also," it assumes that there is no other thing possible. His life being granted as a fact, the other thing follows as an irresistable and inevitable sequence. So that from him should flow that which they needed. Whatever they incked of might, he would make good. Whatever they lacked of knowledge, he would supply them from his own knowledge. Whatever the needed of gunrdianship, of consolation, of guidance, of interference of any sort, he guaranteed them. "Because I live, we shall live also." My life for yours, said Christ to his disciples. And when he said it to those that were around about him then he said it to all who should believe in his name to the end of time. And there stands flaming in the heaven of faith to day the declaration that the life of God, through Jesus Christ, is the surety and pledge of victory and salvation to every one that believes Brandies & Wines for Medical purposes. on the Lord Jesus Christ. Not because of your goodness, not because of your skill, and not because of your skillful MOSHANNON LAND & LUMBER CO., leadership under which you made your voyage; but because there is in God provision for salvation you have ground for hope and consolation.

FOUR IMPOSSIBLE THINGS .- First, to oscape trouble by running away from duty. Jonah once made the experiment; but be soon found himself where all the imitators will in the end find themselves. Therefore, manfully meet and overcome the difficulties and trials to which the post assigned you by God's providence exposes you. Second, to become a Christian of strength and maturity without under-going severe trials. What fire is to old, that is affection to the believer. It burns up the dress and makes the House and Sign Painter and Paper gold shine forth with unalloyed lustre. Third, to form an independent charnoter except when thrown upon their own resources. The oak in the midalle of the forest, if surrounded on every side by trees that shelter and shade it, runs up tall and sickly; but away from its protectors, and the first blast will overturn it. But the same tree, growing in the open air where it is continually beat upon by the tempest, becomes its own protector. So the man who is compelled to rely on his own resources forms an indupendence of character to which he sould not otherwise have attained. Fourth, to be a growing man when you look to your post for influence, instead of bringing influence to your post. Therefore, prefer rather to climb up hill with difficulty, than to roll down with inglerious ease.
