

The Republican

GEORGE B. GOODLANDER, Editor.

CLEARFIELD, PA.

Thursday Morning, April 9, 1868.

DEMOCRATIC STATE TICKET.

State elections were held in Connecticut and Michigan on Monday last. Both States have undoubtedly declared for Democracy and the Union.

Settled at Last. The long contested Senatorial case between Robinson and Shugart has at length been settled. This case was adjusted precisely as we told our party friends when it commenced.

The time is not distant when Democrats will elect their members and keep them in their seats by bayonets. If Constitutional law will not defend and protect Democrats in their rights, something more potent must.

THE VICE PRESIDENCY.—The National robbers are in great agony over the Vice Presidency. They have been cheated in every instance heretofore, as their vices elect seem to love and appreciate Union more than party, and were, therefore, compelled to cross swords with their friends and leave them. This they intend to avoid in the future, if possible, and are therefore on the lookout for a first-class Union-buster. The Rads in this State have instructed for Gov. Curtin, but they don't trust him, and he will be defeated at Chicago, if possible.

IMPEACHMENT.—This loyal farce is still under way, with Beas Butler in full command of the bureau. The ablest conspirators fell back. The virtuous Thad. and the humane Bingham have subsided. The Beas commands the forum as completely as he did the operators on the Dutch Gap Canal, with every prospect of being as effectually bottled in the end.

An election for Governor and other State officers was held on Senator Sprague's farm (Rhode Island) on the 1st instant. The disunionists just held their own on Governor, by importing a large number of votes from Boston and Plymouth Rock, but lost a large number of county officers, Senators and members of the Legislature, which points indelibly to the "decline and fall" of their Empire.

Debate on the Registry Bill.

On Thursday last the Disunion Radicals consummated another of their infamous pet measures, at Harrisburg, in the shape of a Registry law. This act completely overturns the present election laws of this State.

The debate upon the passage of the bill, which will be found below, again illustrates the "grand moral ideas" of the freedom mongers. They boldly proclaim that all men are free and equal; but when their views are tested, they prove to apply to none but negroes and white Disunionists.

The annual election expenses in our country have heretofore been about one thousand dollars; but under this loyal reform bill, it will cost the people more than three times that amount; besides, each voter will have to spend from two to three days to get to one election. The time and money required to be spent, under this bill, will be found to be a burden to freemen, rather than a pleasure and duty, as heretofore.

Mr. BRENNAN, Dem., of Schuylkill, rose in an excited manner said that the gentleman from Chester had attacked the intelligence of the Irish Catholics. He would find many among those Irish Catholics who were more capable of teaching their duty to their country and their God than the gentlemen from Chester.

Mr. HICKMAN, Dem., of Cambria, moved an amendment to the second section, striking out the provision which requires assessors to mark opposite each man's name the nature of his qualifications as an elector, such as "naturalized," "declared intention," "age," "residence," &c.

Mr. STRANG, Dem., of Tioga, said it was time the House arrived at a decision on this question. Everybody knew that all the Republicans would vote for the bill and that all the Democrats would vote against it.

Mr. THORN, Dem., of Philadelphia, moved to exempt the city of Philadelphia from the provisions of the bill.

Mr. KLEBNER, Rep., of Philadelphia, moved that the doors be closed to prevent the ingress of any more members.

Before the vote on the call for the previous question was announced, Mr. MANN, Rep., of Potter, said there were a number of members present who had not voted because they had paraded off—but, under the circumstances, he thought their obligations were discharged. He called upon the Speaker to order such men to cast their votes.

The speaker said he thought there was no quorum voting. The result showed 45 yeas to 6 nays, there being exactly a quorum voting, only six Democrats answering to their names.

Another Edit.—Wherever loyal Radicalism reigns supreme, there the Democratic foot prints of our predecessors yield to the stern hoof of Despotism. The following order from Gen. Schofield, making a Governor for the State of Washington, Jefferson and Madison, amply illustrates the strides loyalty is making in our Commonwealth.
