New Advertisements.—Esq. Broth, of New Washington, offers a bargain.

Mr. McGrath, offers a reward of $200, for the apprehension of the murderer of his relative.

Judge Linn.—The Bellefonte Press says: "On account of the health of Hon. Samuel Linn, he has expressed his determination to resign the office of President Judge of this Judicial District."

THANKS.—Hon. G. W. Scofield will please accept our thanks for eighteen volumes of public documents.

A friend has our thanks for a copy of the Hays City Railway Advance, published in Ellis county, Kansas.

It will be noticed by his advertisement, that Mr. Keagy, at Glen Hope, has become agent for the "Youths' History of the Rebellion."

BANK OFFICERS.—The following gentlemen were elected officers and directors of the Banks in this place, on the 14th ult, viz:

County National Bank.—James T. Leonard, President; D. W. Moore, Cashier; A. K. Wright, Richard Shaw, James B. Graham, G. L. Reed, Wm. A. Wallace and William Porter, Directors.

THE COUNTY SETTLEMENT.—The annual statement of the County Auditors for this county will be found in this issue. A new and valuable feature in this statement is, that the township auditors and school directors, in the settlement of the accounts of supervisors and school treasurers, can charge these respective officers with the amount of unassessed tax assessed every year; and after giving exonerations, treasurers and collectors' percentage, &c., close the account. It will also be noticed that the funds are in a healthy condition, and that Treasurer Moore has, during the past year, discharged an immense amount of debt.

A CHANGE IN LIFE.—The ups and downs in this life are aptly illustrated in the person of Hiram S. alias Ulysses S. Grant, late shoe and leather dealer at Galena, Illinois, who now receives $30,000 a year salary. One of his head clerks recently asked the General to recommend his salary to be increased to $1,400. Grant refused. Grant's little boy, ten years old, rides to school every morning on a pony, with an onyx on horseback about a rod behind him. This is a style for a man who has a million superiors in every gift and acquirement, who have to support their families on a thousand dollars a year, and spare out of that a part of the tax to pay Grant his $30,000.

Chronicle of Sentinel. This is the ablest journal published in the Gulf States, and has no superior elsewhere.

A MURDER COMMITTED.—On Tuesday afternoon, the 28th ult, a man named John Casey was found lying on the turnpike, about a mile east of town, in an insensible condition, evidently seriously injured. He was conveyed to town, and Dr. Hartwick was called to examine his wounds. It was soon discovered that the man was fatally injured, but he lingered along until Saturday, when he died. Coroner Moore and District Attorney McCullough held an inquisition, and the examination elicited the fact that his death was caused by a wound on the left side of the head, behind the ear, which had evidently been inflicted with a club, or weapon of some kind, in the hands of some one. The skull was broken in, and cracked clear around to the right ear. We learn that there were also other marks of violence upon his body. But as the case will undoubtedly undergo a judicial investigation, we will refrain from giving details at this time. Two men have been arrested on suspicion of having committed the crime, and another is detained as a witness; all of whom are now in jail, awaiting a further investigation.

Reader, do not fail to peruse the memorial of the Free Trade League, to the Rump Congress, published on our first page. It is full of information. The tariff humbug, next to the reconstruction devilry, is the greatest political curse ever imposed upon the people of this country.

THE ACADEMY.—The third session of the year will open on Monday, the 17th instant, at this institution. For terms, see advertisement.

Labor Reform Associations. To the Editor of the Republican: It seems that one Sammy Row is suffering tremendously from bile on his black stomach, caused by having a dose of his filthy, willful and malicious lies thrust down his digestive organs. The intention was philanthropic and humane, viz: to clean out the inward man, but there must have been too much foul matter accumulated in that dark region—and it seems that in his suffering he has added ignominy, hence the explosion upwards. He says I profess to be a Republican. I am always what I profess to be, and he knows I never professed to be a Radical; nor do I in any way resemble the contemptible thing that he is. He says, also, that I admit there are Copperheads connected with the Labor Reform movement, another story which all who read my former letter can see; and if there were, they would be no longer Copperheads, but Labor Reformers; and I am able to add, for the benefit of Sammy's disordered stomach, that there are large numbers of former Radicals now zealous Labor Reformers. As to his slimy insinuation about truth and veracity, I have never been proven a liar, as I have never been proven to do or say with such a black-washed sepulcher. And he knows it, for I told him that sometime since, when I ordered his little petty paper stopped. So, good-by, Sammy, and keep a clean mouth. If your internal regions should become foul, and should you attempt to belie the Labor Reform movement again, I will give you another dose, so as to compel you to have recourse to your unction again.
