How you may save your dollars ; The way to do it I will show, If you will read what follows.

A man who lived not far from here, Who worked hard at his trade, But had a household to support That equandered all he made.

I've tried to get myself a suit, But can't save up enough."

I met him ence. Says he, "My friend, I look thread bear and rough ;

Says I, my friend, how much have you ? Til tell you where to go To get a suit that's sound and sheap : To HEIZENSTEIN & Co.

And went to Reizenstein & Brothers', And there he got a handsome suit, For half he paid to others.

Now he is home, he looks so well, And their effect is such. That when they take their daily meal, They don't eat half as much.

And now he finds on Saturday night, With all their wants supplied,

His good success, with cheerful sulls, He giadly tells to all. If yon'd save monsy, go and hay Your clothes at-REIZENSTEIN'S CLOTHING HALL.
