Thursday Morning, June 18, 1868. DEMOCRATIC STATE TICKET.

> AUDITON GENERAL, HON. CHARLES E. BOYLE, Of Fayette county.

GEN. WELLINGTON H. ENT.

Of Columbia county.

The Disunionists, at the late muni cipal election in Washington, D. C., succeeded in electing two buck niggers to the city council. The Democrats, like gentlemen should do, protest against sitting in the chamber with them.

The Democratic National Convention assembles in the city of New York, on the 4th of July next, two weeks from next Saturday. Pendleton, of Ohio, or Hendricks, of Indiana, or Seymour, of New York, or Adams, crat, will satisfy our ambition.

The trial of Hon. Jefferson Davis has for the fifth time been postponed. until October. The Radical leaders do everything by halver except robbing the people and the Treasury. President Johnson is half tried, John Surratt is half tried, Mr. Davis has been in court repeatedly, but will never be tried.

The negro population of Georgia is traveling with giant strides towards extinction, and so rapid is the decline that even those living among them can see the decrease very plainly. Such are the fruits of Radical philanthropy. Instead of freedom, extinction and death is the doom of the colored race under Radical influence.

The iron mongers in this country are either imberiles or villains. Their importunities for "protection" are endless. We clip the following from the Altoons Tribune.

We have listened to the "proteca few Iron Manufacturers, within the past thirty years, yet they are as persistent in their demands as in the beginning. Congress, State Legislatures, and nine-tenths of the people must be forever blackmailed to maintain and support the iron aristocrats. Much that was said and done in the so-called Soldiers' and Sallors' Convention at Chicago, recently, was diagraceful to the army and navy and to the nation. General Cochrane said, in a speech that was reciferously applanded, "he hoped every true soldier in the country would sit as jurors upon the conduct of the seven political townships in the country of Clearneld traitors in the United States Senate shall be held on the second Tuesday and would give in a verdict cashier-ing and dismissing them from the service of their country." This was said of Fessenden, Trumbull, Grimes, Henderson, Fowler, Ross, and Van Winkle, who dared to vote on the impeachment according to their consciences and the bantling is not satisfied yet. and their oaths; and just then the Millions of dollars have been contrib band struck up the "Rogue's March," uted by the millions of consumers to to the evident satisfaction of all, who cheered loudly! So says the report-

Stokes, of Tennessee, who "hoped that the country would spew our the recreant seven, and consign them to obscurity, and believed that a recruiting office would be opened in the balls of Congress to enlist fourteen new Senators to prefer new charges against Andy Johnson Subsequently, "three hearty groans were given by the Convention, rising to their feet, for Andrew Johnson and the 'traitorous' Republican Senators, thought by the American people and the world of an assemblage sentiments so unjust and malignant against the President and Senators of ter of the brave men who, on land or sea, defended the laws, the unity and soldiers and sailors outside of them-selves, and that the real military herof such a mob.

House THIEVES ABOUT .- On the night of the 26th ult., one or more of these necturnal prowlers entered the stable of Henry Fleck, of Logan township, Huntingdon county, and stole therefrom a dark brown horse, about ten years old, fifteen hands high, with star on forehead, long neck, and carries up finely. The horse is insured in the Penn's Mutual Horse Thief Detecting and Insurance Company, of York, and branded under the mane with the letter "C." $230 reward will be paid for the recovery of the horse and arrest and conviction of the thief.

THE GREAT RADICAL AFFLICTION. Next to the Oregon election, decidedy the greatest affliction of the Radical party is Ben. Butler and Ben. Butler's nosing committee. "Spoons" is aware of this. He knows that all sensible Republicans are thoroughly disgasted with the whole proceedings, and this is precisely what he is aiming at. He has not forgotten Grant's "bottling up" process, and is deter-mined to have his revenge; and the most effectual way of obtaining it. Butler thinks, is to push forward the operations of the smelling committee.

KILLED BY LIGHTSING.-Saturday last while Mr. John Adams was plow ing in a field near Shirleysburg the storm came upon him when his borses and he took refuge under a tree. He had been thus sheltered but a few moments when the lightning struck and killed him instantly, but singular enough the horses escaped unburt. Mr. Adams was a young married man much esteemed by all around hirs, and his sudden death is deeply mourned by the entire neighborhood .- Hun-

GENERAL GRANT'S prediction that the acquittal of the President would be followed by bloodshed in the South has not yet been fulfilled, much to the discust of the Radicals, who are hungering and thirsting for the broiling of a negro, or something of the kind, upon which to base a little axcitement, What will the Radicals do if Grant's prediction remains unfulfilled?
