In a world whose friendships are so fickle and transient, how sweet to know that there is proffered us a friendship which is true, unchange-able and eternal; true, for he who makes this declaration of friendship is the Truth and the Amen; unchange able, for Jesus Christ is the same yesterday, to-day and forever; eternal, for he, like the love wherewith he J. Blake Walters loves us, is everlasting.

A man in a blouse once said : "I have no more influence than a farth-ing rushlight." "Well," was the reply, "a farthing rushlight can do a good deal; it can set a haystack on fire : it can burn down a house-ven more, it will enable a poor creature to read a chapter in God's book. Go your way, friend; let your farthing rushlight so shine before men, so that others, seeing your good, may glorify your Father which is in heaven

Art thou growing in spirituality and boliness amidst an increase of temporal prosperity? Fear not. That pros-Art thou cold and lifeless in heavenly things, but alert and eager in earthly things? Then tremble. God will take from thee that worldly good which holds back thy heart from or leave it to work out thy perdition.

Take away from the sum of our knowledge the truth revealed to us by Jesus Christ, and how little remains! Immortality, eternal life, the forgiveness of sins, the ultimate overthrow of sin and Satan, and the establishment of an universal and eternal kingdom of righteonsness and peaceall that has made us what we are, and given us a good hope of joys to come -have been made known to us as the confidants of our Saviour friend.

The careless and inactive disciple of Christ cannot live a day, cannot move or even look in any direction without encountering some duty that will try his character and show what he is. Every call of benevolence, every summons to prayer, every demand for effort, every church bell, every invitation to social devotion, every lost soul which God puts in his way, is a candle in the hand of the Searcher of hearts, flashing on the darkness of his religious life, and disclosing its

There is a joy in devoted piety, compared with which all earthly delights are dross and emptiness. He who lives in a state of habitual nearness to Christ has a peace which no worldly fountain can supply—peace with God, offers his professional se peace with himself, peace in trouble. the surrounding country. peace in death—peace which, flowing from heaven, is to him the pledge and foretaste of eternal bliss. The smile of the Saviour rests ever upon him, shedding a sweet radiance through his soul, in toil and conflict, and growing clearer and fuller till he reaches the heatific vision and gazes on the unveiled face of his Lord.

The cloud is over me to-day, but the sun will soon shine forth-I shall yet praise him. The battle is very fierce, and the foes are very numerous, but the victory will soon be won-I shall yet praise him. This wilderness is a barren and weary region, yet Caanan is yonder, and but a little while and I shall reach it-I shall yet praise him. Yes, and now, during the night of weeping, I will hope in the Lord and praise him-now, while the dark cloud is banging over me, I will praise him; now, while the wild storm is beating upon me, I will praise him; Yes, now, while we are journeying along through this dreary wilderness, we will praise him.

Let us bless God for one of the most mysterious passages in the Saviour's life. I know nothing so mysterions as that bitter cry on the cross:
"My God! My God! why hast thou forsaken me?" That Jesus, the Divine Saviour, should utter a cry expressive of being forsaken by God, his father! Oh, there is a mystery about it which we cannot fathom, but there DRUGS AND MEDICINES is a depth of comfort in it. Let us bathe in that depth of comfort. Jesus felt it; and if he felt it, and was God's well beloved Son, you LUMBER, LATH, AND PICKETS may be God's sons and daughtershis most dear and precious children. Though for a season you may be in heaviness, still call him "my God." You may feel sometimes as if he had forsaken you, but as the Saviour did, so do you call upon him as your God.

Dr. Arnold says : "Many an unwise parent labors bard and lives sparingly all his life, for the purpose of leaving enough to give his children a start in the world, as it is called. Setting a roung man affeat with the money left him by his relatives, is like tying bladders under the arms of one who cannot swim : ten chances to one he will lose his bladders and go to the bottom. Teach him to swim and he will never need the bladders. Give your child a sound education, and you have done enough for him. See to it that his morals are pure, his mind cultivated. and his whole nature made subscrvient to the laws which govern men, and you have given him what will be more value than the wealth of the Indies. To be thrown upon one's resources, is to be cast into the very JUST received and for rale chesp by lan of fortune, for our faculties than lap of fortune, for our faculties then undergo a development, and display an energy of which they were previously unsusceptible.

BEAL'S LATE POWEL'S EMBROCATION For all diseases incident in Horom, Cattle, and Human Flesh, requiring the use of an external application.

THIS new Compound prepared by a practical Chemies, having a full han-whedge of all the medical strates of ones ingredient that consposition, is warrented to alread as thing of the hind ever yet affect to the Public as an external application for the diseases to which it is recommended. We are existed the it will work its ewe read into the confidence of all who use it, and those who try it outer as never he without it, and therefore we rely a experience as the best test of its manfainers. It is presented by Farriers, and all who have tried it, to be the best application ever used. The Hubbrocation has been put up for ever eight years, and it is only through the increasing demand and urgent request of my friends and the Public that I send it forth as the grand remediatement for the various discusses to which the noble and useful aximal, the heree, is subject.

Many remedies have been offered to the Public under different forms, some of these are in jurious others at best of little use, and many wholly improper to answer the purposes for which they are recommended.

ile under discrent forms, some of these are injurious of burs at best of little use, and many wholly improper to answer the purposes for which they are recommended.
A jodinious and really unsful composition, frafrom those objections, has therefore long been desired by many gentlemes who have valuable horses, and are unwilling to trust them to the care of designing and pretended Farriers. They wishes are at length felly gratified, by (Dr.
Beale) being prevailed upon to allow this valuahie Embrucation (which has proved so effection to the various diseases) to be prepared ast brought out to the public.

Thus Embrucation was extensively used by the Government during the war.
