Surveyor General.

A portion of the duties devolving upon the 4th of March Democratic convention, is the nomination of a candidate for the position of Surveyor General. We confess we have full confidence in the gentlemen composing that body, but cannot help bringing to their notice the names of worthy gentlemen hailing from this section of the state. Among those named we mention Dr. T. J. Boyer, of this county, who is well qualified for the position, and favorably known throughout this section of the state. He is an unwavering Democrat, prefers principle to policy, and fears tramping on no one's toes when declaring the fundamental principles of his party. Besides he is no drone, never found sitting in a corner growling, while their is work to be done. There is no more energetic partizan in the State, while at the same time he possesses abilities that are an ornament to any man, and hence can be made doubly useful. We hope he will be nominated. On the other hand should he and his friends not press his claims before the Convention, we would respectfully solicit their aid in securing the nomination of one of our West Branch Valley friends. We refer to David Carskaddon, Esq, of Lock Haven, than whom no better man need be nominated. He is no mummy nor policy dealer either, but upright in all his dealings and an able defender of his party. A number of other gentlemen have been named also, but being personally unacquainted with them, we leave them in charge of their friends, while we put ourselves in position to support the nominee of the convention.

No, if you Please.

The Grant bummers in the city of New York, in the particular interest of the "Mississippi drier," are flooding the country over with their disinterested and patriotic circulars, (to the benefit of the Post Office Department, at least,) calling upon the people to nominate and elect the late "shoe and leather dealer" to the Presidency. Their circular sounds more like some quack doctor's proclamation, than a document emanating from the "recognized thinking people, representing the industry, property and intelligence of this great city," and "the multitude who participated in this movement," all sounds very nice, but the politicians and the unrecognized thinking people, we fear, will come to the conclusion that New York contains about as many demagogues among its "recognized thinking people," as any other class, of which this circular bears unmistakable testimony.

We have read numerous political circulars, but we never came across one containing half the impudence, egotism and falsehood that this one does, sent out by the "industry, property and intelligence of" New York. We are not surprised that its authors are "sickened with politics," as they evidently know nothing about it, or they would not reproach their neighbors for practicing that which they do themselves—mislead and deceive the people. Send the circulars all back or keep them as momentoes of New York, paytriotism.

JUDGE WOODWARD.—Among the many excellent speeches delivered by the Democrats in Congress, during the present session, we consider that of Judge Woodward's, on the National debt and currency, as the ablest and most appropriate. He takes a proper view of the financial and political affairs of the country. He has no particular "scheme" or "platform" either for his party, or himself; but travels on a familiar Democratic line, and leaves the crimes and follies to be committed to the "loyal" Rumpers, who are alone responsible for our present difficulties; while he at the same time points out, very distinctly, how the "breakers ahead" can be avoided and the country restored to unity and peace.

Ex-Rev. J. H. Whallon, of Erie county, is making quite a stir among the "loyal" portion of this gigantic Congressional district. He is going to run for a seat in the Rump, or "butt the bull off the bridge." We will bet five cents, to be deposited in some foreign missionary box, that our Ex-Reverend will beat him two to one. From the look of things, it would seem as though the next congressional canvass in this district would be a theological one on the part of the "grand moral idea" portion of the circuit.

Ex-President Buchanan will be seventy-seven years old on on the 12th of April, 1868.

Unadulterated Black Republicanism.

The "loil" people of Alabama carried things with a high hand for some time before the late election in the "Black Creek" Convention. Not satisfied that the niggers had four days allotted to them to carry the Constitution, they also wanted the she ones to pitch in too. A Radical paper at Mobile, called the Nationalists made the following appeal "to the colored women" of that dominion a few days before the election. Hear him:

"If the Constitution fails, your condition will remain just as it now is. You will be liable to insult every time you appear upon the street, and every day you remain at home. Your children will be abused wherever they go. Degradation will, for an indefinite period, be the lot of yourselves and all you hold dear, for your natural protectors will be powerless. If adopted, your fathers, brothers and husbands will have power, and vicious men will be compelled to deport themselves with some decency when in public, and not to invade the homes of others.

"Devote some spare moment of your time between now and Friday night in going from house to house, and shop to shop, urging every man to do his duty by voting for the constitution. Insist upon it that they must act like men if they wish to be looked upon as men, and let them know distinctly what you think of those who are afraid to maintain their rights. If the colored women of Mobile will properly exert themselves there will not be twenty colored votes uncast on Friday night."

The following is printed and circulated in large letters:—

"LET THE WOMEN MARK THE MEN WHO HAVE NOT COURAGE ENOUGH TO VOTE.

"'THOSE WHO WOULD BE FREE, THEMSELVES MUST STRIKE THE BLOW.'

"The Conservatives denounce the Almighty as a Radical, and declare that they cannot stoop to associate with Him.

"It is reported that 'the Conservative Committee' have petitioned the Lord to run star cars upon the streets of the New Jerusalem."

Such is the intelligence and blasphemy uttered by the tools of "loyal" men, controlled by "grand moral ideas," with the additional request that they be allowed to rule States and control white people? This is a feast, indeed! It has long since been said, that "when the wicked rule the land mourneth."

The Rump Senate, has refused to confirm the appointment of Hon. W. D. Bishop, of Connecticut, as Commissioner of Patents. Mr. Bishop was a Democratic Congressman from that State and was Chairman of the committee on Manufactures during the Thirty-fifth Congress.

A TEST.—On Friday last an election was held in the city of Reading for Mayor and other municipal officers. The result is, the Democrats have 317 more majority, than they had in October last.

FREEDMEN'S BUREAU.—Notwithstanding the reports about closing the Freedmen's Bureau in Maryland, Kentucky, and Tennessee, that expensive institution is to be kept up in those States, as well as in other States at the South. Those who manage its affairs have come to the conclusion that it would be prejudicial to their interest to close it at the time proposed, and accordingly they have appealed to the Rump Congress, through General Howard, to continue the Bureau in operation at least another year, and to that end the House will, next week, pass a bill heretofore reported, continuing the so-called Bureau in all the Southern and Border States for one year, or until they become thoroughly Africanized, and until after the Presidential election. This nigger bureau is a great "pinch back" invention.

CONNECTICUT.—The Connecticut Radicals are resorting to their old game. The Chairman of their State Central Committee has written to the wealthy manufacturers of the State, advising them of the importance of retaining all the men in their employ till after the first Monday in April, so that their votes may be secured. Every manufacturer in the State is urged to influence as many of his employees as possible, and this branch of the subject is being "worked up" to the utmost.

Mr. Harry Morehouse, surnamed "the young Evangelist of England," is preaching in Albany. As the Radical papers puff him, we infer that he is a recruit to the ranks of the English missionaries who cannot see any need of their labors in Ireland and are so anxious to show how this country ought to be governed. Every English missionary, or stumper that lands on our shores, takes as naturally to loyalty and Radicalism, as a duck does to water.

The few niggers of Iowa, assembled in State Convention on the anniversary of the birth day of the "late lamented," to frame measures for bringing the subject of their franchise before the Legislature. Certainly—and hold office, and have free farms and all that pleasant sort of things. Let us everywhere go the black "whole hog"—as the white hog south must root or die, according to the Tribune, and there is nothing left for it to root at.

Rosco Conkling, a piece of light human timber which the Mongrels of New York sent to the U. S. Senate, lately denounced Mr. Doolittle for making "a speech offensive to the majority of the Senate." That was certainly a crime; but we do not see how Doolittle could help it, unless he made a negro of himself.

Greeley is lecturing at Cincinnati and Dayton on "Self made men."

OUR NEW YORK LETTER.

NEW YORK, Feb. 17, 1868.

The fierce literary warfare now being waged between the President and General Grant still occupies the attention of the ponderous city dailies to the exclusion of almost every other topic of public interest. Their comments and conclusions as to who is right or who is at fault, are both amusing and absurd. Some call on Grant to resign forthwith. This would be the means of electing him, they say, triumphantly to the Presidency. Others urge the President to try him for insubordination and cashier him from the service. The correspondence alluded to occasions no little excitement and perturbations of mind among the rival political organizations, threatening havoc and destruction to either side were the "dogs of war" let loose. Happily for the country at large, the two heavy weight champions fight only with paper billets. Among the larger class of our citizens, however, they look upon this acrimonious controversy—this undignified bandying back and forth of unparliamentary epithets—with feelings of genuine regret and sorrow. No good purpose can be subserved by it, while the country meanwhile is placed in a most humiliating position in the eyes of foreign nations—trade paralyzed and every industrial interest for the time being jeopardized. Where will it end?

Highway robberies in broad daylight in the most populous thoroughfares continue almost of daily occurrence. The latest is that of an errand boy, fifteen years of age, who was knocked down in a street leading to Wall, and robbed of $200 while on his way to bank.

Money seems at the present time to be so abundant (that is among a certain class only) they do not seem to know what to do with it, if we judge the fact by the lavish manner in which it is scattered on all sides, either in wholesale extravagance or in the scientific amusement of bubble blowing. Once upon a time things were very different. Men were content to earn a fair income, and were satisfied with a reasonable rate of interest. Now, however, all this is changed. The old plan suits no longer. With an increased rate of expenditure has grown a desire for increased returns. A fortune must be made in a fortnight or so. Bubble schemes are all the go, provided the bait is sufficiently gilded—whose only apparent object is to enrich the promoters.

The great oil swindle has been blown up, and the sensation it once created has died away. But that was only one of the hundred empty bubbles of the day. Their name is legion. The result is an average of about one hundred failures large and small ones here daily. It is an old adage that if there were no receivers there would be no thieves.

He who robs and runs away,
May live to rob another day.

Our generous city government appropriates $15,000 for the celebration of the 22d, and $1,000 for the picture of his Honor Mayor Hoffman.

The members of the Society for the Prevention of Cruelty to Animals are causing the arrest of the car-drivers and conductors of many of the city railroad cars for cruelty to their horses, in compelling them to draw overloaded cars. In several instances quoted, over one hundred persons were found packed in one car, and these in turn were dragged along with only two horses attached. Others again, with accomodations for not over thirty persons, had frequently packed and jammed in eighty and ninety persons at a time. The suppression of this evil meets with very general approbation.

The reported defalcations in the American Exchange Bank turns out to be what a morning cotemporary calls "trifling irregularities." The amount taken is "so small as to be of trifling consequence to the Bank"—viz: $60,000. We should like to have such a "trifling irregularity" drop into our pockets, now and then.

Among other great projects of internal improvement, which occupy the attention of our capitalists, that of tunnelling the Niagara river is finding considerable favor. The point spoken of as a practicable one is at Fort Erie just opposite Buffalo.

The cost of the work is estimated at much less than the cost of a bridge at the same place.

Among the most wealthy city taxpayers are William B. Astor, whose tax, exclusive of the national tax, is $400,000, his tax on $2,000,000 of personal property is $53,400; John J. Astor jr., is credited with a tax of $3,337 50, on $125,000 personal property, and Wm. Astor pays on $20,000 personal property. On estates Mr. A. T. Stewart is taxed upward of $250,000; nearly one quarter is derived from his personal property of $2,000,000. Cornelius Vanderbilt pays on $1,200,000 personal property; about $80,000 tax on the Harlem Railroad city domain. Not one of these gentlemen pays taxes on more than about one fourth of their wealth. The figures denote this.

This is said to be the first winter in which native American workmen have been known to seek voluntarily the protection of the station-houses for themselves and families.

More than one hundred and fifty weekly journals are published in this city, seven-eighths of which hardly any New Yorker ever heard of. Most of them are for outside circulation.

Nineteen unsuccessful attempts at suicide have been made in this city during the present week.

Some of the Broadway landlords estimate that at the present rates it costs $2 10 per day to feed a man at their tables, presuming he eats three meals.

The general trade of the city is improving gradually, and the indications are favorable to a good spring business. The transactions in breadstuffs during the past week have been to a very moderate extent, and prices generally have ruled slightly in favor of buyers. Flour has declined 20@30 cents, wheat 2@3 cents, corn 1@2 cents. In the department of dry goods the business has been good in domestic cottons, and prices still have an upward tendency.

Hon. James Guthrie on Monday last sent his resignation as United States Senator to the Governor of Kentucky, on account of his continued sickness and inability to go to Washington, and the Legislature has determined to elect his successor.

We notice by the Valley Spirit that the Sheriff of Franklin county last week consigned three "American citizens of African descent" to the Eastern Penitentiary. It is horrible to restrain loyal people in this way.

Careful estimates of the cost of the special investigating committee on the elections in Kentucky fix it at four hundred thousand dollars. That is a specimen of the way the money is being squandered.

Three State elections occur in the spring. In New Hampshire on the second Tuesday of March, in Connecticut on the first Monday of April, and in Rhode Island on the first Wednesday of April.

By looking at the present condition of Hayti the people may perceive what "negro supremacy" amounts to. Barbarism in every form, including the cutting of throats and wholesale lawlessness.

Nero fiddled while Rome was burning, but Neapolitans send a full band of music to play at the mouth of the crater of erupting Vesuvius.
