HOW TO SAVE MONEY.

THE times are bard; you'd like to know How you may save your dollars; The way to do it I will show, If you will read what follows.

A man who lived not far from here, Who worked hard at his trade, But had a household to support That squandered all he made.

I met him once. Says he, "My friend, I look thread bear and rough; I've tried to get myself a suit, But can't save up enough."

Save I, my friend, how much have you? I'll tell you where to go
To get a suit that's sound and chesp:
To REIZENSTEIN & Co.

He took what little he had sured,
And went to Reizenstein & Brothers',
And there he gut a hundenose suit,
For half he paid to others.

New he is home, he looks so well, And their effect is such, That when they take their daily meal, They don't eat half as much.

And now be finds so Saturday night, With all their wants supplied That he has money left to spend, And some to lay saids.

His good success, with obserful smile, He gladly tells to all. If you'd save money, go and buy Your clothes at— REIZENSTEIN'S CLOTHING HALL.
