

THE REPUBLICAN.

RELIGIOUS MISCELLANY.

The devil steals more souls through the deceiver than through any one other channel.

Wisdom is an ocean that has no shore. Its prospect is not terminated by a horizon; its centre is everywhere, and its circumference nowhere.

It has been well suggested that people's excuses for neglecting duty, are not generally their reasons for such neglect. The excuse is, very commonly, the method of concealing the true reason.

When a gentleman once remarked in company how very liberally those persons talk of what their neighbors should give away, who are least apt to give anything themselves.

THE HAPPY COMBINATION.—There is nothing purer than truth, nothing sweeter than charity, nothing warmer than love, nothing brighter than virtue, nothing more steadfast than faith.

In your retirement make frequent colloquies or short discourses with God and thy own soul. Every return of the heart to these intercourse is a going to him, an appearing in his presence, and a representing his presence to thy spirit and to thy necessity.

RECOGNITION IN HEAVEN.—An old minister, while one day pursuing his studies, his wife being in the room, was suddenly interrupted by her asking him a question which has not been suddenly answered.

Dr. Hugh Blair, the celebrated rhetorician, and his colleague, Dr. Robert Walker, were respectively the most eloquent exponents of the theories of works and grace of the essential doctrines of Christianity.

The Bible is mainly of value to us as it reveals to us a redeemer. That preaching is the best that best exhibits and recommends Christ Jesus.

That terrible saying of Annie of Austria to Richelieu holds true for mercy as well as for judgment: "My lord cardinal, God does not pay at the end of every week, but at last he pays."

BEAL'S LATE POWELL'S EMBROCATION For all diseases incident to Horses, Cattle, and Human Flesh, requiring the use of an external application.

THIS new Compound, prepared by a practical Chemist, having a full knowledge of all medicinal virtues of each ingredient, that enters into its composition, is warranted to exceed anything of the kind ever yet offered to the Public as an external application for the disease, which it is recommended. We are satisfied that it will work its own road into the constitution, all who use it, and those who try it, once never be without it, and therefore we rely upon its success in the test of its usefulness, is pronounced by Farriers, and all who have used it, to be the best application ever used. T. Embrocation has been put up for over 20 years, and it is only through the increasing demand and urgent request of my friends and Public that I send it forth as the grand remedy for the various diseases to which the horse and useful animal, the horse, is subject. Many remedies have been offered to the Public under different names, some of these are a mere waste of time, and some are so injurious to the animal, that they are never properly to answer the purpose for which they are recommended.

A judicious and really useful composition, free from those objections, has therefore long been desired by many gentlemen who have valuable horses, and are unwilling to trust them to the care of designing and pretentious Farriers. The wishes are at length fully gratified, by (Beal's) being prevailed upon to allow this valuable Embrocation (which has proved so efficacious in the various diseases) to be prepared and brought out to the public, by the undersigned. This Embrocation was extensively used by the Government during the war.
