THE times are hard; you'd like to know

How you may save your dellars; The way to do it I will show, If you will read what follows. A man who lived not far from here, Who worked hard at his trade But had a household to support That squandered all he make. I met him once. Says be, "My friend, I look throad bear and rough; I've teled to get myself a suit, But can't save up enough." Says I, my friend, how much have you?
I'll tell you where to go
To get a suit that's mond and sheap:
To REIZENSTEIN & Co.

He took what little he had saved, And went to Reisensuin & Brethars', And there he got a hardsome suit, For half he paid to others. Now he is home, he looks so well, And their effect is such, That when they take their dully meal, They don't eat half as much

And now he finds on Saturday night,

His good success, with cheerful smile,

With all their wants supplied, That he has money left to spend, And some to ley aside.

He gladly tells to all.
If you'd new money, go and buy
Your chubes a:REIEENSTEIN'S CLOTHING HALL. Where the sheapest finest and best Cluthing and good Furnishing Goods can be had to rais every taste and in every style april (#7
